8 While he answered for himself, a Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cefar, have I offended any thing at all.

9 But Festus, b willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and faid, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?

10 Then faid Paul, I standat Cefars judgment-feat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.

11 ° For if I be an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. d I appeal unto Cefar.

12 Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Cesar? unto Cefar shalt thou go.

13 And after certain days, king Agrippa and Bernice came unto Ce-

14 And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Pauls cause unto the king, faying, 'There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:

15 About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.

16 To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before that he which is accufed, have the accufers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.

17 Therefore when they were come hither, without any delay, on the morrow, I fat on the judgmentfeat, and I commanded the man to be brought forth;

23 And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus commandment Paul was brought forth.

24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye fee this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought g not to live any longer.

3 And the next day we touched at c Chap. 24. 22. 82 28. 16. Sidon. And Julius' courteoutly entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to , go unto his friends to refresh himself.

·4 And when we had knnched from thence, we failed under Cyprus, becanfe the winds were contrary.

5 And when we had failed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra a city of Lycia

6 And there the centurion found a faip of Alexandria failing into Italy; and he put us therein.

7 And when we had failed flowly many days, and fcarce were come over against Chidus, the wind not futlering us, we failed under | Crete, over against Salmone:

8 And hardly paffing it, came unto a place which is called, The fair haven, nigh whereunto was the city of Laica.

9 Now when much time was fpent, and when failing was now dangerous, e The Falt a because the fast was now already was on the tentilboyof path, Paul admonished them, the seventh month.

10 And faid unto them, Sirs, I 23. 27, 29. perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.

11 Nevertheless, the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were spoken by Paul.

12 And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the fouth-west, and north-west. 13 And when the fouth-wind blew foftly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, looting thence, they failed close by Crete.

14 But not long after there | arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Laroclydon.

15 And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.

16 And running under a certain island, which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat

17 Which when they had taken up, they aid helps, undergirding the fhip; and fearing left they should Anno Dom. fall into the quick fands, strake fail, _ and fo were driven.

1,8 And we being exceedingly toffed with a tempelt, the next day they lightened the ship;

19 And the third day " we cast out " Jonah with our own hands the tackling of the thip.

20 And when neither fun nor ftars in many days appeared, and no fmall tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be faved was then taken away.

21 But after long abstinence, Paul flood forth in the midst of them, and faid, Sirs, ye fhould have hearkened untome, and not have loofed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and lofs.

22 And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of any mans life among you, but of the ship.

23 For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I ferve,

24 Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cefar: and lo, God hath given thee all them that fail with thee

25 Wherefore, Sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God that it shall be even as it was told me.

26 Howbeit f we must be cast upon f Chap. a certain illand.

27 But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight, the shipmen deemed that they drew near to fome country;

28 And founded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they founded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then, fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, we cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

30 And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the fea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship, 31 Paul faid to the centurion, and to the foldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.

32 Then the Soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.

42 And the foldiers counsel was to kill the prisoners, left any of them fhould fwim out, and escape.

43 But the centurion, willing to fave Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that they which could fwim, should cast themselves first into the fea, and get to land;

Abrahams faith was imputed to him for righteoufness.

What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham were b justified by works, he hath whereof to glory, but not before God,

3 For what faith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteouinels.

4 Now d to him that worketh is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteoufnefs.

6 Even as David also describeth the bleffedness of the man unto whom God imputeth righteousness without Et every foul ' be subject unto the higher powers. For b there is no power but of God: the powers that be are | ordained of God.

2 Whofoever therefore relifteth the power, relisteth the ordinance of God; and they that refut shall receive to themselves damnation.

c Tit. 3. I. 3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, butto the evil. Wiltthou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and d thou shalt have praise of the same : 4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the fword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doth evil.

5 Wherefore e ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, i but also for conscience sake.

6 For, for this cause pay you tribute also: for they are Gods minifters, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 8 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for a he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 For this, 'Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this faying, namely, & Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyfelf.

10 Love worketh no ill to his neighbour: therefore I love is the fulfilling of the law.

I He exhirteth to purity, 3 and sheweth what comfort he took in afflictions.

Having therefore these promises, (dearly beloved,) let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.

2 Receive us: we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

3 I fpeak not this to condemn you: for 'I have faid before, that you are in our hearts to die and live with you.

4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: d I am filled with comfort, Anno Dom. I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.

5 For " when we were come into Col. 1. 24. Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but e Chap. we were troubled on every fide: without were fightings, within were f Deutfears.

6 Nevertheless, 8 God that com- g Chap. forteth those that are cast down, comforted us by h the coming of the Social Titus:

7 And not by his coming only, but by the confolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; fo that I rejoiced the more.

8 For though I made you forry with a letter, I do not repent, though 2.4. I did repent: for I perceive that the fame epiftle made you forry, though it were but for a season.

9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made forry, but that ye forrowed to repentance: for ye were made forry after a godly manner, that ye might according receive damage by us in nothing.

to For godly forrow worketh repentance to falvation, not to be repented of: but the forrow of the world worketh death.

11 For behold, this felf-same thing, that ye forrowed after a godly fort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourfelves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement defire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge! in all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 Wherefore though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that fuffered wrong, but that our care for you in the fight of God might appear unto you.

13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For if I have boafted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even fo our boafting, which I made before Titus, is found

15 And his + inward affection is tor more abundant toward you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him.

2 How that in a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy, and "their deep poverty, abounded unto the riches of their + liberality.

3 For to their power, (I bear record,) yea, and beyond their power, they were willing of themselves;

a Praying us with much intreaty, that we would receive the gift, and take upon us b the fellowship of the

5 And this they dil, not as we hoped, but first gave their ownselves to the Lord, and unto us, by the will

6 Infomuch that we defired Titus. that as he had begun, fo he would alfo finish in you the same grace also.

7 Therefore as c ye abound in every thing, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us; jes that ye abound in this grace also.

8 d I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the fincerity of your love.

9 For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he Philipp, was rich, yet for your fakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

> 10 And herein I f give my advice: for 5 this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be + h forward a year ago.

11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you have.

12 For i if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not.

13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and you burdened:

14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a Jupply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want, that there may be equality;

15 As it is written, & He that had Anno Dom. gathered much had nothing over: and he that had gathered little had ke no lack.

16 But thanks be to God, which put the fame earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.

17 For indeed he accepted the ex- 1 verse 6. hortation, but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you.

8 Howbeit, then, when ye knew not God, kye did fervice unto them i.Ep'i. 2.12. which by nature are no gods.

9 But now, 1 after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, m how turn ye | again to n the weak and beggarly | elements, whereunto ye desire again to be in bondage?

10° Ye observe days, and months,

H or, back, and times, and years.

11 I am afraid of you, P lest I have bestowed upon you labour in vain.

12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: 9 ye have col. 2. 16. not injured me at all.

25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in nor, is in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem her chadren

26 But d lerufalem, which is above, is free, which is the mother of us all.

27 For it is written, Rejoice, thou estantant barren, that bearest not, break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the defolate hath many more children Anno Pont than the which tiath an hutband.

28 Now we, brethren, as Ifaac was, are f the children of promife. 29 But as then, 6 he that was born g Gen. after the fleth, persecuted him that 21. 9. was born after the spirit, h even so it "Chap. so is now.

CHAP. VII.

I Christ Jesus is a priest after the order of Melchisedec, is and so far more excellent than the priests of Aarons

For this a Melchisedec king of a Cen. 14. Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the flaughter of the kings, and bletled him;

2 To whom also Abraham gave a Anno Doin, tenth part of all: first being by interpretation king of righteousness, and after that also king of Salem, which is king of peace;

3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither tor. beginning of days, nor end of life; pedegrees but made like unto the Son of God, abideth a priest continually.

4 Now confider how great this man was, bunto whom even the patriarch b Gen. Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

5 And, verily, c they that are of the c Numb. fons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:

the promifes.

7 And without all contradiction. the less is blessed of the better.

8 And here men that die receive tithes: but there he receiveth them, of whom it is witneffed that he liveth.

o And as I may fo fay, Levi alfo, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

10 For he was yet in the loins of his father when Melchisedec met him.

11 ° If therefore perfection were by egal-2.21. the Levitical priesthood, (for under it 18, 19, Chap. 8, 70 the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?

12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.

13 For he, of whom these things are fpoken, pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.

14 For it is evident that four Lord f Matth. sprang out of Judah: of which tribe Luke 3, 33. Mofes fpake nothing concerning priesthood,

15 And it is yet far more evident; for that, after the similitude of Melchifedec, there arifeth another prieft, Jefus is the Son of God?

6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood: and it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.

7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, i the Word, and the holy Ghost: and thefe three are one.

8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and thefe three agree in one.

o If we receive k the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God, which he hath testified of his Son.

TABLES of SCRIPTURE MEASURES, WEIGHTS and Coins. With an Appendix containing the Method of Calculating its Measures of Surface, hereto wanting in Treatifes on this Subject.

By the Right Rev. RICHARD Lord Bishop of Peterborough.

MEASURE is a known Quantity applied to another of the same Kind that is less known, to make its Dimensions better known, by help of Numbers expressing the Proportion that the known Quantity bears to the unknown. The Dimensions to be measured are three. I Mere Longth, which hath but one Dimension. 2 Surface, which consists of Length multiplied into Breadth: So it hath two Dimensions, as it were, interwoven, and this is always measured by some square Surface already known, as by a square Foot, or a square Cubit, or any other square already known, by Help of its Side. Mosas generally useful the square Cubit. 3 Is Solidity or Capacity, which hath three Dimensions multiplied into each other: Length, Breadth, and Height or Depth. This is measured by a known Cube. From Soidity ariseth Weight in all sublunary Bodies; and by Weight we measure the Value of Coins: Therefore I shall join Weights and Coins together in the fourth Table.

I use = to signify Equal, ::: to express Proportion: . is called Separatriz, parting Decimals from Integers.

I. T. A B L E. Measures of Length.

I express the Cubit, and its Parts, both by Inch-measure and by Foot-measure; which I deduce from Inches by this Proportion.

TABLES of Scripture Measures, Weights and Coins.

II. TABLE. Measures of Surface.

Moses hath described these by square Cubits. I here express them reduced to our square Feet: The Method of this Reduction is taught in an Appendix. I first propose three clear examples given by Moses. Secondly, I place six Instances of greater Difficulty.

The clearest Examples are,

- I. The Altar of Incense. Only two Sides of it, viz. its Length and Breadth are exprest by Moses, each of them is affirmed to be one Cubit. Yet he declares that it was four-square: Whence we collect, that it was just one square Cubit. See Exodus xxx. 2. Now it is demonstrated in the Appendix, that one fewish square Cubit amounts to in Surface three English square Feet, and about 47 square Inches.
- II. The Table of Shew-bread, Exodus xxv. 23. It is affirmed to be two Cubits in Length, and one in Breadth: None doubt but it was rectangular, containing two fewish square Cubits. These amount to above six English square Feet, and above Half, viz. 94 square Inches.
- III. The Boards of the Tabernacle, each ten Cubits in Length. and one and a Half in Breadth, Exodus xxvi. 16. being rectangular, must contain 15 square Cubits Jewish. These are proved to contain very near 50 square Feet of English Measure.

The more difficult Cases reserved to the Appendix are,

- I. The mercy-feat, whose Surface is = 12 square Feet and a half.
- II. A general Method is taught of reducing any given Number of Fewish Cubits to English square Feet.
- III. The Example of the Fifteen square Cubits in the Boards of the Tabernacle is made clear.
- IV. The Court of the Tabernacle, described Exodus xxvii. 18. is sound to be just Half the Egyptian Aroura, and to contain 1 Rood, 21 Perches, 27 square Feet, &c.

AN APPENDIX to the fecond Table of Measures of Surface. described by Moses, shewing the Method of reducing them by Calculation to the Measures used in England, for the Benefit of those that understand Decimal Arithmetick, and desire to try the Reductions given in the Table, or to make further Improvements in this Kind of Measures.

I Shall begin with Reduction of the Measures of the Mercy-feat, which was r. The God's Throne of Grace among the Jews. Moses in Exodus xxv. 17. af-Merc firms, that its Length was two Cubits and 1, its Breadth one Cubit and 1. The Fractions, adhering to its Length and Breadth, make some Difficulty to Beginners in Arithmetick, which the Decimal Way doth much abate. Suppoling therefore, what I have elsewhere proved, that the Jewish Cubit was in Foot-measure 1.824. the Length must be exprest in Foot-measure, and Decimals thereof 4.560. the Breadth in like Measure, will be 2 736. wherefore the Product of these Numbers multiplied into each other gives its Surface 12.47616: In Number of its square Feet, and Decimals thereof, 12 square Feet, and very near Half a square Foot, if the Decimals had been .50, it had been just Half a Foot. If we desire to express those Decimals of a Foot in square Inches, as is usual in England, we must multiply 47616 by 144, the fquare Inches of a Foot, and the Product will be 68,56704: Which shews, that the Decimals we found amount to 68 square Inches, and above Half an Inch more: We need not be nicer.

2. In the Altar of Incense Moles describes the Fevish square Cubit, which and square must be reduced to our Foot-measure, thus 1:8:14: the Product of these Numbers of multiplied, will be the upper Surface of this Altar, 3.326976, that is, three Measures square Feet and .326976 Decimals of a square Foot, which we may express by 47 square Inches, and a few Decimals of an Inch square, inconsiderable.

APPENDIX to the fecond Table of Measures of Surface.

. The

3. Moser's Description of the Boards of the Tabernacle, Exodus xxvi. 16. 3. Moler's Description of the Boards of the Tabernacle, Exodus xxvi. 16. by ten Cubits in Length, and one and a Half in Breudth, naturally leads a Man to differn in each Board's Surface 15 Jewish square Cubits; because if we conceive a Line drawn from the End of one Cubit at the Bottom of the Board, to the End of one Cubit at the Top of the Board, this must needs be ten whole square Cubits on one Side of that Line, and ten Half square Cubits (= 5 whole) on the other Side of that Line: Here therefore are 15 square Cubits. The Reduction of these into English square Feet is performed by multiplying 15, viz. the Number of Cubits given, into 3.326976, the Feet and Decimals of one fquare Cubit, and the Product will be 49.90464, and that is very near to 50 square Feet, for those Decimals amount to above 1:0 quare Inches, and little more than 13 square Inches would make it just 50 Feet, which Abatement we need not here regard.

4. Let us now go to the Measure of the Surface of Land: But we will begin with the Court of the Tabernacle, the Ground on which the Priefts performed all the solemn publick worship of Israel, in Myss's Time. The Area of this Court is described by Moses, Exodus xxvii. 18. by its Length 100 Cubits, and its Breadth every where 50 Cubits. Wherefore this Area must be in Jewish Measure 5000 square Cubits, for that is he Product of 100 multiplied into 50. To reduce these 5000 Fewish Cubits into English square Feet. I must multiply 5000 into 3.326976, the Product is 166:4.88 English Iquai e Feet.

But in Cases of such long Numbers of Feet, we use, for Brevity's sake, and to help our Memories, to reduce them into Perches, or Roods, or Acres, which con ain kno in Numbers of square Feet. A Perch contains 272 square Feet and 4. A Rood is = to 10890 square Feet. An Acre is = to 43560 fquare Feet. It is plain that the Number 166 4.88 hath not Integers equal to those of an Acre: but it hath enough to answer those in a Rood, and some overplus; therefore I must divide 16634.88, by 10890 which is a Ro d, by fuch Division continued in the Decimal Way, until I have a Fraction of five or fix Places, which is exact enough, I find the Quote to be 1.5275.7, which affures me that my Number 16634.88, hath but once entirely in it a whole Rood; but it hath moreover in it many Decimal Parts of a Rood. Tuese therefore I reduce to the Perches contained in them, by multiplying them into 40, which is the Number of Perches that make up a Rood; and cutting off fix Places from the Product, which is 21.101480; fo I find there are 21 Perches entire, and the Figures after the Separatrix are Decimals of a Perch. These also I multiply by 272.25 which are the square Feet and Decimals of a Perch. The Product of this last Multiplication, after eight Places cut off from it by the Separatrix, beca fe there are fix Places of Decimals in one of the Multipliers, and two in the other. is 27.6279,000. Hence I learn, that there are therein but 27 entire Feet, all the eight Decimal Places amount to little above Half a Foot, and therefore I cast them away as inconsiderable in the Measure of Land. This Method of Reduction by Multiplication of Decimals I find to be easier than the common Way of Reduction by Division, and therefore I propole it to be ofed by Beginners in this Practice of Surveying. So I find his Court to contain in English Meafure 1 Rood, 21 Perches, 27 Feet, and little nore than Half a Foot squared. But reflecting upon Mofes's Measure by Cubits, and finding them to be precifely 5000 Iquare Cubits, I observed that they were just Half 10000, which I had observed from Herodotus Euterpe, to be the Area of the Egyptian Aroura, by which their Land was as generally measured as ours is by Acres and Roods. See H-rodn. l. 2, c. 168; I called also to wind a Passage in Mantho an Experian Priest, cited by Josephus in his first Book against Apion, where he affirms that Manetho in his Hillory of the Reign, Wars, and Expulsion of the Pastors, (whom Africams athrms to be Phænicians or Canadnites, and Fosephus vainly believed to be Jews,) wrote ou of the publick Records of Egypt, that there Puffors made at Abaris, a very large and strong Encampment that encompassed 10000 Aroura, sufficient to contain 240000 vien, and long to maintain their Cattle. Hence it appears, that not only the Egyptians, but the Phænicians or Canaanites also that had dwelt among them, and had reigned there during the Time of fix Kings fur cessively, used this Measure of Land, called Aroura. Now this was long before Miles's Time; for the beginning of Amolis or Tethnolis, who expelled them out of Egypt, was very near the Time of Abraham's Death, as appears by the Annals of the learned Primate of Ireland. Wherefore I believe that M fes, who was skilled in all Egyptian learning, especially Surveying, did of Choice make the Court of the Tabernacle to be just Half an Aroura, which was a known Measure to him and his People, who had long dwelt in Egypt, and Divine Authority directed him fo to do.

5. Because we have shewn from Herodotus, that an Aroura is the Square of 5. The Resolution of the Square of Square o measure be exprest by 182.4 English Feet. it follows that the Square of this Alexers. Number will express exactly the Number of the English square Fee that are contained in an Aroura. Now by Multiplication of 182.4 into itself. I find the Product to be 3,269.76. Therefore I conclude that there are 3,3269 iqua e Feet entire, and 76 Decimals of a square Foot in an Aroura. Now to red ce thete English square Feet into Roods, Perches, and the Remainder of square Feet. I use the Method used in the last Paragraph; First, I divide the by 10890, the square Feet in a Rood, and the Quote I find 3.055074, that is, three Roods, and .055074 Decimals of a Rood. Secondly, I multiply those Decknals by 40, which is the Number of Perches in a Rood, the Product is 2.202960. Hence I conclude there are therein two Perches and .202900 Deci als of a Perch. Thirdly, I multiply these last Decimals by 272.25, which are the square Feet of a Perch. The Product is 55.25586000, that is 55 intire fquare Feet, the eight Places of D civals amount to little above i of a fquare Foot, therefore I reject them as inconfiderable in Measure of Land. By all these Reductions it is found that an Aroura is, in English Measure, three Roods, two Perches, 551 square Feet. Hence it follows also that it is not well translated by Jugerum, for it is much larger; nor is t well in English called an Acre, for it is considerably less. To this Place I refer the Use of the leffer Sort of xon &, which yet is most convenient for the Use of the Egyptims and of the Jews to measure out private Mens Inheritances, by a Line which was 80 Cubits long. For the Length of this Line will measure one Side of an Aroura, if the other Side be 125 Cubits I ng, which is the Length of this Line, and its Half, and five Cubits above Half of it, which they might eafily mark in it by a knot or a Ring. And by this Means they might eafily lay any Number of Aroura together, all of them tectangular and parallel to each other. Such Lines I suppose for Measure of Inheritances are incimated Pfalms Ixxviii. 55. and xvi. 6, &c.

6. I shall conclude with an Example amounting, after Reduction, to a Num- 6. The ber of English Acres, which Measure we have not yet reached to. This I fishes take from Numbers xxxv. 3, 4, 5, Verses: There Moles describes what Measure of Land the Levites were to be allowed for their Cattle, their Goods, and all their Beasts on the North, East, South and West Sides of each of their Cities. So that the City was to be in midst of the Land belonging to it. This Land in our Translation is called Suburbs, because of its nearness to all their Cities. But we must not thence imagine, that it means Houses and Streets adjoining to their Cities, in which Sense we some times use the A ord Suburbs. For Mofes plainly tells us, they were Places for their feveral Sorts of Cattle to feed in, fuch as might also be Orchards or Gardens for Fruits, or perhaps for a little Corn, comprehended in the Word [their Goods.] These Fields he limits by 1000 Cubits, which was just a Quarter of an Eastern Mile, but amounts in mere Length to 608 Yards English Measure, and therefore exceeds a Quarter of an English Mile by 168 Yards in Length. But it is certain, that Cattle cannot feed upon merc Length, but this must fignify the Side of some Surface of Land bounded thereby, and we must have two Sides of that Surface given before we can find the Area, or Surface contained. Therefore Moses, Verse 5. tells us, That on each side of each City, they must measure 2000 Cubits, which will determine no Surface, unless we understand it to mean the two Sides of a Square, bounded on every side by 1000 Cubits; these two Sides multiplied into each other will produce a Square that contains just a Million of square Cubits, and that is a known and exact Measure of just 100 Aroura, and this shews that the 2000 Cubits mentioned. Verle 5. are the two Sides of that Square, whereof the 1000 mentioned Verse 4. is one, and may be called the Root of the Square. This shews the Agreement of the two different Numbers. The Reduction of this Mi lion of Square Cubits will be performed by the same Method that I have used before. Therefore. First, I express 1000 Fewish Cupits by 1824 English Feet, without any Separatrix, according to the Principles owned in Decimal Arithmetick, and the Square of that Number will be 3326976, without a Separatrix. Secondly, I divide this Number by 43560, which are the square Feet of an Acre, and find the Quote to be 76.376859, which figurify 76 intire Acres, and 376859 Decimals of an Acre. Thirdly, To find what Roods are contained in these Decimals, I multiply them by 4, the Number of Roods in an Acre, and find the Quote to be 1.507436, which proves that there is but one Rood in them, and the fix Figures cut off by the Separatrix, (because there were fix Decimals in one of the Multipliers,) are all Decimals of a Rood. Fourthly, Therefore to find what Perches are in thele last Decimals, I multiply them by 40, which is the Number of Perches contained in a Rood. Toe Product is 20.297440; hereby I find there are 20 intire Perches, besides the Decimals of a Perch placed after the Separatrix. Fifthly, To find what iquare Feet are in those last Decimals, I multiply them by 272.25, which are the square Feet and Decimals in a Perch, the Product is 80.97804, which is 80 square Feet, and all the Decimals not amounting to a square Foot, I reject as inconsiderable in Measure of Land. Thus we have found, that this and every other Square, on each Side of every Levitical City, was prescribed to be 76 Acres, i Rood, 20 Perches, 80 square Feet in our Measure, but was just a Million of square Cubits in their Measure.

To add the four Squares belonging to one Levitical City together, the best Way will be to take the first Quote that we found in Acre-measure, viz. 76.376859, and we must multiply it by 4, and we shall find, by the Method I have used, all the four Squares together to amount to 305 Acres, 2 Roods, 1 Perch; we need not take Notice of any lesser Quantities in this Case: We may also, by this Method, find the Sum of the Acres belonging to all the 48 Cities of the Levites, and many other Improvements in this Kind of meafuring Surfaces: But I leave them to the Industry of others.

PSALM I.

HAT man hath perfect bleffedness, who walketh not affray In counsel of ungodly men, nor stands in sinners way, Nor fitteth in the scorners chair:

But placeth his delight Upon Gods law, and meditates on his law day and night.

He shall be like a tree that grows near planted by a river, Which in his feafon yields his fruit, and his leaf fadeth never: And all he doth shall prosper well.

The wicked are not fo; But like they are unto the chaff which wind drives to and fro.

In judgment therefore shall not stand fuch as ungodly are; Nor in th' affembly of the just shall wicked men appear. For why? the way of godly men unto the Lord is known: Whereas the way of wicked men shall quite be overthrown.

PSALM II.

Why rage the heathen? and vain things why do the people mind? Kings of the earth do fet themselves, and princes are combin'd, To plot against the Lord, and his Anointed, faying thus, Let us afunder break their bands,

He that in heaven fits shall laugh: the Lord shail fcorn them all. Then shall he speak to them in wrath, in rage he vex them shall.

6 Yet no withstanding I have him, And o'er Zion my holy hill and cast their cords from us.

I have him King anointed.

7 The fure decree I will declare: the Lord hath faid to me, Thou art mine only Son, this day I have begotten thee

8 Ask of me, and for heritage the heathen I'll make thine; And, for possession, I to thee will give earth's utmost line.

9 Thou shalt, as with a weighty rod of iron, break them all; And, as a potter's fherd, thou shalt them dash in pieces small.

o Now therefore, kings, be wife, be taught, ye judges of the earth.

I Serve God in fear, and fee that ye join trembling with your mirth.

12 Kiss ye the Son, lest in his ire ye perish from the way, If once his wrath begin to burn: blest all that on him stay.

PSALM III.

Lord, how are my foes increas'd? against me many rife.

2 Many fay of my foul, For him in God no fuccour lies.

3 Yet thou my shield and glory art, th' uplifter of mine head.

4 I cry'd, and from his holy hill the Lord me answer made.

5 I laid me down, and slept, I wak'd, for God sustained me.

6 I will not fear, though thousands ten fet round against me be.

7 Arise, O Lord, save me, my God; for thou my foes haft stroke All on the cheek-bone, and the teeth of wicked men hast broke.

8 Salvation doth appertain unto the Lord alone: Thy bleffing, Lord, for evermore thy people is upon.

PSALM IV.

God of my righteoutness: Have mercy, hear my pray'r, thou hast enlarg'd me in distress.

2 O ye the sons of men, how long will ye love vanities? How long my glory turn to fliame, and will ye follow lies?

3 But know, that for himself the Lord the godly man doth choose: The Lord, when I on him do call, to hear will not refule.

4 Fear, and fin not, talk with your heart on bed, and filent be.

5 Off'rings present of righteousness, and in the Lord trust ye.

6 O who will shew us any good? is that w'ich many fav: But of thy countenance the light, Lord, lift on us alway.

7 Upon my heart, bestow'd by thee, more gladness I have found.

Than they ev'n then when corn and wine did most with them abound.

8 I will both liv me down in peace, and quiet fleep will take : Because thou only me to dwell in fafety, Lord, dost make.

PSALM V.

I C Ive ear unto my words. O Lord, my meditation weigh.
2 Hear my loust cov. my K ng, my God, for I to thee will prov.

3 Lord,

2 Lord, thou shalt early hear my voice, I early will direct My prayer to thee, and looking up an answer will expect.

4 For thou art not a God that doth in wickednets delight: N ither shall evil dwell with thee.

Nor fools stand in thy sight:

All that ill-doers are thou hat'ft. Cur'lt off that liars be: The bloody and deceitful man abhorred is by thee.

7 But I into thy house will come in thine abundant grace: And ! will worship in the fear, towards the holy place.

8 Because of those mine enemies, Lord, in thy righteoufners, Do thou rie lead: do thou thy way make straight before my face.

9 For in their mouth there is no truth, their inward part is ill; Th ir throa's an open sepulchre, their tongue doth flatter still. 10 O God, destroy them, let then be by their own counsel quell'd: Them, for their many fins, cast out, for they 'gainst thee rebell'd.

II But let all joy that rust in thee, and still make shouting noise: For them thou fav'ft: let all that love thy name in the rejoice.

12 For, Lord, unto the righteous man thou wilt thy bleffing yield: With favour thou wilt compais him about, as with a fhield.

PSALM VI.

Ord, in thy wrath rebuke me not, Nor in h ho rage chaften me.

2 Lord, pity me. for I am weak: Heal me, for my bones vexed be.

3 My foul is also vexed fore;

But, Lord, how long stay wilt thou make?

4 Return, O Lord, my foul fet free : O sa e me for thy mercies sake.

5 Because those that deceased are Of thee shall no remembrance have: And who is no that will to thee Give praises, lying in the grave?

6 I with my groaning we.ry am, I also, all the night my bed, Have caused for to swim: and I With tears my couch have watered.

7 Mine eye, confum'd with grief, grows old. Be aufe of all mine enemies,

8 Hence from me wicked workers all;

For God hath heard my weeping cries.

9 God hath heard my weeping cries.

My pray'r reveived graciously.

10 Sham'd and fore vex'd be all my foes,

Sham'd and back-turned juddenly.

Another of the same.

I IN thy great indignation, O Lord, rebuke me not: Nor on me lay thy chast'ning hand in thy displeasure hot.

2 Lord, I am weak, therefore on me have mercy, and me spare:

Heal me, O Lord, because thou know'st my bones much vexed are.

3 My foul is vexed fore: but, Lord, how long stay wilt thou make?
4 Return, Lord, free my soul, and save me for thy mercies fake.

5 B-cause of thee in leath there shall no more remembrance be:

Of those that in the grave do ly, who shall give thanks to thee?

6 I with my groaning weary am, and all the night my bed I caused for to swim: with tears

my couch I watered

7 By reason of my vexing grief, mine eye confumed is: It waxeth old because of all that be mine enemies.

8 But now depart from me, all ye that work iniquity:

For why, the Lord hath heard my voice, when I did mourn and cry.

9 Unto my supplication the Lord did hearing give; When I to him my prayer make, the Lord will it receive.

10 Let all be sham'd and troubled fore that en'mies are to me; Let them turn back, and fuddenly alhamed let them be.

PSALM VII.

Lord, my God, in thee do I my confidence repose: Save and deliver me from all my perfecuting foes.

2 Lest that the enemy my soul should like a lion tear, In pieces renting it, while there is no deliverer.

3 O Lord my God, if it be fo that I committed this; If it be fo that in my hands iniquity there is:

4 If I rewarded ill to him that was at peace with me: (Yea, ev'n the man that without cause my foe was, I did free.)

5 Then let the foe pursue, and take my foul, and my life thrust Down to the earth. and let him lay mine honour in the dust.

6 Rife in thy wrath. Lord, raife thyfelf, for my foes raging be:

And to the judgment which thou hast commanded, wake for me.

7 So

PSALMS VIII. IX.

So shall th' affembly of thy folk about encompais thee:

Thou therefore, for their lakes, return unto thy place on high.

The Lord he shall the people judge:
my judge, Jehovah, be, After my righteoulness, and mine integrity in me.

O let the wicked's malice end, but stablish stedfaitly

The righteous: for the righteous God the hearts and reins doth try. In God, who faves th' upright in heart, is my defence and stay. I God just men judgeth, God is wroth with ill men ev'ry day. 12 If he do not return again, then he his fword will whet;

His bow he hath already bent, and hath it ready fet.

3 He also hath for him prepar'd the instruments of death; Against the persecutors he his fhafts ordained hath.

4 Behold, he with iniquity doth travail as in birth; A mischief he conceived hath, and falshood shall bring forth.

5 He made a pit, and digg'd it deep, another there to take. But he is fall'n into the ditch which he himself did make. 6 Upon his own head his mischief shall be returned home; His vi'lent dealing also down on his own pate shall come. 7 According to his righteousness the Lord I'll magnify:

And will fing praise unto the name of God that is most high.

PSALM VIII.

How excellent in all the earth, Lord, our Lord, is thy name! Who hast thy glory far advanc'd above the starry frame.

2 From infants and from sucklings mouth, thou dideft strength ordain,

For thy foes cause that so thou might'st th' avenging foe restrain.

3 When I look up unto the heav'ns, which thine own fingers fram'd, Unto the moon, and to the stars, which were by thee ordain'd;

4 Then fay I, What is man, that he remembred is by thee Or what the fon of man, that thou fo kind to him fhould'ft be?

5 For thou a little lower hast him than the angels made, With glory and with dignity thou crowned halt his head. 6 Of thy hand-works thou mad'ft him lord, all under's feet didit lay:

7 All sheep and oxen, yea, and beasts that in the field do stray.

8 Fowls of the air, fish of the sea, all that pais through the fame.

9 How excellent in all the earth, Lord, our Lord, is thy name!

PSALM IX.

Ord, thee I'll praise with all my heart, thy wonders all proclaim.

2 In thee, most High, I'll greatly joy, and fing unto thy name.

3 When back my foes were turn'd, they fell, and perish'd at thy sight.

4 For thou maintain'st my right and cause, on throne fatt'ft judging right.

5 The heathen thou rebuked haft, the wicked overthrown; Thou hast put out their names, that they may never more be known. 6 O en'my! now destructions have an end perpetual. Thou cities raz'd, perish'd with them is their memorial.

7 God shall endure for ay, he doth for judgment fet his throne:

8 In righteousness to judge the world, justice to give each one.

9 God also will a refuge be for those that are opprest: A resuge will e be, in times of trouble, to distrest.

10 And they that know thy name in the their confidence will place: For thou hast not forlaken them that truly feek thy face.

11 O sing ye praises to the Lord, that dwells in Zion hill, And all the nations among his deeds record ye still.

12 When he enquireth after blood. he then remembreth them: The humble folk he not forgets, that call upon his name.

13 Lord, pity me, behold the grief which I from foes sustain, Ev'n thou, who from the gates of death dost raise me up again :

14 That I, in Sion's daughters gates, may all thy praise advance: And that I may rejoice always in thy deliverance.

15 The heathen are funk in the pit, which they themselves prepar'd; And in the net which they have hid, their own feet fast are snar'd.

16 The Lord is by the judgment known which he himself hath wrought: The finners hands do make the inares, wherewith themselves are caught,

17 They A 3

- 17 They who are wicked into hell each one shall turned be And all the nations that forget to feek the Lord most high.
- 18 For they that needy are shall not forgotten be alway; The expectation of the poor shall not be lost for ay,

19 Arife, Lord, let not man prevail, judge heathens in thy fight

20 That they may know themseives but men the nations, Lord, affright.

PSALM X.

I WHerefore is it, that thou, O Lord, dolt stand from us afar? And wherefore hid, it thou thyfelf, when times to troublous are?

2 The wicked it his loftiness doth perfecute the poor:

In these devices they have fram'd, let them be taken fure.

3 The wicked of his hearts defire doth talk with boasting great; He bleffeth him that's covetous, whom yet the Lord doth hate. 4 The wicked, through his pride of face, on God he doth not call; And in the ounfels of his heart the Lord is not at all.

5 His ways they always grievous are; thy judgments from his fight Removed are: at all his foes he puffeth with delpight.

6 Within his heart he thus hath faid, I shall not moved be; And no advertity at all shall ever come to me.

7 His mouth with curfing, fraud, deceit, is fill'd abundantly: And underneath his tongue there is mischief and vanity.

8 He chosely fits in villages; he flays the innocent:

Against the poor that pass him by, his cruel eyes are bent.

9 He lion-like lurks in his den; he waits the poor to take: And when he draws him in his net, his prev he doth him make.

10 Hinsfelf he humbleth very low, he croucheth down withal, That so a multitude of poor may by his firong ones fall.

II He thus hath faid within his heart, The Lord hath quite forgot: He hides his countenance, and he for ever fees it not.

12 O Lord, do thou arife; O God, lift up thine hand on high: Put not the meek afflicted ones out of thy memory.

13 Why is it that the wicked man thus doth the Lord despise: Because that God will it require, he in his heart denies 14 Thou hast it seen, for their mischief and spit thou wilt repay: The poor commits himself to thee, thou art the orphans stay.

15 The arm break of the wicked man, and of the evil one; Do thou feek out his wickedness, until thou fi west none. 16 The Lord is King through ages all, ev'n to eternity:

The heathen people from his land are perish'd utterly.

17 O Lord, of those hat humble are thou the defi e didft hear:

Thou wilt prepare their heart, and thou to hear wilt bend hine ear. 18 To judge the fatherless, and those that are oppressed fore; That man, that is but fprung of earth, may them oppress no more.

PSALM XI.

I In the Lord do put my trust: Say to my foul, Flee as a bird unto your mountain high?

2 For lo, the wicked bend their bow, their shafts on string they fit, That those who upright are in heart they privily may hit.

3 If the foundations be destroy'd, what hath the righteous done?

4 God in his holy temple is, in heaven is his throne.

His eyes do fee, his eye-lids try mens fons. The just he proves; But his foul hates the wicked man, and him that vi'lence loves. 6 Snares, fire and brimftone, furious fform on finners he shall rain:

This, as the portion of their cup, doth unto them pertain.

7 Because the Lord most righteous doth in righteoufness delight,

And with a pl afant countenance beholdeth the upright.

PSALM XII.

HElp, Lord, because the godly man doth daily fade away, And from among the fons of men the faithful do decay.

2 Unto his neighbour ev'ry one doth utter vanity: They with a double heart do speak, and lips of flattery.

3 God shall cut off all flattering lips, tongues that fpeak proudly, thus, 4 We'll with our tongue prevail, our lips are purs: who's Lord o'er us?

PSALMS XIII, XIV, XV, XVI.

5 For poor oppress, and for the sighs of needy rife will I, Saith God, and him in safety set from fuch as him defy.

6 The words of God are words most pure, they be like filver try'd In earthen furnace, seven times that hath been purify'd.

7 Lord, thou shalt them preserve and keep for ever from this race.

8 On each fide walk the wicked, when vile men are high in place.

PSALM XIII.

HOw long wilt thou forget me, Lord?

O how long shall it be, that thou wilt hide thy face from me?

2 How long take counfel in my foul, ftill fad in heart, fhall I?

How long exalted over me fhall be mine enemy?

3 O Lord my God, consider well, and answer to me make: Mine eyes enlighten, lest the sleep of death me overtake.

4 Lest that mine enemy should say, Against him I prevail'd; And those that trouble me rejoice, when I am mov'd and fail'd.

5 But I have all my confidence thy mercy fet upon; My heart within me shall rejoice in thy falvation.

6 I will unto the Lord my God
fing praifes cheerfully,
Because he hath his bounty shown

PSALM XIV.

That there is not a God, the fool doth in his heart conclude:
They are corrupt, their works are vile, not one of them doth good.

2 Upon mens fons the Lord from heav'n did cast his eyes abroad,

To fee if any und-ritood, and did feek after God.

to me abundantly.

They altogether filthy are, they all afide are gone; And there is none that doeth good, yea, fure there is not one.

4 Those worke's of iniquity, do they not know at all,
That they my people eat as bread,
and on God do not call?

5 There fear'd they nuch; for God is with the whole race of the just.

6 You shame the counsel of the poor, because God is his trust.

7 Let Ifrael's help from Zion come, when back the Lord shall bring His captives, Jacob shall rejoice, and Itrael shall sing. PSALM XV.

WIthin thy tabernacle, Lord, who shall abide with thee?

And in thy high and holy hill who shall a dweller be?

2 The man that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteoutness, And as he thinketh in his heart, fo doth he truth express.

3 Who doth not flander with his tongue; nor to his friend doth hurt;
Nor yet against his neighbour doth take up an ill report.

4 In whose eyes vile men are despis'd; but those that God do sear He honoureth: and changeth not, though to his hurt he swear.

5 His coin puts not to utury, nor take reward will he Against the guiltless. Who doth thus, thall never moved be.

PSALM XVI.

Ord, keep me: for I trust in thee.
To God thus was my speech,
Thou art my Lord, and unto thee my goodness doth not reach;

3 To faints on earth, to th' excellent, where my delight's all plac'd:

4 Their forrows shall be multiply'd, to other gods that haste:

Of their drink-offerings of blood
I will no off ring make:
Yea, neither I their very names up in my lips will take.

5 God is of mine inheritance and cup the portion: The lot that fallen is to me thou dost maintain alone.

6 Unto me happily the lines in pleasant places sell; Yea, the inheritance I got in beauty doth excel.

7 I blefs the Lord, because he doth by counsel me conduct: And, in the feasons of the night, my reins do me instruct.

8 Before me still the Lord I set:
So that he
Doth eve: stand at my right hand,
I shall not moved be.

9 Because of this my heart is glad, and joy shall be express For hy my glory; and my flesh

Ev'n by my glory: and my flesh in confidence shall rest.

10 Because my soul in grave to dwell fliall not be lest by thee;
Nor wilt thou give thine holy One corruption to see.

of joys there is full flore

Before thy face, at thy right hand are pleasures evermore.

A 4 PSALM

PSALM XVII.

That doth not in hypocrify from feigned lips proceed.

2 And from before thy presence forth they sentence do thou send:
Toward these things that agreed ar

Toward these things that equal are, do thou thine eyes intend.

3 Thou prov'dst mine heart, thou visit'dst me by night thou didst me try, Yet nothing found'st; for that my mouth fhall not fin purpos'd I

4 As for mens works, I by the word that from thy lips doth flow, Did me preserve out of the paths wherein destroyers go.

5 Hold up my goings, Lord, me guidz in those thy paths di ine,

So that my footsteps may not slide out of those ways of thine.

6I called have on thee, O God, because thou wilt me hear: That thou may's hearken to my speech to me incline thine ear.

7 Thy wondrous loving kindness show, thou that by thy right hand, Say'st them that trust in thee, from those

8 As the apple of the eye me keep; in thy wings the de me close:

9 From lewd oppretiors, compating me round, as deadly foes.

10 In their own fat they are inclos'd: their mouth speaks lostily.

Our fleps they compass'c; and to ground down b wing set their eye.

12 He like unto a lion is, that's greedy of his prey, Or lion young, which lurking doth in fecret places stay.

13 Arife, and difappoint my foe, and call him down. O Lord: My four fave from the wicked man, the man which is thy fword.

24 From men which are thy hand, O Lord, from worldly men me face,

Which only in this present life their part and portion have:

Whose belly with thy treasure hid thou fill'st: they children have In plenty; of their goods the rest they to their children leave.

15 But as for me, I thine own face in righteoufnefs will fee; And with thy likenefs, when I wake, I fatisfy'd fhall be.

PSALM XVIII.

Thee will I love. O Lord, my strength,
My fortress is the Lord,
My rock, and he that doth to me deliverance afford:

My God, my strength, whom I will trust, a buckler unto me, The horn of my falvation, and my high tow'r is he.

3 Upon the Lord, who worthy is of praifes, will I cry:
And then shall I preserved be fafe from mine enemy.

4 Floods of ill men affrighted me, death's pangs about me went.

5 Hell's forrows me invironed: death's fnares did me prevent.

6 In my distress I call'd on God, cry to my God did I; He from his temple neard my voice, to his ears came my cry.

7 Th' earth, as affrighted, then did fliake, trembling upon it feiz'd;

The hills foundations moved were, because he was displeas'd.

8 Up from his nostrils came a fmoke, and from his mouth there came De curing fire, and coals by it were turned into flame.

9 He also bowed down the heav'ns, and thence he did descend:

And thickest clouds of darkness did under his feet attend.

and thereon he did fly:

Yea, on the fwift wings of the wind his flight was from on high.

11 He darknef, made his fecret place: about him for his tent Dark waters were, and thickest clouds of th' airy firmament.

12 And at the brightne's of that light which was before his eye,
His thick clouds pass'd away, hailstones and coals of fire did fly:

13 The Lord God alfo in the heav'ns did thunder in his ire;

And there the Highest gave his voice, hailstones and coals of fire.

14 Yea, he his arrows fent abroad, and them he scattered;
His lightnings also he that out, and them discomfited.

15 The waters channels then were feen the world's foundations vift At the rebuke discover'd were, and at the nothrils blaft.

16 And from above the Lord fent down,

From many waters he me drew, which would me overflow.

17 He me reliev'd from my throng foes, and such as did me hate;

Because he saw that they for me too strong were, and too great.

18 They

PSALM XIX.

18 They me prevented in the day or my calamity: But even then the Lord himself a stay was unto me.

19 He to a place, where liberty and room was, hath me brought: Because he took delight in me, he my deliv'rance wrought.

20 According to my righteousness he did me recompense,

He me repaid according to my hands pure innocence.

21 For I God's ways kept, from my God did not turn wickedly.

22 His judgments were before me, I his laws put not from me.

23 Sincere before him was my heart, with him upright was I: And wat hfully I kept myfelf from mine iniquity.

24 After my righteoufness the Lord hath recompensed me,

After the cleanness of my hands appearing in his eye.

25 Thou gracious to the gracious art, to upright men upright.

26 Pure to the pure, froward thou kyth'ft unto the froward wight.

27 For thou wilt the afflicted fave, in grief that low do ly:

But wilt bring down the countenance of them whose looks are high.

28 The Lord will light my candle for that it shall shine full bright: The Lord my God will also make my darkness to be light. 29 By thee through troops of men I break, and them discomfit all:

And by my God affitting me, I over-leap a wall.

30 As for God, perfect is his way: the Lord his word is try'd: He is a buckler to all those who do in him confide.

31 Who but the Lord is God? but he who is a rock and stay?

32 'Tis God that girdeth me with strength, and perfect makes my way.

33 He made my feet swift as the hinds, fet me on my high places. 34 Mine hands to war he taught, mine arms break bows of steel in pieces. 35 The thield of thy falvation thou didft on me bestow:

Thy right hand held me up, and great thy kindness made me grow.

36 And in my way my steps thou hast enlarged under me,

That I go fafely, and my feet are kept from sliding free.

37 Mine en'mies I pursued have, and did them overtake: Nor did I turn again, till I an end of them did make.

38 I wounded them, they could not rife: they at my feet did fall.

39 Thou girdedst me with strength for war: my foes thou brought'st down all.

40 And thou hast given to me the necks of all mine enemies: That I might them destroy and slay who did against me rife.

41 They cried out, but there was none that would or could them fave: Yea, they did cry unto the Lord, but he no answer gave. 42 Then did I beat them small as dust before the wind that flies:

And I did cast them out like dirt upon the street that lies.

43 Thou mad'st me free from people's strife and heathens head to be: A pe ple, whom I have not known, shall service do to me.

44 At hearing they shall me obey, to me they shall submit.

45 Strangers for fear shall fade away, who in close places fit.

46 God lives, bleft be my Rock; the God of my health praised be.

47 God doth avenge me and lubdues the people under me. 48 He faves me from mine enemies; yea, thou hast lifted me Above my foes; and from the man of vi'lence fet me free.

49 Therefore to thee will I give thanks the heathen folk among:

And to thy Name, O Lord, I will fing praifes in a fong. 50 He great deliv'rance gives his king;

he mercy doth extend

To David, his anointed one, and his feed without end.

PSALM XIX.

THe heav'ns God's Glory do declare, the skies his hand-works preach:

2 Day utters speech to day, and night to night doth knowledge teach.

3 There is no speech, nor tongue, to which their voice doth not extend.

4 Their line is gone through all the earth, their words to the world's end.

In them he fet the fun a tent,

Who bridgroom-like forth goes From's chamber as a strong man doth, to run his race, rejoice.

6 From heav'n's end is his going forth, circling to th' end again; And there is nothing from his heat that hidden doth remain.

7 God's

7 God's law is perfect, and converts the foul in fin that lies: God's testimony is most sure, and makes the simple wife.

3 The statutes of the Lord are right, and do rejoice the heart: The Lord's command is pure; and doth light to the eyes impart.

9 Unsported is the fear of God, and doth endure for ever:

The judgments of the Lord are true, and righteous altogether.

10 They more than gold, yea, much fine gold to be defired are:

Than honey, honey from the comb that droppeth, fweeter far.

11 Moreover they thy fervant warn how he his life should frame:

A great reward provided is for them that keep the fame.

12 Who can his errors understand? O cleanse thou me within 13 From fecrei faults. The fervant keep from all prefumptuous fin:

And do not fuffer them to have dominion over me:

Then righteous and innocent I from much fin shall be.

14 The words which from my mouth proceed, the thoughts fent from my heart Accept, O Lord, for thou my strength and my Redeemer art.

PSALM XX.

I TEhovah hear thee in the day when trouble he doth fend: And let the Name of Jacob's God thee from all ill defend.

2 O let him help fend from above, out of his fanctuary: From Sion his own holy hill, let him give strength to thee.

2 Let him remember all thy gifts, accept thy facrifice :

4 Grant thee thine heart's wish, and fulfil thy thoughts and counfel wife.

5 In thy falvation we will joy; in our God's name we will Display our banners: and the Lord thy prayers all fulfil.

6 Now know I God his king doth fave, he from his holy heav'n

Will hear him, with the faving strength by his own right hand giv'n.

7 In chariots some put confidence, fome horses trust upon:

But we remember will the Name of our Lord God alone.

8 We rife, and upright fland, when they are bowed down, and fall.

9 Deliver, Lord, and let the King us hear, when we do call.

PSALM XXI.

He king in thy great thrength, OLor shall very joyful be: In thy falvation rejoice how veh'mently shall he? 2 Thou haft bestowed upon him all that his heart would have.

And thou from him didft not with-hold whate'er his lips did crave.

3 For thou with bleffings him prevent'st of goodness manifold; And thou hast set upon his head a crown of purest gold.

4 When he defired life of thee, thou life to him didst give:

Ev'n fuch a length of days, that he for evermore should live. 5 In that falvation wrought by thee, his glory is made great: Honour and comely Majetly thou hast upon him fet.

6 Because that thou for evermore most blessed hast him made: And thou hast with thy countenance made him exceeding glad.

7 Because the king upon the Lord his confidence doth lay, And through the grace of the most High fhall not be mov'd away.

8 Thine hand shall all those men find out that en'mies are to thee, Ev'n thy right hand shall find out those of thee that haters be.

9 Like fiery ov'n thou shalt them make, when kindled is thine ire: God shall them swallow in his wrath, devour them shall the fire.

10 Their fruit from earth thou shalt destroy, their feed men from among.

It For they beyond their might 'gainst thee did plot mischief and wrong.

12 Thou therefore shalt make them turn back when thou the flafts shalt place Upon thy ftrings ade ready all to fly against their face.

13 In thy great pow'r and strength, O Lord be thou exalted high;

So thall we fing with joyful hearts, thy power praise that we.

PSALM XXII.

MY God, my God, why haft thou me forfaken? why fo far Art thou from helping me, and from my words that roaring are?

2 All day, my God, to thee I cry, yet am not heard by thee: And in the feafon of the night

I cannot filent be.

3 But thou art holy, thou that doft inhabit Iira'l's praife.

4 Our father's hop'd in thee, they hop'd, and thou didft them releafe.

5 Whe

PSALMS XXIII, XXIV.

- 5 When unto thee they fent their cry, to them deliv'rance came: Because they put their trust in thee, they were not put to shame.
- 6 But as for me, a worm I am, and as no man am priz'd: Reproach of men I am, and by the people am despis'd.

7 All that me see laugh me to scorn; fhoot out the lip do they, They nod and shake their heads at me, and mocking, thus do fay,

8 This man did trust in God, that he would free him by his might: Let him deliver him, fith he had in him fuch delight.

9 But thou art he out of the womb that didst me safely take: When I was on my mother's breasts, thou me to hope didft make.

10 And I was cast upon thy care, ev'n from the womb till now: And from my mother's belly, Lord, my God and Guide art thou.

II Be not far off, for grief is near; and none to help is found.

12 Bulls many compais me, strong bulls of Bashan me turround.

13 Their mouths they open'd wide on me, upon me gape aid they, Like to a lion ravening, And roaring for his prey.

14 Like water I'm pour'd out, my bones all out of joint do part :

Amidst my bowels, as the wax, so melted is my heart.

15 My strength is like a potsherd dry'd: my tongue it cleaveth fast Unto my jaws; and to the dust of death thou brought me haft.

16 For dogs have compass'd me about: the wicked, that did meet In their affembly, me inclos'd, they pierc'd my hands and feet.

17 I all my bones may tell, they do upon me look and stare.

18 Upon my vesture lots they cast, and clothes among them share.

19 But be not far, O Lord, my strength; hafte to give help to me.

20 From sword my soul, from pow'r of dogs my darling fet thou free.

21 Out of the roaring lion's mouth do thou me fh eid and fave: For from the horns of unicorns an ear to me thou gave.

22 I will shew forth thy name unto .. those that my brethren are: Amidst the congregation thy praise I will declare.

23 Praise ye the Lord, who do him fear: him glorify, all ye The feed of Jacob; fear him all that Isra'ls children be.

24 For he despis'd not, nor abhorr'd th' afflicted's milery: Nor from him hid his face, but heard when he to him did cry.

25 Within the congregation great my praise shall be of thee; My vows, before them that him fear, shall be perform'd by me.

26 The meek shall eat, and shall be filled, they also praise shall give Unto the Lord, that do him feek; your heart shall ever live.

27 All ends of th' earth remember shall, and turn the Lord unto; All kindreds of the nations to him shall homage do:

28 Because the kingdom to the Lord doth appertain, as his; Likewise among the nations the Governor he is.

29 Earth's fat ones eat, and worship shall: all who to dust descend Shall bow to him; none of them can his foul from death defend.

30 A feed shall service do to him, unto the Lord it shall Be for a generation reck'ned in ages all.

31 They shall come, and they shall declare, his truth and righteoufness Unto a people yet unborn, and that he hath done this. PSALM XXIII. THe Lord's my shepherd, I'll not want.

He makes me down to lie

In pastures green: he leadeth me the quiet waters by.

3 My foul he doth restore again; and me to walk doth make Within the paths of righteoulness, ev'n for his own names fake.

4 Yea, though I walk in death's dark vale, yet will I fear none ill: For thou art with me, and thy rod and staff me comfort still. 5 My table thou hast furnished, in presence of my foes: My head thou dost with oil anoint, and my cup overflows.

6 Goodness and mercy all my life fhall furely follow me: And in God's house for evermore my dwelling-place thall be.

PSALM XXIV. He earth belongs unto the Lord, and all that it contains;

The world that is inhabited, and all that there remains.

PSALM XXV.

2 For the foundations thereof he on the feas did lay, And he hath it established upon the floods to stay.

3 Who is the man that shall ascend into the hill of God? Or who within his holy place shall have a firm abode?

4 Whose hands are clean, whose heart ispure, and unto vanity

Who hath not lifted up his foul, nor fworn deceitfully.

5 He from th' Eternal shall receive the bleffing him upon,

And righteouness ev'n from the God of his falvation.

6 This is the generati

6 This is the generation that after him enquire,
 O Jacob, who do feek thy face with their whole hearts defire.

7 Ye gates, lift up your heads on high, ye doors that laft for ay, Be lifted up, that so the King of glory enter may.

8 But who of glory is the King?
the mighty Lord is this,

Ev'n that same Lord, that great in might and strong in battle is.

9 Ye gates lift up your heads, ye doors, doors that do last for ay, Be lifted up, that so the King of glory enter may.

To But who is he that is the King of glory? Who is this?

The Lord of hosts, and none but he,
the King of glory is.

PSALM XXV.

1 To thee I lift my foul:
2 O Lord, I trust in thee:
My God, let me not be asham'd, nor foes triumph o'er me.

3 Let none that wait on thee be put to shame at all;
But those that without cause transgress, let shame upon them fall.

4 Shew me thy ways, O Lord; thy paths, O teach thou me:

5 And do thou lead me in thy truth, therein my teacher be:
For thou art God that doft to me falvation fend,
And I upon thee all the day expecting do attend.

6 Thy tender mercies, Lord,
I pray thee to remember,
And loving kindnesses; for they have been of old for ever.
7 My fins and faults of youth

7 My fins and faults of youth do thou, O Lord, forget; After thy mercy think on me, and for thy goodness great, 8 God good and upright is:
the way he'll finners flow.

9 The meek in judgment he will guide, and make his path to know.

The whole paths of the Lord are truth and mercy fure,
To those that do his covinant keep, and testin onies pure.

O Lord, I thee intreat
To pardon mine iniquity;
for it is very areat.

the Lord, and doth him ferve?

Him shall he teach the way that he shall choose, and still observe.

13 His foul shall dwell at ease; and his posterity Shall slourish still, and of the earth inheritors shall be.

14 With those that fear him is the secret of the Lord:

The knowledge of his covenant he will to them afford.

15 Mine eyes upon the Lord continually are fet: For he it is that shall bring forth my feet out of the net.

16 Turn unto me thy face, and to me mercy flow: Because that I am desolate, and am brought very low.

17 My heart's griefs are increas'd, me from distress relieve.

18 See mine affliction and my pain, and all my fins forgive.

19 Consider thou my foes, because they many are, And it a cruel hatred is which they against me bear.

20 O do thou keep my foul, do thou deliver me: And let me never be asham'd because I trust in thee.

21 Let uprightness and truth keep me, who thee attend.
22 Redemntion Lord to Hand

22 Redemption, Lord, to Ifrael from all his troubles fend.

Another of the same.

TO thee I list my foul, O Lord:
My God, I truit in thee:
Let me not be afham'd; let not my foes triumph o'er me.

3 Yea, let thou none afhamed be that do on thee attend:
Afhamed let them be, O Lord, who without caule offend.

4 Thy ways, Lord shew; teach me thy paths,

For of my fafety thou art God, all day I wait on thee.

6 Thy

PSALMS XXVI, XXVII.

- 6 Thy mercies that most tender are, do thou, O Lord, remember, And loving kindnesses; for they have been of old for ever.
- 7 Let not the errors of my youth, nor fins remembred be:
 In mercy, for thy goodness fake, O Lord, remember me.

8 The Lord is good and gracious, he upright is also:

He therefore finners will instruct in ways that they should go.

9 The meek and lowly he will guide in judgment just alway: To meek and poor afflicted ones he'll clearly teach his way.

The whole paths of the Lord our God are truth and mercy fure,

To fuch as keep his covenant, and testimonies pure.

II Now for thine own name's fake, O Lord,
I humbly thee intreat

To pardon mine iniquity;
for it is very great.

What man fears God? him shall he teach the way that he shall choose.

13 His foul shall dwell at ease, his feed the earth, as heirs, shall use.

74 The fecret of the Lord is with fuch as do fear his name, And he his holy covenant will manifest to the n.

15 Towards the Lord my waiting eyes continually are fet:

For he it is that shall bring forth my feet out of the net.

16 O turn thou unto me. O God, have mercy me upon;

Because I solitary am, and in afficien.

17 Enlarg'd the griefs are of mine heart: me from diffress relieve.

18 See mine affliction and my pain, and all my fins forgive.

19 Confider thou mine enemies, because they many are; And it a cruel hatred is which they against me bear.

20 O do thou keep my foul, O God;
do thou deliver me:

Let me not be asham'd; for I do put my trust in thee,

21 O let integrity and truth keep me, who thee attend.
 22 Redemption, Lord, to If ael from all his troubles fend.

PSALM XXVI.

JUdge me, O Lord, for I have walk'd in mine integrity: I trufted also in the Lord; slide therefore shall not I. 2 Examine me, and do me prove; try heart and reins, O God.

3 For thy love is before mine eyes, thy truth's paths I have trode.

4 With persons vain I have not fat, nor with dissemblers gone.
5 Th' affembly of ill men I hate:

to fit with fuch I shun.

6 Mine hands in Incocence, O Lord, I'll wash and purify:
So to thine holy altar go, and compass it will I.

7 That I, with voice of thankfgiving, may publish and declare, And tell of all thy mighty works that great and wondrous are.

8 The habitation of thy house,

Lord, I have loved well, Yea, in that place I do delight, where doth thine honour dwell.

9 With finners gather not my foul, and fuch as blood would spill:

10 Whose hands mischievous plots, right hand corrupting bribes do fill.

II But as for me, I will walk on in mine integrity: Do thou redeem me, and, O Lord, be merciful to me.

12 My foot upon an even place doth stand with stedfastness: Within the congregations th' Eternal I will bless.

PSALM XXVII.

THe Lord's my light and faving health:
who shall make me difinald?
My life's strength is the Lord, of whom then shall I be afraid?

2 When as mine enemies and foes, most wicked persons all,
To eat my sless against me rose,

they stumbled and did fall.

Against me though an host encamp,
 my heart yet fearless is:
 Though war against me rife, I will be confident in this.

4 One thing I of the Lord defired, and will feek to obtain,

That all days of my life I may within God's house remain.

That I the beauty of the Lord behold may and admire, And that I in his holy place may rev'rently enquire.

5 For he, in his pavilion, (hall me hide in evil days: In fecret of his tent me hide,

In fecret of his tent me hide, and on a rock me raife.

6 And now, ev'n at this prefent time, mine head shall lifted be Above all those that are my foes, and round encompass me:

Therefore

PSALMS XXVIII, XXIX, XXX.

Therefore unto his tabernacle I'll facrifices bring

Of joyfulness. I'll sing, yea, I to God will praites fing.

7 O Lord, give ear unto my voice, when I do cry to thee: Upon me alfo mercy have, and do thou aniwer me. 8 When thou didft fay, Seek ye my face, then unto thee reply

Thus did my heart, Above all things thy face, Lord, feek will I.

9 Far from me hide not thou thy face, put not away from thee

Thy fervant in thy wrath: thou haft an heiper been to me.

O God of my salvation, leave me not, nor forfake; to Tho' me my parents both should leave, the Lord will me up take.

II O Lord, instruct me in thy way, to me a leader be In a plain path, because of those that hatred bear to me.

12 Give me not to mine en'mies will; for witnesses, that lie, Against me risen are, and such as breathe out cruelty.

13 I fainted had, unless that I believed had to fee The Lord's own goodness in the land of them that living be. 14 Wait on the Lord, and be thou strong, and he shall strength afford Unfo thine heart, yea, do thou wait, I lay, upon the Lord.

PSALM XXVIII.

O thee I'll cry, O Lord, my rock, hold not thy peace to me: Lest, like those that to pit descend,

I by thy filence be.

2 The voice hear of my humble pray'rs, when unto thee I cry:

When to thy holy oracle I lift mine hands on high.

3 With ill men draw me not away, that work iniquity: That speak peace to their friends, while in their hear's doth mischief ly. 4 Give them according to their deeds, and ills endeavoured: And as their handy-works deferve,

to them be rendered.

5 God shall not build, but them destroy, who would not understand

The Lord's own works, nor did regard the doing of his hand.

6 For ever bleffed be the Lord, for graciously he heard The voice of my petitions, and prayers did regard.

7 The Lord's my strength and shield, my heart upon him did rely;

And I am helped, hence my heart doth joy exceedingly.

And with my fong I will him praise. Their strength is God alone: He also is the saving strength of his anointed one.

9 O thine own people do thou fave, bless thine inheritance: Them also do thou feed, and them for evermore advance.

PSALM XXIX.

Tive ye unto the Lord, ye fons G that of the mighty be, All strength and glory to the Lord with cheerfulness give ye.

2 Unto the Lord the glory give, that to his name is due; And in the beauty of holiness, unto Jehovah bow.

3 The Lord's voice on the water is: the God of majesty

Doth thunder, and on multitudes of waters fitteth he.

4 A pow'rful voice it is that comes out from the Lord most high; The voice of that great Lord is full of glorious majesty.

5 The voice of the Eternal doth afunder cedars tear:

Yea, God the Lord doth cedars break that Lebanon doth bear.

6 He makes them like a calf to skip, ev'n that great Lebanon, And like to a young unicorn, the mountain Sirion.

7 God's voice divides the flames of fire:

The defert it doth fliake: The Lord doth make the wilderness of Kadesh all to quake. 9 God's voice doth make the hinds to calve, it makes the forest bare: And in his temple ev'ry one his glory doth declare.

To The Lord fits on the floods: the Lord fits King, and ever shall.

II The Lord will give his people strength, and with peace bless them all.

PSALM XXX.

Ord, I will thee extol, for thou I hast lifted me on high, And over me thou to rejoice mad'st not mine enemy. 2 O thou who art the Lord my God,

I in distress to thee With loud cries lifted up my voice, and thou hast healed me.

3 O Lord, my foul thou hast brought up, and rescu'd from the grave; That I to pit should not go down alive thou didit me fave.

PSALM XXXI.

O ye that are his holy ones, fing praise unto the Lord:

And give unto him thanks, when you his holiness record.

For but a moment lasts his wrath, life in his favour lies:

Weeping may for a night endure, at morn doth joy arile.

In my prosperity I faid, that nothing shall me move. O Lord, thou hast my mountain made to stand strong by thy love:

But when that thou, O gracious God, didst hide thy face from me,

Then quickly was my prosp'rous state turn'd into milery

Wherefore unto the Lord my cry I caused to ascend:

My humble fupplication I to the Lord did fend.

What profit is there in my blood, when I go down to pit?

Shall unto thee the dult give praise? thy truth declare shall it? Hear, Lord, have mercy, help me, Lord:

Thou turned halt my fadnets To dancing, yea, my fackcloth loos'd, and girded me with gladnefs.

2 That fing thy praise my glory may, and never silent be: O Lord my God, for evermore I will give thanks to thee.

PSALM XXXI.

IN thee, O Lord, I put my trust, sham'd let me never be: According to thy righteousnels, do thou deliver me. 2 Bow down thine ear to me, with speed fend me deliverance:

To fave me, my strong rock be thou, and my house of defence.

3 Because thou art my rock, and thee I for my fortress take:

Therefore do thou me lead and guide, ev'n for thine own name's lake.

4 And fith thou art my strength, therefore pull me out of the net. Which they in subtilty for me fo privily have fet.

5 Into thine han is I do commit my fp'rir; for thou art he,

O thou JEHOVAH, God of truth, that hast redeemed me. 6 Those that do lying vanities regard, I have abhorr'd: But as for me, my confidence is fixed on the Lord.

7 I'll in thy mercy gladly joy: for thou my mileries Confider'd haft; thou haft my foul known in adversities:

8 And thou hast not inclosed me within the en'mies hand; And by thee have my feet been made in a large room to stand.

9 O Lord, upon me mercy have, for trouble is on me: Mine eye, my belly, and my foul, with grief confumed be.

10 Because my life with grief is spent, my years with fighs and groans: My strength doth fail; and for my fin confumed are my bones.

II I was a fcorn to all my foes, and to my friends a fear: And specially reproach'd of those that were my neighbours near: When they me faw, they from me fled.

Ev'n fo I am forgot, As men are out of mind when dead: I'm like a broken pot.

13 For flanders I of many heard, fear compass'd me, while they Against me did consult and plot, to take my life away.

14 But as for me, O Lord, my trust upon thee I did lay: And I to thee, Thou art my God, did confidently fay.

15 My times are wholly in thine hand: do thou deliver me From their hands, that mine enemies and persecutors be.

16 Thy countenance to shine do thou upon thy fervant makes Unto me give falvation, for thy great mercies fake.

17 Let me not be asham'd, O Lord, for on thee call'd I have: Let wicked men be sham'd, let them be filent in the grave.

18 To filence put the lying lips, that grievous things do fay, And hard reports, in pride and scorn, on righteous men do lay.

19 How great's the goodness thou for them that fear thee keep'st in store; And wrought'st for them that trust in thee the fons of men before!

20 In fecret of thy presence thou fhalt hide them, from man's pride: From strife of tongues, thou closely shalt, as in a tent them hide.

21 All praise and thanks be to the Lord; for he hath magnify'd His wondrous love to me, within a city fortify'd.

22 For from thine eyes cut off I am, (I in my haste had faid,) My voice yet heardst thou, when to thee with cries my moan I made.

23 O love

23 O love the Lord, all ye his faints; because the Lord doth guard The faithful, and he plenteoully proud doers doth reward.

24 Be of good courage, and he strength unto your heart shall fend, All ve whole hope and confidence doth on the Lord depend.

PSALM XXXII.

O Bleffed is the man, to whom is freely pardoned All the transgression he hath done, whole fin is covered.

2 Bleft is the man, to whom the Lord imputeth not his fin,

And in whose sp'rit there is no guile, nor fraud is found therein.

3 When as I did refrain my speech, and filent was my tongue; My bones then waxed old, because I roared all day long.

4 For, upon me both day and night thine hand did heavy ly; So that my moisture turned is in fummer's drought thereby.

5 I thereupon have unto thee my fin acknowledged, And likewife mine iniquity I have not covered: I will confess unto the Lord my trespasses, said I;

And of my fin thou freely didft forgive th' iniquity.

6 For this shall ev'ry godly one his prayer make to thee, In fuch a time he shall thee feek, as found thou mavest be.

Surely, when floods of waters great do fw II up to the brim, They shall not overwhelm his foul, nor once come near to him.

7 Thou art my hiding-place, thou shalt from trouble keep me free: Thou, with fongs of deliverance, about shalt compass me.

8 I will instruct thee, and thee teach the way that thou shalt go:

And, with mine eye upon thee fet, I will dir ction show.

9 Then be not like the horse or mule which do not understand; Whose mouth, lest they come near to thee, a bridle must command.

to Unto the man that wicked is his forrow shall abound; But him that trusteth in the Lord mercy shall compass round.

11 Ye righteous in the Lord be glad, in him do ye rejoice: All ye that upright are in heart, for joy lift up your voice.

P S A L M XXXIII.

YE righteous in the Lord rejoice, it comely is, and right That upright men; with thankful voice, should praise the Lord of might. 2 Praise God with harp, and unto him fing with the plaltery: Upon a ten-string'd instrument make ye Iweet melody.

3 A new fong to him fing, and play with loud noise skilfully.

4 For right is God's word, all his works, are done in verity.

5 To judgment and to righteousness a love he beareth still:

The loving kindness of the Lord the earth throughout doth fill.

6 The heavens by the word of God did their beginning take; And, by the breathing of his mouth, he all their hosts did make.

7 The waters of the feas he brings together as an heap: And, in store-houses, as it were, he layeth up the depth. 8 Let earth, and all that live therein, with rev'rence fear the Lord;

Let all the world's in abitants dread him with one accord.

9 For he did speak the word, and done it was without delay;

Established it firmly stood, whatever he did fay.

10 God doth the counsel bring to nought which heathen folk do take: And what the people do. devise of none effect doth make.

II O! but the counsel of the Lord doth stand for ever fure; And of his heart the purposes from age to age endure.

12 That nation bleffed is, whose God JEHOVAH is, and those A bleffed people are, whom for his heritage he chose,

13 The Lord from heav'n fees and beholds all fons of men full well.

14 He views all, from his dwelling-place, that in the earth do dwell.

15 He forms their hearts alike, and all their doings he observes.

16 Great hofts fave not a king, much strength no mighty man preferves.

17 An horse for preservation is a deceitful thing: And, by the greatness of his strength, can no deliv'rance bring.

18 Behold, on those that do him fear the Lord doth fet his eye; Ev'n those who on his mercy do with confidence rely.

19 From

PSALMS XXXIV, XXXV.

19 From death to free their foul, in dearth life unto them to yield.

20 Our foul doth wait upon the Lord, he is our help and shield.

21 Sith in his holy name we trust, our heart thall joyful be.

22 Lord, let thy mercy be on us, as we do hope in thee.

PSALM XXXIV.

Od will I blefs all times; his praise my mouth fliall flill express. 2 My foul shall boast in God: the meek shall hear with joyfulness.

3 Extol the Lord with me, let us exalt his name together.

4 I fought the Lord, he heard, and did me from all fears deliver.

5 They look'd to him, and light'ned were: not shamed were their faces.

6 This poor man cry'd, God heard, and fav'd h in from all his diffresses.

7 The angel of the Lord encamps, and round encompasseth

All those about that do him fear, and them delivereth.

8 O taste and see that God is good: who trutts in him is bleft.

9 Fear God, his saints: none that him fear shall be with want opprest.

10 The bons young may hangry be, and they may lack their food: But they that truly feek the Lord thall not lack any good.

II O children, hither do ve come, and unto me give ear: I shall you teach to understand how ye the Lord should fear.

12 What man is he that life defires, to fee good would live long?

13 Thy lips refrain fro : fpeaking guile, and from ill words thy tongue.

14 Depart from ill, do good, seek peace, purfue it earneflly.

15 God's eyes are on the just; his ears are open to their cry.

16 The face of God is fer against those that do wickedly,

That he may quite out from the earth cut off their memory.

17 The righteous crv unto the Lord, he unto them gives ear; And they out of their troubles all by him deliver'd are.

18 The Lord is ever nigh to them that be of broken sp'rit: To them he fafety doth afford that are in heart contrite.

19 The troubles that afflict the just in number many be: But yet at length out of them all the Lord doth let him free.

20 He carefully his bones doth keep whatever can befal:

That not fo much as one of them can broken be at all.

21 Ill shall the wicked slay; laid waste shall be who hate the just.

22 The Lord redeems his fervants fouls, none perish that him trust.

PSALM XXXV.

DLead, Lord, with those that plead, and with those that fight with me. (fight

2 Of shield and buckler take thou hold, stand up mine help to be.

3 Draw also out the spear, and do against them stop the way,

That me purfue: unto my foul, I'm thy falvation fay.

4 Let them confounded be, and tham'd, that for my foul have fought:
Who plot my hurt, turn'd back be they,

and to confusion brought.

5 Let them be like unto the chaff that flies before the wind:

And let the angel of the Lord purfue them hard behind.

6 With darkness cover thou their way, and let it slipp'ry prove, And let the angel of the Lord purfue them from above.

7 For, without cause, have they for me their net hid in a pit,

They also have, without a cause, for my foul digged it.

8 Let ruin feize him unawares, his net he hid withal

Himself let catch; and in the same destruction let him fall.

9 My foul in God shall joy, and glad in his falvation be.

10 And all my bones shall fay, O Lord, who is like unto thee,

Which dost the poor set free from him that is for him too ffrong;

The poor and needy from the man that spoils and does him wrong?

11 False witnesses rose; to my charge things I not knew they laid.

12 They, to the spoiling of my foul, me ill for good repaid.

13 But as for me, when they were fick, in fackcloth fad I mourn'd: My humbled foul did fast, my pray'r into my bosom turu'd.

14 Myself I did behave, as he had been my friend or brother; I heavily bow'd down, as one that mourneth for his mother.

15 But in my trouble they rejoic'd, gath'ring themselves together; Yea, abjects vile together did themielves against me gather;

I knew

PSALMS XXXVI, XXXVII.

I knew it not, they did me tear, and quiet would not be.

16 With mocking hypocrites at feafts, they gnash'd their teeth at me.

17 How long, Lord, look'ft thou on? from those destructions they intend Rescue my foul, from lions young my darling do defend.

LS I will give thanks to thee, O Lord, within th' affembly great

And, where much people gather'd are, thy praifes forth will fet.

19 Let not my wrongful enemics proudly rejoice o'er me:

Nor, who me hate without a cause, let them wink with the eye.

20 For peace they do not speak at all: but crafty plots prepare Against all those within the land that meek and quiet are.

21 With mouths fet wide, they 'gainst me said, Ha, ha, our eye doth see.

22 Lord, thou half feen, hold not thy peace: Lord, be not far from me.

23 Stir up thyfelf, wake, that thou may'll judgment to me afford:

Ev'n to my cause, O thou that art my only God and Lord.

24 O Lord my God, do thou me judge after thy righteousness;
And let them not their joy 'gainst me triumphantly express.

25 Nor let them fay within their hearts, Ah, we would have it thus; Nor fuffer them to fay, that he is fwallow'd up by us.

26 Sham'd and confounded be they all that at my hurt are glad:

Let these against me that do boast, with shame and scorn be clad.

27 Let them that love my righteous cause be glad, shout, and not cease To say, The Lord be magnify'd, who loves his servant's peace.

28 Thy righteoufnefs shall also be declared by my tongue; The praises that belong to thee speak shall it all day long.

PSALM XXXVI

The wicked man's transgression within my heart thus says, Undoubtedly the fear of God is not before his eyes.

2 Because himself he flattereth in his own blinded eye. Until the hatefulness be found of his iniquity.

3 Words from his mouth proceeding are, fraud and in quity r
He to be wife, and to do good, hath left off utterly.

4 He mischief, lying on his bed, most comingly doth plot: He sets himself in ways not good, ill he abhorreth not.

5 Thy mercy, Lord, is in the heavens; thy truth doth reach the clouds.

6 Thy justice is like mountains great; thy judgments deep as floods:

Lord, thou preservest man and beast.

Therefore in thadow of thy wings mens foas their truft fhall place.

8 They with the fatness of thy house shall be well fatisfy'd;
From rivers of thy pleasures thou

From rivers of thy pleafures thou wilt drink to them provide.

9 Because of life the fountain pure remains alone with thee:

And in that pureft light of thine we clearly light shall see.

to Thy loving kindness unto them continue that thee know;
And still on men upright in heart thy righteousness bestow.

11 Let not the foot of cruel pride come, and against me stand:
And let me not removed be,
Lord, by the wicked's hand.

that work iniquities:

Cast down they are, and never shall be able to arise.

PSALM XXXVII.

r Cor evil-doers fret thou not thyfelf unquietly; Nor do thou envy bear to those that work iniquity.

2 For, even like unto the graß, foon be cut down shall they: And, like the green and tender herb, they wither shall away.

3 Set thou thy truft upon the Lord, and be thou doing good; And so thou in the land shalt dwell, and verily have food.

4 Delight thyfelf in God, he'll give thine heart's defire to thee.

5 Thy way to God commit, him trust, it bring to pass shall he.

6 And, like unto the light, he shall the righteouiness display. And he the judgment shall bring forth like noon-tide of the day.

7 Reft in the Lord and patiently wait for him: do not fret

For him, who, profp'ring in his way, fuccess in fin doth get.

8 Do thou from anger cease, and wrath fee thou forfake also:
Fret not thirself in any wife, that evil thou should'st do.

PSALM XXXVIII.

9 For those that evil-doers are shall be cut off and fall:
But those that wait upon the Lord the earth inherit shall.

To For yet a little while, and then the wicked shall not be; His place thou shalt consider well, but it thou shalt not see.

11 But by inheritance the earth the meek ones shall posses: They also shall delight themselves in an abundant peace.

12 The wicked plots against the just, and at him whets his teeth.

13 The Lord shall laugh at him, because his day he coming feeth. 14 The wicked have drawn out the sword,

4 The wicked have drawn out the fword and bent their bow, to flay The poor and needy, and to kill men of an upright way.

15 But their own fword, which they have fhall enter their own heart: (drawn, Their bows which they have bent shall and into pieces part. (break, to A little that a just man hath is more and better far, Than is the wealth of many such as lewd and wicked are.

For finners arms shall broken be; but God the just sustains.

18 God knows the just man's days, and still their heritage remains.

They shall not be asham'd, when they the evil time do see;

And when the days of famine are.

And when the days of famine are, they fatisfy'd shall be.

20 But wicked men, and foes of God, as fat of lambs decay,

They shall confume, yea, into smoke they shall confume away.

21 The wicked borrows, but the same again he doth not pay;
Whereas the righteous mercy shows, and gives his own away.

22 For fuch as bleffed be of him the earth inherit shall; And they that curfed are of him shall be destroyed all.

23 A good man's footsfeps by the Lord are ordered aright: And in the way wherein he walks, he greatly doth delight.

24 Although he fall, yet shall he not be cast down usterly;
Because the Lord with his own hand upholds him mightily.

25 I have been young, and now am old; yet have I never feen The just man lest, nor that his feed for bread have beggars been. 26 He's ever merciful, and lends: his feed is bleft therefore.

27 Depart from evil, and do good: and dwell for evermore.

28 For God loves judgment, and his faints leaves not in any cate,

They are kept ever: but cut off shall be the suners race.

29 The just inherit shall the land, and ever in it dwell.

30 The just man's mouth doth wissom speak; his tongue doth judgment tell.

31 In's heart the law is of his God, his fteps flide not away.

32. The wicked man doth watch the just; and feeketh him to flay.

33 Yet him the Lord will not forfake, nor leave him in his hands, The righteous will he not condemn, when he in judgment flands.

34 Wait on the Lord, and keep his way, and thee exalt shall he, Th' earth to inherit: when cut off the wicked thou shalt fee.

35 I faw the wicked great in pow'r, fpread like a green bay-tree.

36 He past, yea, was not: him I fought, but found he could not be.

37 Mark thou the perfect, and behold the man of uprightness: Because that furely of this man the latter end is peace.

38 But those men that transgressors are, shall be destroy'd together, The latter end of wicked men shall be cut off for ever.

39 But the falvation of the just is from the Lord above,
He, in the time of their distress, their stay, and strength doth prove.

40 The Lord shall help, and them deliver:
he shall them free and save
From wicked men: because in him their considence they have.

PSALM XXXVIII.

I IN thy great indignation,
O Lord, rebuke me not;
Nor on me lay thy chaffining hand,
in thy displeasure hot.

2 For in me fail thine arrows flick, thine hand doth prefs me fore.

3 And in my flesh there is no health, nor foundness any more.

This grief I have, because thy wrath is forth against me gone:
And in my bones there is no rest,

for fin that I have done.

4 Because gone up above mine head my great to inspections be: And, as a weighty burden, they too heavy are for me.

5 My

PSALMS XXXIX, XL.

My wounds do flink and are corrupt:

r . folly makes it fo.

6 I troub, ed am, and much bow'd down, all day I mourning go.

7 For a dilease that loathfome is, to fills my loins with pain, That in www weak and weary flesh no foundness doth remain.

8 So feeble and infirm am I, and broken am to fore:

That, through disquiet of my heart, I have been made to roar.

9 O Lord. all that I do defire is still before thine eye; And of my heart the fecret groans not hidden are from thee.

10 My heart doth pant incessantly, my st-ength doth quite decay: As for mine eyes, their wonted light is from me gone away.

II My lovers and my friends do stand at distance from my fore: And those do stand aloof that were kinfmen, and kind before.

12 Yea, they that feek my life lay mares who feek to do me wrong Sprak things mischievous, and deceits imagine all day long.

13 But as one deaf, that heareth not, I fuffer'd all to pass:

I as a dumb man did become, whole mouth not op'ned was.

14 As one that hears not, in whose mouth are no reproofs at all.

15 For, Lord, I hope in thee; my God, thou'lt hear me when I call.

16 For I faid. Hear me, lest they should rejoice o'er me with pride; And o'er me magnify themselves, when as my foot doth flide.

17 For I am near to halt, my grief is still before mine eye.

18 For I'll declare my fin, and grieve for mine iniquity.

19 But yet mine en'mies lively are, and strong are they beside: And they that hate me wrongfully, are greatly multiply'd.

20 And they for good that render ill, as en mies me withstood: Yea, ev'n for this, because that I do follow what is good. 21 Forfake me not, O Lord: my God, far from me never be. 22 O Lord, thou my falvation art, hafte to give help to me. PSALM XXXIX.

Said. I will look to my ways, left with my tongue I fin: In fight of wicked men my mouth with bridle I'll keep in.

2 With filence I as dumb became, I did myfelf restrain From speaking good; but then the more increased was my pain.

3 My heart within me waxed hot, and, while I musing was, The fire did burn; and from my tongue these words I did let pass.

4 Mine end, and measure of my days, O Lord, unto me show,

What is the fame: that I thereby my frailty well may know.

5 Lo, thou my days an hand-breadth mad'ft, mine age is in thine eye

As nothing, fure each man at best is wholly vanity.

6 Sure each man walks in a vain flow, they vex themselves in vain: He heaps up wealth, and doth not know to whom it shall pertain. 7 And now, O Lord, what wait I for?

my hope is fix'd on thee. 8 Free me from all my trespasses, the fools fcom make not me. 9 Dumb was I, op'ning not my mouth, because this work was thine.

10 Thy stroke take from me: by the blow of thine hand I do pine.

II When with rebokes thou doft correct man for iniquity, Thos wastes his beauty like a moth:

fore each man's vanity. 12 Attend my cry, Lord, at my tears, and pray'rs not fitent be: I fojourn as my fathers all, and firanger am with thee.

13 O spare thou me, that I my strength recover may again,

Before from hence I do depart, and here no more remain.

PSALM XL.

I T Waited for the Lord my God, and patiently did bear: At length to me he did incline my voice and cry to hear.

2 He took me from a fearful pit, and from the miry clay. And on a rock he fet my feet, eftabliffing my way.

3 He put a new fong in my mouth, our God to magnify: Many shall see it, and shall fear, and on the Lord rely.

4 O bleffed is the man whose trust upon the Lord relies:

Respecting not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.

5 O Lord my God, full many are the wonders thou hast done; Thy gracious thoughts to us-ward far above all thoughts are gone:

PSALMS XLI, XLII.

In order none can reckon them to thee: if them declare,
And ipeak of them I would, they more than can be numbred are.

6 No facrince, nor offering didst thou at all desire,

Mine ears thou bor'd: fin-offering thou and burnt didit not require.

7 Then to the Lord these were my words, I come, behold and see:

Within the volume of thy book it written is of me:

To do thy will I take delight,
O thou my God that art:
Yea, that most holy law of thine
I have within my heart.

9 Within the congregation great I righteousnets did preach:

Lo, thou dost know, O Loid, that I refrained not my speech.

to I never did within my heart conceal thy righteoufness: I thy falvation have declar'd, and shown thy faithfulness;

Thy kindness, which most loving is,

Nor from the congregation great have hid thy verity.

Thy tender mercies, Lord, from me O do thou not restrain: Thy loving kindness, and thy truth, let them me still maintain.

12 For ills past reck'ning compass me, and mine iniquities

Such hold upon me taken have, I cannot lift mine eyes:

They more than hairs are on mine head, thence is my heart difmay'd.

13 Be pleased, Lord, to rescue me: Lord, hasten to mine aid.

14 Sham'd and confounded be they all that feek my foul to kill:
Yea, let them backward driven be, and fham'd, that wish me ill.

15 For a reward of this their fhame, confounded let them be, That in this manner fcoffing fay, Aha, aha, to me.

16 In thee let all be glad, and joy, who feeking thee abide:

Who thy falvation love, fay still, The Lord be magnify'd.

17 I'm poor and needy, yet the Lord of me a care doth take: Thou art my help and Saviour, my God, no tarrying make.

PSALM XLI.

BLeffed is he that wifely doth the poor man's cafe confider; For, when the time of trouble is, the Lord will him deliver. 2 God will him keep; yea, fave alive, on earth he bleft shall live; And to his enemies desire thou wilt him not up give.

3 God will give firength, when he or ped of languishing doth mourn: And, in his fickness fore, O Lord, thou all his bed wilt turn.

4 I faid, O Lord, do thou extend thy mercy unto me;

O do thou heal my foul, for why?

I have offended tnee.

5 Those that to me are enemies of me do evil say,

When shall he die, that so his name may perish quite away?

6 To see me if he comes, he speaks vain words: but then his heart

Heaps mischief to it, which he tells, when forth he doth depart.

7 My haters, jointly whispering, 'gainst me my hurt dev.se.

8Mi schief, say they, cleaves fast to him; he ly'th, and shall not rife.

9 Yea, ev'n mine own tamiliar friend, on whom I did rely,

Who are my bread, ev'n he his heel against me lifted high and ip again me raife,

That I may justly them requite
according to their ways.

It By this I know that ce tainly
I favour'd am by thee:
Because my hateful enemy triumphs not over me.

12 But as for me, thou me uphold'st in mine integrity:

And me before thy countenance thou fett'ft continually 13 The Lord, the God of Ifrael, be bleft for ever then, From age to age eternally. Amen, yea, and amen.

PSALM XLII.

I Like as the hart for water brooks in thirst doth pant and bray; So pants my longing foul, O God, that come to thee I may.

2 My foul for God, the living God, doth thirst; when shall I near Unto thy countenance approach, and in God's fight appear?

3 My tears have unto me been meat, both in the night and day, While unto me continually

Where is thy God, they fay?

My foul is poured out in ine,
when this I think upon;
Because that with the multitude reaufe that with the multitude

I heretofore had gone:
B 3

With them into God's house I went, with voice of joy and praile;

Yea, with the multitude that kept the folemn holy days.

5 O why art thou cast down, my foul?
why in me so difinay'd?
Trust God, for I shall praise him yet,

Trust God, for I shall praise him yet, his count nance is mine aid.

6 My God, my foul's cast down in me: thre therefore mind I will From Jordan's land, the Hermonites,

7 At the noise of thy water-spouts deep unto deep doth call:

Thy breaking waves pass over me, yea, and thy billows all.

8 His loving kindness yet the Lord command will in the day,

His fong's with me by night, to God, by whom I live, I'll prav.

9 And I will fay to God, my Rock, why me forgett'ft thou fo? Why, for my foes oppression, thus mourning do I go?

"Tis as a fword within my bones, when my foes me upbraid:

Ev'n when by them, Where is thy God? 'tis daily to me faid.

why, thus with grief opprest,

Art thou disquiet d in me? in God still hope and rest;

For yet I know I shall him praise, who graciously to me The health is of my countenance, yea, mine own God is he.

PSALM XLHI.

I Judge me, O God, and plead my caufe against th' ungodly nation, From the unjust and crafty man,

O be thou my falvation.

For thou the God art of my ftrength, why thrusts thou me thee fro?

For th' enemies oppression why do I mourning go?

3 O fend thy light forth and thy truth; let them be guides to me, And bring me to thine holy hill

And bring me to thine holy hill, ev'n where thy dwellings be.

4 Then will I to God's altar go, to God my chiefest joy: Yea, God, my God, thy name to pra Yea, God, my God, thy name to praise my harp I will employ.

5 Why art thou then cast down, my soul? what should discourage thee?

And why, with vexing thoughts, art thou disquieted in me?

Still trust in God, for him to praise good cause I vet shall have:

He of my count'nance is the health, my God that doth me fave.

PSALM XLIV.

God, we with our ears have heard, our fathers have us told, What works thou in their days hadft done, ev'n in the days of old.

2 Thy hand did drive the heathen out, a. d plant them in their place; Thou didit afflict the nations, but them thou didst increase.

3 For neither got their fword the land, nor did their arm them fave:
But thy right hand, arm, countenance, for thou them favour gave.

4 Thou art my King: for Jacob, Lord, deliv'rances command.

5 Through thee we shall push down our foes, that do against us stand:

We, through thy name, shall tread down that rif'n against us have. (those 6 For in my bow I shall not trust, nor shall my sword me save.

7 But from our fees thou hast us fav'd, our haters put to shame.

8 In God we all the day do boaft, and ever praide thy name.

g But now we are cast off by thee, and us thou putt'st to shame: And, when our armies do go forth, thou go'ft not with the fame.

To Thou mak'ft us from the enemy

faint-hearted to turn back:

And they who hate us for themfelves our fpoils away do take.

It Like sheep for meat thou gavest us: 'mong heathen cast we be.

12 Thou didft for nought thy people fell; their price enrich'd not thee.

13 Thou mak'lt us a reproach to be, unto our neighbours near: Derifion, and a fcorn to them that round about us are.

14 A by-word also thou dost us among the heathen make: The people, in contempt and spite, at us their heads do shake.

15 Before me my confusion continually abides:

And of my bashful countenance the shame me ever hides.

16 For voice of him that doth reproach and speaketh blasphemy;
By realon of the avenuing for

By reason of th' avenging foe, and cruel enemy.

17 All this is come on us, yet we have not forgotten thee, Nor falfly in thy covenant behav'd ourselves have we.

18 Back from thy way our heart not turn'd; our steps no straying made.

19 Though us thou brak'ft in dragons place, and cov'redft with death's shade.

PSALM XLV.

20 If we God's name forgot, or firetch'd to a thrange god our hands: 21 Shall not God fearch this out? for he hearts fecrets understands.

22 Yea, for thy fake we're kill'd all day, counted as flaughter-sheep.

23 Rife, Lord, cast us not ever off, awake, why dott thou fleep? 24 O wherefore hidest thou thy face?

forgett'st our case distrest, 25 And our oppression? For our soul is to the dust down prest:

Our belly also on the earth fast cleaving hold doth take,

26 Rife for our help, and us redeem, ev'n for thy mercies fake.

PSALM XLV.

MY heart brings forth a goodly thing; my works that I indite Concern the king: my tongue's a pen of one that swift doth write. 2 Thou fairer art than fons of men: into thy lips is store

Of grace infus'd; God therefore thee hath bleft for evermore.

3 O thou that art the mighty One, thy fword gird on thy thigh: Ev'n with thy glory excellent, and with thy maj fly.

For meekness, truth, and righteousness, in state ride prosp'rously;

And thy right hand shall thee instruct, in things that fearful be.

5 Thine arrows sharply pierce the heart of th' en'mies of the king; And under thy subjection the people down do bring.

6 For ever and for ever is, O God, thy throne of might: The sceptre of thy kingdom is a fceptre that is right.

7 Thou lovest right, and hatest ill; for God, thy God most high, Above thy fellows hath with th' oil of joy anointed thee.

8 Of aloes, myrrh, and cassia, a finell thy garments had: Out of the iv'ry palaces, whereby they made thee glad.

9 Among thy women honourable 's daughters were at hand: king Upon thy right hand did the queen in gold of Ophir stand.

10 O daughter, hearken and regard, and do thine ear incline; Likewise forget thy father's house, and people that are thine.

It Then of the king defir'd shall be thy beauty veh'mently: Because he is thy Lord, do thou him worship revently.

12 The daughter there of Tyre shall be, with gifts and off'rings great: Those of the people that are rich, thy favour shall intreat.

13 Behold, the daughter of the king all glorious is within; And with embroideries of gold her garments wrought have been.

14 She thail be brought unto the king, in robes with needle wrought: Her fellow-virgins following, shall unto thee be brought.

15 They shall be brought with gladness great, and nirth on ev'rv fide,

Into the palace of the king, and there they shall abide.

16 Instead of those thy fathers dear, thy children thou may'it take, And in all places of the earth them noble princes make.

17 Thy name rememb'red I will make through ages all to be: The people therefore evermore shall praises give to thee.

Another of the fame.

MY heart inditing is good matter in a fong: I speak the things that I have made, which to the king belong: My tongue shall be as quick, his honour to indite, As is the pen of any scribe that useth fast to write.

2 Thou'rt fairest of all men, grace in thy lips doth flow: And therefore bleffings evermore on thee doth God bestow.

3 Thy fword gird on thy thigh, thou that art most of neight: Appear in dreadful majesty, and in thy glory bright.

4 For meekness, truth, and right, ride prosp'roully in state: And thy right hand shall teach to thee things terrible and great.

5 Thy shafts thall pierce their hearts that fors are to the king, Whereby into Subjection the people thou fluit bring.

6 Thy royal feat, O Lord, for ever shall remain: The sceptre of thy kingdom doth all right'outnets maintain.

7 Thou lov'ft right, and hat'it ill: for God, thy God most high, Above thy fellows hath with th' oil of joy anointed thee.

8 Of myrrh and spices sweet a finell thy garments had: Out of the iv'ry palaces whereby they made thee glad. B 4

9 And

PSALMS XLVI, XLVII, XLVIII.

o And, in thy glorious train, king daughters waiting stand: And thy fair queen, in Ophir-gold, doth stand at thy right hand.

to O daughter, take good heed, incline, and give good ear; Thou must forget the kindred all, and father's house most dear.

II Thy beauty to the king shall then delightful be:

And do thou humbly worthin him, because thy Lord is he.

12 The daughter then of Tyre there with a gift shall be, And all the wealthy of the land shail make their fuit to thee.

13 The daughter of the king all glorious is within; And with embroideries of gold her garments wrought have been.

14 She cometh to the king in robes with needle wrought: The virgins that do follow her fhall unto thee be brought.

15 They shall be brought with joy, and mirth on every fide, Into the palace of the king, and there they shall abide.

16 And in thy fathers stead, thy children thou may'lt take, And, in all places of the earth, them noble princes make.

17 I will shew forth thy name to generations all:

Therefore, the people evermore to thee give prailes shall.

PSALM XLVI.

God is our refuge and our firength, in straits a present aid.

2 Therefore, although the earth remove, we will not be afraid:

Though hills amidst the seas be cast. Though waters roaring make,

And troubled be; yea, though the hills by fwelling feas do shake.

4 A river is, whose streams do glad the city of our God: The holy place, wherein the Lord most high hath his abode.

5 God in the midst of her doth dwell: nothing shall her remove;

The Lord to her an helper will, and that right early, prove.

6 The heathen rag'd tumultuoufly, the kingdoms moved were: The Lord God uttered his voice, the earth did melt for fear. 7 The Lord of hofts upon our fide doth constantly remain:

The God of Jacob's our refuge, us fately to maintain.

8 Come, and behold what wondrous works have by the Lord been wrought: Come, fee what defolations he on the earth hath brought. 9 Unto the ends of all the earth wars into peace he turns: The bow he breaks, the spear he cuts, in fire the chariot burns.

10 Be still, and know that I am God: among the heathen I Will be exalted, I on earth will be exalted high.

II Our God, who is the Lord of hofts, is still upon our fide:

The God of Jacob our refuge for ever will abide.

PSALM XLVII.

A LI people clap your liands, to God with voice of triumph shour. 2 For dreadful is the Lord most high, great King the earth throughout. 3 The heathen people under us he furely shall subdue:

And he shall make the nations under our feet to bow.

4 The lot of our inheritance choose out for us shall he, Of Jacob, whom he loved well, ev'n the excellency. 5 God is with shouts gone up, the Lord with trumpets founding high. 6 Sing paife to Go +, fing praife, fing praife, praise to our King sing ye.

7 For God is King of all the earth, with knowledge praise express.

8 God rules the nations, God fits on his throne of horine's.

9 The princes of the people are affembled willingly; Ev'n of the God of Abraham they who the people be.

For why? the shields that do defend the earth are only his:

They to the Lord belong; yea, he exalted greatly is.

PSALM XLVIII.

Reat is the Lord, and greatly he Great is the praifed still, is to be praifed still, Within the city of our God, upon his holy hill.

2 Mount Zion stands most beautiful, the joy of all the land; The city of the mighty King on her north-fide doth fland.

3 The Lord within her palaces is for a refuge known.

4 For lo, the kings that gather'd were together by have gone.

5 But when they did behold the fame, they wond'ring would not flay: But, being troubled at the fight, they thence did haste away.

6 Great

PSALMS, XLIX, L.

Great terror there took hold on them, they were posses'd with fear; Their grief came like a woman's pain, when she a child doth bear.

Thou Tarshith ships with east-wind break'st: As we have heard it told;

So in the city of the Lord our eyes did it behold:

In our God's city, which his hand for ever stablish will. We of thy loving kindness thought,

Lord, in thy temple still.

O Lord, according to thy name, And thy right hand, O Lord, is full of right'ouiness always.

Because thy judgments are made known, let Sion mount rejoice;

Of Judah let the daughters all fend forth a cheerful voice.

2 Walk about Zion, and go round; the high tow'rs thereof tell. 3 Confider ye her palaces, and mark her bulwarks well;

That ye may tell posterity. For this God doth abide. Our God for evermore he will ev'n unto death us guide.

PSALM XLIX.

HEar this, all people, and give ear, 2 Both low and high, both rich and poor,

My mouth shall wisdom tell: My heart shall knowledge meditate,

I will incline mine ear To parables, and on the harp my fayings dark declare,

5 Amidst those days that evil be, why should I, fearing, doubt? When of my heels th' iniquity shall compass me about.

6 Whoe'er they be that in their wealth their confidence do pitch,

And boalt themselves, because they are become exceeding rich.

7 Yet none of these his brother can redeem by any way; Nor can he unto God for him fufficient random pay.

3 (Their fouls redemption precious is, and it can never be)

9 That still he should for ever live, and not corruption fee.

10 For why? he feeth that wife men die, and brutish fools also Do perish, and their wealth, when dead, to others they let go. It Their inward thought is, that their house and dwelling-places shall Stand through all ages; they their lands by their own names do call.

12 But vet in honour shall not man abide continually: But passing hence, may be compar'd unto the beasts that die.

13 Thus, brutish folly plainly is their wildom, and their way;

Yet their posterity approve what they do fondly fay.

14 Like sheep they in the grave are laid, and death shall them devour; And, in the morning, upright men shall over them have pow'r;

Their beauty, from their dwelling, shall consume within the grave

15 But from hell's hand God will me free, for he fliall me receive.

16 Be thou not then afraid, when one enriched thou dott fee, Nor when the glory of his house advanced is on high.

17 For he shall carry nothing hence, when death his days doth end: Nor shall his glory after him into the grave descend.

18 Although he his own foul did bless, whilft he on earth did live: (And when thou to thyfelf doft well, men will thee praises give.)

19 He to his fathers race shall go, they never shall see light.

20 Man honour'd, wanting knowledge, is like beafts that perith quite.

PSALM L.

The mighty God, the Lord hath spoken, and did call The earth from rising of the sun, to where he hath his fall.

2 From out of Zion hill, which of excellency, And beauty the perfection is, God thined glorioufly.

3 Our God shall furely come, keep filence shall not he; Before him fire shall waste, great storms

4 Unto the heavens clear he from above shall call, And to the earth likewife, that he may judge his people all.

shall round about him be.

5. Together let my faints unto me gather'd be, Those hat by facrifice have made a covenant with me.

6 And then the heavens thall his right'oufnefs declare: Because the Lord himself is he by whom men judged are.

7 My people Ifra'l hear. speak will I from on high, Against thee I will testify, God, ev'n thy God am I. 8 I, for thy facrifice, no blame will on thee lay, Nor for burnt-off rings, which to me thou offer'est ev'ry day.

9 I'll take no calf, nor goats, from house or fold of thine. 10 For beafts of foreits, cattle all on thou'and hills are mine.

II The fowls on mountains high are all to ne well known, Wild beafts, which in the fields do ly, ev'n they are all mine own.

12 Then, if I hungry were, I would not tell it thee: Because the world, and fulness all there if, belongs to me.
13 Will I eat flesh of bulls?

or goats blood drink will I?

14 Thanks offer thou to God, and pay thy vows to the most High.

15 And call upon me, when in trouble thou shalt be, I will deliver thee, and thou my name that glorify.

16 But to the wicked man God faith, My laws and truth Should'st thou declare? how dar'st thou take my cov'nant in thy mouth?

17 Sith thou instruction hat'st, which should thy ways direct; And fith my words behind thy back thou call'st, and dost reject.

18 When thou a thief d'dft fee, with him thou didst confent; And with the vile a ulterers partaker on thou went.

19 Thou giv'st thy mouth to ill, thy tongue deceit doth frame.

20 Thou firt'it and 'gainst thy brother speak'st, thy mother's fon dost shame.

21 Becaule I filence kept, while thou these things hast wrought; That I was altogether like thyself, hath been thy thought:

Yet I will thee reprove, and fet before thine eyes In order ranked thy mildeeds. and thine iniquities.

22 Now, ye that God forget, this carefully confider; Lest I in pieces tear you all, and none can you deliver.

23 Whoso doth offer praise me glorifies, and I Will thew him God's falvation, that orders right his way.

Another of the fame.

He mighty God the Lord hath spoke, and call'd the earth upon, Ev'n from the rifing of the fun unto his going down.

2 From out of Zion his own hill, where the perfection high Of beauty is, from thence the Lord hath fhined glorioufly.

3 Our God shall come, and shall no more be filent, but speak out: Before him fire shall waste, great storms shall compass him about.

4 He, to the heavens from above, and to the earth below,

Shall call, that he his judgments may before his people show.

5 Let all my faints together be unto me gathered: Those that by facrifice with me a covenant have made. 6 And then the heavens shall declare his right'outness abroad:

Because the Lord himself doth come, none else is judge but God.

7 Hear, O my people, and I'll speak; O I frael by name, Against thee I will testify,

God, ev'n thy God I am. 8 I, for thy facrifices few, reprove thee never will; Nor for burnt-off'rings to have been before me offer'd still.

9 I'll take no bullock, nor he-goats, from house nor folds of thine.

10 For beafts of forests, cattle all on thousand hills, are mine.

II The fowls are all to me well known, that mountains high do yield: And I do challenge as mine own the wild beafts of the field.

12 If I were hungry, I would not to thee for need complain; For earth, and all its fulness, doth to me of right pertain.

13 That I, to eat the flesh of bulls, take pleafure, doit thou think? Or that I need, to quench my thirst, the blood of goats to drink?

14 Nay, rather unto me thy God thankfgiving offer thou; To the most High perform thy word, and fully pay thy vow.

15 And, in the day of trouble great, fee that thou call on me;

I will deliver thee, and thou my name shalt glorifie.

16 But God unto the wicked faith, Why should'st thou mention make Of my commands? how dar'ft thou in thy mouth my cov'nant take?

17 Sith it is fo, that thou dost hate all good instruction:

And fith thou cast'st behind thy back, and flight'st my words each one.

18 When

PSALMS LI, LII.

When thou a thief did'ft fee, then straight, thou join dft with him in fin,

And with the vile adulterers thou half partaker been.

Thy mouth to evil thou dost give, thy tongue deceit doth frame. Thou hit'st, and 'gains thy brother speak'st thy mother's fon to shame.

Thele things thou w ckedly hast done, and I have silent been;

Thou thought'st that I was like thyself, and did approve thy fin:

But I will sharply thee reprove, and I will order right

Thy fins and thy transgressions, in presence of thy fight.

2 Consider this, and be asraid, ye that forget the Lord, Lest I in pieces tear you all, when none can help afford.

3 Who off'reth praise me glorifies: I will shew God's salvation

To him that ordereth aright his life and conve fation.

PSALM LI.

A Fter thy loving kindness, Lord, have mercy upon me: For thy compatitions great blot out all mine iniquity.

2 Me cleante from fin, and throughly walls from mine iniquity:

3 For my transgressions I confess, my fin I ever see.

4 'Gainst thee, thee only, have I sinn'd, [just, in thy fight done this ill, That, when thou speak'st, thou may'st be and clear in judging still.

5 Behold, I in iniquity was form'd the womb within;

My mother also me conceiv'd in guiltiness and sin.

6 Behold, thou in the inward parts with truth delighted art; And wisdom thou shalt make me know within the hidden part.

7 Do thou with hyssop sprinkle me, I shall be cleansed so;

Yea, wash thou me, and then I shall be whiter than the fnow.

8 Of gladness and of joyfulness make me to hear the voice; That fo thele very bones which thou haft broken may rejoice. 9 All mine iniquities blot out, thy face his e from my fin.

10 Create a clean heart, Lord, renew a right sp'rit me within.

It Cast me not from thy fight, nor take thy holy Sp'rit away.

12 Restore me thy salvation's joy; with thy free Sp'rit me stay. 13 Then will I teach thy ways unto those that transgressors be; And those that sinners are shall then be turned unto thee.

14 O God, of my falvation God, me from blood-guiltiness Set free; then shall my tongue aloud fing of thy right'outnefs.

15 My cloted lips, O Lord, by thee let them be opened,

Then shall thy praises by my mouth abroad be published.

16 For thou desir'st not facrifice, elfe would I give it thee; Nor wilt thou with burnt-offering at all delighted be.

17 A broken spirit is to God a pleating facrifice;

A broken and a contrite heart, Lord, thou will not despise.

18 Shew kindness, and do good, O Lord, to Zion thine own hill:

The walls of thy Jerusalem build up of thy good will.

19 Then right'ous off'rings shall thee please, and off'rings burnt which they With whole burnt-off'rings, and with calves, fliall on thine altar lay.

PSALM LII.

Why doft thou boaft, O mighty man, of mischief and of ill?
The goodness of Almighty God endureth ever still.

2 Thy tongue mischievous calumnies deviseth subtilly,

Like to a razor sharp to cut, working deceitfully.

3 Ill more than good, and more than truth thou lovest to speak wrong:

4 Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou deceitful tongue.

5 So God shall thee destroy for av, remove thee, pluck thee out Quite from thy house, out of the land of life he shall thee root.

6 The right'ous shall it see, and fear, and laugh at him they shall:

7 Lo, this the man is that did not make God his strength at all:

But he in his abundant wealth his confidence did place;

And he took strength unto himself from his own wickedness.

8 But I am in the house of God like to an olive green: My confidence for ever hath upon God's mercy been.

9 And I for ever will thee praise, because thou hast done this:

I on thy name will wait, for good before thy faints it is.

PSALM

PSALMS LIII, LIV, LV.

PSALM LIII.

That there is not a God, the fool doth in his heart conclude: doth in his heart conclude; They are corrupt, their works are vile, not one of them doth good.

2 The Lord upon the fons of men from heav'n did cast his eyes,

To fee if any one there was that fought God, and was wife.

3 They altogether fifthy are, they all are backward gone; And there is none that doeth good, no not to much as one.

4 Thefe workers of iniquity do they not know at all, That they my people eat as bread, and on God do not call?

5 Ev'n there they were afraid, and flood with trembling all difmay'd, Whereas there was no cause at all,

why they should be afraid:

For God his bones, that thee befieg'd, hath 'catter'd all abroad;

Thou hast confounded them, for they despised are of God.

6 Let Isra'l's help from Zion come: when back the Lord shall bring His captives, Jacob shall rejoice, and Itrael shall sing.

PSALM LIV.

S Ave me, O God, by thy great name, and judge me by thy strength:

2 My prayer hear, O God, give ear unto my words at length.

3 For they that strangers are to me do up against me rise; Oppressors seek my soul, and God, fet not before their eyes.

4 The Lord my God my helper is, lo, therefore I am bold: He taketh part with ev'ry one that doth my foul uphold.

5 Unto mine enemies he shall mischief and ill repay:

O for thy truth's take cut them off, and fweep them clean away.

6 I will a facrifice to thee give with free willingness: Thy name, O Lord, because 'tis good, with praise I will confess. 7 For he hath me delivered from all adversities:

And his defire mine eye hath feen upon mine enemies.

PSALM LV.

L Ord hear my pray'r, hide not thyfelf from my intreating voice: 2 Artend and hear me, in my plaint I mourn and make a noife.

3 Because of th' en'mies voice, and for lewd mens oppression great:
On me they cast iniquity, and they in wrath me hate.

4 Sore pain'd within me is my heart: death's terrors on me fall.

5 On me comes trembling, fear and dread o'erwhelmed me withal.

6 O that I like a dove had wings, faid I, then would I fly Far hence, that I might find a place where I in rest might be. 7 Lo, then far off I wander would.

and in the defert flay: 8 From windy storm and tempest I would haste to 'scape away.

9 O Lord, on them destruction bring, and do their tongues divide: For in the city violence and strife I have espy'd.

10 They day and night upon the walls do go about it round:

There mitchief is, and forrow there in midst of it is found.

II Abundant wickedness there is within her inward part; And froin her streets deceitfulness and guile do not depart.

12 He was no foe that me reproach'd, then that endure I could; Nor hater that did 'gainst me boast, in company we past.

from him me hide I would. 13 But thou, man, who mine equal, guide, and mine acquaintance walt. 14 We join'd sweet counsels, to God's house

15 Let death upon them seize, and down let them go quick to hell;

For wickedness doth much abound among them where they dwell. 16 I'll call on God: God will me fave.

I'll pray, and make a noife At evining, morning, and at noon; and he shall hear my voice.

18 He hath my foul delivered, that it in peace might be From battle that against me was, for many were with me. 19 The Lord shall hear and them afflict, of old who hath abode:

Because they never changes have, therefore they fear not God.

20 'Gainst those that were at peace with him he hath put forth his hand: The covenant that he hath made, by breaking he profan'd. 21 More smooth than butter were his words, while in his heart was war;

His speeches were more soft than oil, and yet drawn fwords they are.

22 Cast

PSALMS LVI, LVIII, LVIII.

Cast thou thy burden on the Lord, and he shall thee fustain;

Yea, he shall cause the right'ous man unmoved to remain.

But thou, O Lord my God, those men in justice shalt o'erthrow. And in destructio.'s dungeon dark at last shalt lay them low.

The bloody and deceitful men shall not live half their days; But upon thee with confidence I will depend always.

PSALM LVI.

S Hew mercy, Lord, to me, for man would swallow me outright; He me oppresseth, while he doth against me daily fight.

2 They daily would me fwallow up, that hate me spitefully

For they be many that do fight against me, O most High.

3 When I'm afraid, I'll trust in thee:

In God I'll praile his word; I will not fear what flesh can do, my trust is in the Lord.

5 Each day they wrest my words, their thoughts 'gainst me are all for ill.

6 They meet, they lurk, they mark my steps, waiting my foul to kill.

7 But shall they by iniquity escape thy judgments fo? O God, with indignation down do thou he people throw. 8 My wand'rings all what they have been thou know'st, their number took; Into thy bottle put my tears: are they not in thy book?

9 My foes thall, when I cry, turn back, I know't, God is for me.

10 In God his word I'll praise: his word in God shall praised be.
It In God I trust, I will not fear

what man can do to me.

12 Thy vows upon me are, O God: I'll render praise to thee.

13 Wilt thou not, who from death me fav'd, my feet from fails keep free, To walk before God in the light of those that living be?

PSALM LVII.

BE merciful to me, O God, thy mercy unto me Do thou extend because my soul doth put her trust in thee: Yea, in the shadow of thy wings my refuge I will place, Until these sad cala nities do wholly overpais.

2 My cry I will cause to a cend unto the Lord most High,

To God, who doth all things for me, perform most perfectly.

3 From heav'n he shall fend down, and me from his reproach defend, That would devour me; God his truth and mercy forth shall send.

4 My foul among fierce lions is, I firebrands live among, Mens fons, whose teeth are spears and darks, a sharp sword is their tongue.

5 Be thou exalted very high above the heavins, O God;

Let thou thy glory be advanc'd o'er all the earth abroad.

6 My foul's bow'd down: for they a net have laid, my steps to mare: Into the pit, which they have digg'd for me, they fallen are.

7 My heard is fixt, my heart is fixt, O God, I'll fing and praise.

8 My glory wake, wake pfaltry, harp; myfelf I'll early raile.

9 I'll praise thee mong the people, Lord, mong nations fing will I:

10 For great to heav'n thy mercy is, thy truth is to the sky.

11 O Lord, exalted be thy Name, above the heav'rs to fland; Do thou thy glory far advance above both fea and land.

PSALM LVIII.

Do ye, O congregation, indeed speak right outness? O ye that are the fons of men, judge ye with uprightnef:?

2 Yea, ev'n within your very hearts ye wickedness have done; And ye the vilence of your hands do weigh the earth upon.

3 The wicked men estranged are ec'n from the very womb; They peaking lies do stray, assoon as to the world they come.

4 Unto a serpent's poison like their poison doth appear; Yea, they are like the adder deaf, that closely stops her ear:

5 That fo she may not hear the voice of one that charm her would, No not though he most cunning were, and charm most wifely could.

6 Their teeth, O God, within their mouth break thou in pieces fmall;

The great teeth break thou out, O Lord, of these young lions all.

7 Let them like waters melt away, which downward still do flow: In pieces cut his arrows all, when he shall bend his bow. 8 Like to a fnail that melts away, let each of them be gone:

Like woman's birth untimely, that they never fee the fun.

9 He

9 He shall them take away before your pots the thorns can find, Both living, and in sury great, as with a stormy wind.

to The right'ous, when he vengeance fees, he shall be joyful then;
The right'ous one shall wash his feet in blood of wicked men.

II So men shall fay, The right'ous man reward shall never miss; And, verily, upon the earth a God to judge there is.

PSALM LIX.

MY God, deliver me from those that are mine enemies;
And do thos me defend from those that up against me rife.

2 Do thou deliver me from them that work iniquity;

And give me fafety from the men of bloody cruelty.

For lo, they for my foul lay wait:

the mighty do combine Against me, Lord, not for my fault, nor any fin of mine.

4 They run, and without fault in me, themfelves do ready make:

Awake to meet me with thy help, and do thou notice take.

5 Awake therefore, Lord God of hosts, thou God of Israel,

To visit heathen all: spare none that wickedly rebel.

6 At ev'ning they go to and fro; they make great noise and found Like to a dog, and often walk about the city round.

7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth, and in their lips are fwords;
For they do fay thus, Who is he that now doth hear our words?

8 But thou, O Lord, shalt laugh at them, and all the heathen mock.

9 While he's in power I'll wait on thee: for God is my high Rock.

to He of my mercy that is God, betimes shall me prevent: Upon mine en'mies God shall let me see mine beart's content.

It Them flay not, lest my folk forget; but scatter them abroad

By thy firong power; and bring them down, O thou our shield, and God.

12 For their mouth's fin, and for the words that from their lips do fly,

Let them be taken in their pride;

because they curse and lie.

In wrath consume them, them consume, that so they may not be:

And that in Jacob God doth rule, to th' earth's ends, let them see.

14 At evining let thou them return; making great no fe and to ind, Like to a d g, and often walk about the city round.

in feeking food to eat;

And let them wander up and down,
in feeking food to eat;

And let them grudge, when they shall n be fatisfy'd with meat.

16 But of thy pow'r I'll fing loud, at morn thy mercy praise: For thou to me my refuge wast, and tow'r, in troublous days.

17 O God, thou art my strength, I will fing praises unto thee;

For God is my defence, a God of mercy unto me.

PSALM LX.

Lord, thou hast rejected us, and scatter'd us abroad, Thou justly hast displeased been;
return to us, O God.

2 The earth to tremble thou hast made; therein didst breaches make:

Do thou thereof the breaches heal, because the land doth shake.

3 Unto thy people thou hard things half shew'd, and on them sent; And thou hast caused us to drink wine of aftonishment.

4 And yet a banner thou hast giv'n to them who thee do fear:

That it by them, because of truth, displayed may appear.

5 That thy beloved people may deliver'd be from thrall;

Save with the pow'r of thy right hand, and hear me when I call.

6 God in his holines hath spoke, herein I will take pleasure: Shechem I will divide, and forth will Succoth's valley measure.

7 Gilead I claim as mine by right, Manasseh mine shall be: Ephra'm is of mine head the strength, Judah gives laws for me.

8 Moab's my washing-pot, my shoe
I'll over Edom throw:

And over Palestina's land
I will in triumph go.

9 O who is he will bring me to the city fortify'd?O who is he that to the land

O who is he that to the land of Edom will me guide?

10 O God, which hadeft us cast off, this thing wilt thou not do? Ev'n thou, O God, which didest not forth with our armies go.

11 Help us from trouble; for the help is vain which man supplies.

12 Through God we'll do great acts; he shall tread down our enemies.

PSALM

PSALMS LXI, LXII, LXIII, LXIV.

PSALM LXI.

O God, give ear unto my cry, unto my pray'r attend. From th' utmost corner of the land my cry to thee I'll fend. What time my heart is overwhelm'd and in perplexity:

Do thou me lead unto the Rock that higher is than I.

For thou hast for my refuge been a !helter by thy pow'r, And, for defence against my foes, thou hast been a strong tow'r. Within thy tabernacle I for ever will abide: And under covert of thy wings, with confidence me hide.

For thou, the vows that I did make, O Lord my God, didst hear : Thou hast giv'n me the heritage of those thy Name that fear. A life prolong'd for many days thou to the king shalt give:

Like many generations be the years which he shall live.

He in God's presence his abode for evermore, shall have: O do thou truth and mercy both prepare, that may him fave.

And fo will I perpetually fing praise unto thy name; That, having made my vows, I may each day perform the same.

PSALM LXII. MY foul with expectation depends on God indeed: My strength and my salvation doth from him alone proceed. He only my falvation is, and my ftrong rock is he:

He only is my fure defence; much mov'd I shall not be. How long will ye against a man plot mischief? ye shall all Be flain, ye as a tott'ring fence shall be, and bowing wall. They only plot to cast him down from his excellency;

They joy in lies, with mouth they blefs, but they curse inwardly.

My foul, wait thou with patience upon thy God alone:

On him dependeth all my hope and expectation.

He only my falvation is, and my strong rock is he; He only is my fure defence: I shall not moved be.

In God my glory placed is, and my falvation fure:

In God the rock is of my strength, my refuge most fecure.

8 Ye people, place your confidence in him continually; Before him pour ye out your heart: God is our refuge high.

9 Surely mean men are vanity, and great men are a lie: In balance laid, they wholly are more light than vanity.

10 Trust ye not in oppression, in robb'rv be not vain; On wealth fet not your hearts, when as increased is your gain.

11 God hath it spoken once to me, yea, this I heard again, That power to Almighty God alone doth appertain. 12 Yea, mercy also unto thee belongs, O Lord, alone: For thou according to his work rewardest ev'ry one.

PSALM LXIII.

Ord, thee my God, I'll carly feek:
my foul doth thirst for thee, My flesh longs in a dry parch'd land, wherein no waters be:

2 That I thy power may behold, and brightness of thy face, As I have feen thee heretofore, within thy holy place.

3 Since better is thy love than life, my lips thee praise shall give.

4 I in thy name will lift my hands. and bless thee while I live.

5 Ev'n as with marrow and with fat, my foul shall filled be; Then shall my mouth with joyful lips fing praifes unto thee.

6 When I do thee upon my bed remember with delight, And when on thee I meditate, in watches of the night.

7 In shadow of thy wings I'll joy, for thou mine help hast been.

8 My foul thee follows hard; and me thy right hand doth fustain.

9 Who feek my foul to spill shall sink down to earth's lowest room.

to They by the fword shall be cut off, and foxes prey become.

11 Yet shall the king in God rejoice, and each one glory fhall,

That fwear by him: but ftopt fhall be the mouth of liars all.

PSALM LXIV.

WHen I to thee my prayer make, Lord, to my voice give ear; My life fave from the enemy of whom I stand in fear. 2 Me from their fecret counsel hide who do live wickedly;

From insurrection of those men that work iniquity.

3 Who

3 Who do their tongues with malice whet, and make them cut like fwords; In who'e bent bows are arrows let, ev'n sharp and bitter words. 4 That they may at the perfect man in fecret aim their flot: Yea, fuddenly they dare at him to shoot, and fear it not.

5 In ill encourage they themselves: and their mares close do lay, Together conference they have,

Who shall them see? they say. 6 They have fearch'd out iniquities, a perfect fearch they keep:

Of each of them the inward thought, and very heart is deep.

7 God shall an arrow shoot at them, and wound them fuddenly.

8 So their own tongue shall them consound, all who them fee shall fly.

9 And on all men a fear thall fall, God's works they shall declare; For they shall witely notice take what there his doings are.

10 In God the right'ous shall rejoice, and trust upon his might; Yea, they shall greatly glory all, in heart that are upright.

PSALM LXV.

PRaife waits for thee in Zion, Lord: to thee vows paid fliall be.

2 O thou that hearer art of pray'r, all flesh shall come to thee.

3 Iniquities, I must confess, prevail against me do: But as for our transgressions, them purge away shalt thou.

4 Bleft is the man whom thou dost choose, and mak'st approach to thee,

That he within thy courts, O Lord, may still a dweller be:

We furely shall be satisfy'd with thy abundant grace,

And with the goodnels of thy house, ev'n of thy holy place.

5 O God of our falvation, thou in thy righteoulnels,

By fearful works unto our pray'rs thine answer dost express:

Therefore the ends of all the earth, and those afar that be Upon the fea, their confidence, O Lord, will place in thee.

6 Who, being girt with pow'r, fets fast, by his great strength, the hills. 7 Who noise of seas, noise of their waves, and people's tumult stills.

8 Those in the outmost parts that dwell are at thy figns afraid:

Th' out-goings of the morn and ev'n by thee are joyful made.

9 The earth thou visit'st, wat'ring it, thou mak'it it rich to grow With God's full flood; thou corn prepara when thou provid'lt it fo.

10 Her ridg's thou wat'rest plent'ously her furrows settelest:

With show'rs thou dost her mollify; her spring by thee is blest.

11 So thou the year most lib'rally dost with thy goodness crown; And all thy paths abundantly on us drop fatness down. 12 They drop upon the pastures wide, that do in deferts ly:

The little hills on ev'ry fide rejoice right pleasantly.

13 With flocks the pastures clothed be, the vales with corn are clad; And now they shout and sing to thee; for thou hast made them giad.

PSALM LXVI.

LI lands to God, in joyful founds, aloft your voices raile.

2 Sing forth the honour of his Name, and glorious make his praise.

3 Say unto God, How terrible in all thy works art thou?

Through thy great pow'r thy foes to the shall be constrain'd to bow.

4 All on the earth shall worship thee, they shall thy praise proclaim In fongs: they shall fing cheerfully unto thy holy Name.

5 Come, and the works that God har with admiration fee: wrough In's working to the fons of men most terrible is he.

6 Into dry land the fea he turn'd, and they a passage had.

Ev'n marching through the flood on foot there we in him were glad.

7 He ruleth ever by his pow'r, his eyes the nations fee: O let not the rebellious ones lift up themselves on high.

8 Ye people, blefs our God: aloud the voice speak of his praise.

9 Our foul in life who fafe preferves, our foot from fliding stays.

10 For thou didit prove, and try us, Lord, as men do filver try:

II Brought'it us into the net, and mad'it bands on our loins to ly.

12 Thou hast caus'd men ride o'er our head and though that we did pass Through fire and water, yet thou brought us to a wealthy place. 13 I'll bring burnt-off'rings to thy house, to thee my vows I'll pay. 14 Which my lips utter'd, my mouth spake when trouble on me lay.

15 Burn

PSALMS LXVII, LXVIII.

5 Burnt-facrifices of fat rams with incenfe I will bring; Of bullocks and of goats I will pretent an offering,

6 All that fear God, come hear, I'll tell what he did for my foul.

7 I with my mouth unto him cry'd, my tongue did him extol.

the Lord me will not hear;
But furely God me heard, and to my prayer's voice gave ear.

O let the Lord, our gracious God, for ever blessed be,

Who turned not my pray'r from him, nor yet his grace from me.

PSALM LXVII.

1 Ord, blefs and pity us,
fhine on us with thy face:
2 That th' earth thy way, and nations all may know thy faving grace.

3 Let people praise thee, Lord, let people all thee praise.

4 O let the nations be glad, in fongs their voices raise:

Thou'lt justly people judge, on earth rule nations all: 5 Let people praise thee, Lord, let them praise thee, both great and small. The earth her fruit shall yield, our God shall blessing send.

7 God shall us bless, men shall him fear unto earth's utmost end.

Another of the Same.

I Ord, unto us be merciful, do thou us alfo bles:
And graciously cause shine on us the brightness of thy face.

That so thy way upon the earth to all men may be known, Alfo among the nations all thy faving health be shown.

3 O let the people praise thee, Lord, let people all thee praise.

 O let the nations be glad, and fing for joy always:
 For rightly thou shalt people judge, and nations rule on earth.
 Let people praise thee, Lord, let all the folk praise thee with mirth.

6 Then shall the earth yield her increase,
God, our God bless us shall.

7 God shall us bless, and of the earth the ends shall fear him all.

PSALM LXVIII.

Let God arife, and scattered
Let all his en'mies be;
And let all those that do him hate before his presence flee.

2 As smoke is driv'n, so drive thou them: as fire melts wax away, Before God's face let wicked men so perish and decay.

3 But let the righteous be glad, let them before God's fight Be very joyful; yea, let them rejoice with all their might.

4 To God fing, to his name fing praise: extol him with your voice, That rides on heav'n by his name JAH, before his face rejoice.

5 Because the Lord a father is unto the fatherless: God is the widow's judge within his place of holiness.

6 God doth the folitary fet in fam'lies: and from bands The chain'd doth free, but rebels do inhabit parched lands.

7 O God, what time thou didft go forth before thy people's face; And when through the great wilderness thy glorious marching was:

8 Then at God's presence shook the earth, then drops from heaven fell;
This Sinai shook before the Lord, the God of Israel.

9 O God, thou to thine heritage didft fend a plent'ous rain; Whereby thou, when it weary was, didft it refresh again.

their habitation there:

Of thine own goodness for the poor,
O God, thou didst prepare.

II The Lord himfelf did give the word, the word abroad did fpread; Great was the company of them the fame who published.

12 Kings of great armies foiled were, and forc'd to flee away,

And women, who remain'd at home,

did distribute the prey.

13 Though we have ly'n among the pots, like doves ye shall appear,
Whose wings with silver, and with gold whose feathers cover'd are.

When there th' Almighty featter'd kings, like Salmon's fnow 'twas white.

15 God's hill is like to Bashan hill, like Bashan hill for height.

16 Why do ye leap, ye mountains high?
this is the hill where God Defires to diell; yea, God in it for ay will make abode.

17 God's chariots twenty thousand are, thousands of angels strong; In's holy place God is, as in mount Sinai, them among.

PSALM LXIX.

:8 Thou haft, O Lord, moll glorious alcended up on high:

And, in triumph victorious, led captive esptivity:

Thou halt received gifts for men, for fuch as did rebel;

Yea, ev'n for them, that God the Lord in midtl of them might dwell.

19 Bleft be the Lord, who is to us of our falvation God, Who daily with his benefits us plen oufly doth load

20 He of fulvation is the God, who is our God most strong; And unto God the Lord from death the iffues do belong.

21 But furely God shall wound the head of those that are his foes; The hairy scalp of him that still on in his treipals goes.

22 God faid, My people I will bring again from Balhan hill, Yea, from the fea's devouring depths the bring again I will.

25 That in the blood of enemies thy foot imbru'd may be; And of thy dogs lipt in the fame the tougues thou maveil fee.

24 Thy goings they have feen, O God, the steps of majerty Of my God, and my mighty King, within the fanctoary.

25 Before went lingers, players next on in truments took way ; And them among the damiels were that did on tembrels play.

26 Within the congregations bleds God with one accord; From Ifra'l's fountain do ye blefs, and praile the mighty Lord.

27 With their prince little Benjamin, p inces and conscil there Of Judah were, there Zibulon's and Napht'li's princes were.

filtrong 28 Thy Go commands thy ffrength: make what thou wrought'ft for us, Loid.

.o For thy joule at jeru alem king: shall thee gifts afford.

'5 The pear-mens hoff, the multitude of bulls, which hereely look,

Those calves which people have forth fent, O Lord our God rebuke.

Tale 'v one fubmit himself, and filver pieces bring

The proplement celight in war allowed, O od and King.

Those that he princes great shall then some not of Egypt lands, fathe Et hispia to Gold Mail forn fire ch out her hands.

32 O all ye kingdoms of the earth, fing prailes to this King, For he is Lord that ruleth all, unto him praifes fing.

33 To him that rides on heav'ns of heav'ns which he of oid did found; Lo, he fends out his voice, a voice in might that doth abound.

34 Strength unto God do ye afcribe; for his excellency

Is over Ifrael, his strength is in the clouds most high.

35 Thou'rt from thy temple dreadful, Lord, Ilra's own God is he, Who gives his people thrength and pow'r:

PSALM LXIX.

S Ave me, O God, because the floods do fo environ inc,

That ev'n unto my very foul come in the waters be.

O let God bleffed be.

2 I downward in deep mire do fink, where standing there is none: I am into deep waters come, where floods have o'er me gone. 3 I weary with my crying am, my throat is also dry'd;

Mine eyes do fail, while for my God I waiting do abide.

4 Those men that do without a cause bear hatred unto me,

Than are the hairs upon mine head in number moe they be:

They that would me defirey, and are mine en'mies wrongfully,

Are mighty: fo, what I took not to render forc'd was I.

Lord, thou my folly know'ft, my fins not cover'd are from thee.

6 Let none that wait on thee be flam'd, Lord God of hofts, for me.

O Lord, the God of Israel, let none, who fearch do make, And feek thee, be at any time confounded for my fake. 7 For I have born repreach for thee, my face is hid with fliame. 8 To brethren thrange, to mothers four an alien I became.

o Because the zeal did eat me up, which to thine house I bare;

And the reproaches cast at thee upor me failer are.

10 My tears and fasts, t' afflict my foul, were turned to my fhame.

H When fackcloth I did wear, to them a prove b I became.

12 The men that in the gate do fit against me evil spake; They also that vile drunkards were, of me their fong did make.

· 13 But,

PSALM LXX.

- 1; But, in an acceptable time, my pray'r, Lord, is to thee; In truth of thy falvation, Lord, and mercy great, hear me.
- 14 Deliver me out of the mire, from finking do me ke p; Free me from those that do me hate, and from the waters deep.
- 15 Let not the flood on me prevail, whose water overflows; Nor deep me swallow, nor the pit her mouth upon me close.
- 16 Hear me, O Lord, because thy love and kindness is most good; Turn unto me, a cord ng to thy mercies multitude.

17 Nor from the I reant hide the face; I'm troubled, foon attend.

- 18 Draw near my foul, and it redeem; me from my foes defend.
- 19 To thee is my reproach well known, my shame, and my disgrace: Those that mine advertagles be are all before thy face.

20 Reproach hath broke my heart, I'm fuil of grief; I look'd for one To pity me, but none I found; comforters found I none.

21 They also bitter gall did give unto me for my meat: They gave me vinegar to drink, when as my thirlt was great.

22 Before them let their table prove a frare; and do thou make Their welfare and prosperity a trap themielves to take.

23 Let thou their eyes fo dark'ned be, that fight may them fortake: And let their loins be made by thee continually to shake.

24 Thy fury pour thou out on them, and indignation;

And let thy wrathful anger, Lord, fast hold take them upon.

25 All warle and desolate let be their habitation; And in their tabernacies all inhabitants be none. 26 Because him they do persecute, whom hou didft finite before; They talk unto the grief of those whom thou hait wounded fore.

27 Add thou iniquity unto their former wickedness: And do not let them come at all into thy right'oulnels.

28 Out of the book of life let them be raz'd and blotted quite; Among the just and righteous let not their names be writ.

2) But now become exceeding poor and forrowful am I: By thy falvation, O my God, let me be fet on high.

30 The name of God I with a fong most cheerfully will praise; And I, in giving thanks to him, his name shall highly raise.

31 This to the Lord a facrifice more gracious shall prove, Than bullock, ox, or any beaft, that hath both horn and hoof.

32 When this the humble men thall fee, it joy to them shall give:

O all ve that do feek the Lord, your hearts shall ever live.

33 For God the poor hears, and will not his priloners contemn

34 Ler heav'n, and earth, and feas him praise, and all that move in them.

35 For God will Judah's cities build, and he will Sion fave; That they may awell therein, and it in fure possession have.

26 And they that are his servants seed inherit thall the tame; So thall they have their dwelling there that love his bleffed name.

PSALM LXX.

Ord, haste me to deliver, with speed, Lord, succour me. 2 Let them t at for my foul do seek, flam'd and confounded be: Turn'd back be they and fham'd, that in my hurt delight.

3 Turn'd back be they, Ha, ha, that fay, their flaming to requite.

4 In thee let all be glad, and joy that feek for thee: Let the n, who thy falvation love, fav still, God praised be.

5 I poor and needy am, come, Lord, and make no flay; My help thou and deliver'r art, O Lord, make no delay.

Another of the same.

Make hafte, O God, me to preferve,

2 Let them that for my foul do feek fham'd and confounded be: Let then be turned back, and sham'd, that in my hart delight. 3 Turn'd back be they, Ha, ha, that lay, their flaming to requite.

4 O Lord, in thee let all be glad, and joy that feek for thee: Let them, who thy falvation love, fay still, God praised be.

5 But I both poor and needy am, come, Lord, and make no flay: My help thou and deliv'rer art, .

O Lord, make no delay. PSALM.

PSALMS LXXI, LXXII.

PSALM LXXI.

t O Lord, my hope and confidence is plac'd in thee alone:
Then let thy fervant never be put to confusion.

2 And let me, in thy right outness, from thee deliverance have;
Cause me escape, incline thine ear unto me, and me fave.

3 Be thou my dwelling-rock, to which I ever may refort:

Thou gav'ft commandment me to fave, for thou'rt my rock and fort.

4 Free me, my God, from wicked hands, hands cruel and unjust.

5 For thou, O Lord God, art my hope, and, from my youth, my truft.

6 Thou from the wonb didit hold me up; thou art the fame that me Out of my mothers bowels took, I ever will praife thee.

7 To many I a wonder am; but thou'rt my refuge strong.

8 Fill'd let my mouth be with thy praise, and honour all day long.

9 O do not cast me off, when as old age doth overtake me; And when my strength decayed is, then do not thou for ake me.

To For those that are mine enemies, against me speak with hate:

And they together counsel take, that for my soul lay wait.

11 They faid, God leaves him; him pursue and take: none will him fave.

12 Be thou not far from me, my God: thy speedy help I crave.

13 Confound, confume them, that unto my foul are enemies:

Cloth'd be they with reproach and fliame that do my hurt devise.

14 But I with expectation will hope continually;
And yet with praif-s more and more
I will thee magnify.

ny mouth abroad fhall show Ev'n all the day; for I thereof the numbers do not know.

16 And I will conftantly go on in firength of God the Lord: And thine own right'outness, ev'n thine alone, I will record.

17 Fer, even from my youth, O God, by thee I have been taught; And hitherto I have declar'd the wonders thou haft wrought.

18 And now. Lord, leave me not, when I old, and grav-headed grow:

Till to this age the firength and pow'r to all to come I show.

19 And thy most perfect right outness, O Lord, is very high, Who hast to great things done: O God, who is like unto thee?

20 Thou, Lord, who great adversities, and fore to me didft show, Shalt quicken, and bring me again from depths of earth below.

21 My greatness and my pow'r thou wilt increase, and far extend:

On ev'ry side, against all grief thou wilt me comfort send.

22 Thee, ev'n the truth, I'll also praise, my God, with pfaltery:
Thou holy One of Israel, with harp I'll sing to thee.

23 My lips shall much rejoice in thee, when I the praises found: My foul, which thou redeemed hast, in joy shall much abound.

24 My tongue thy justice shall proclaim, continuing all day long:
For they confounded are, and sham'd, that seek to do me wrong.

PSALM LXXII.

Cord, thy judgments give the King, his fon thy right outners.

2 With right he shall thy people judge, thy poor with uprightness.

3 The lofty mountains shall bring forth unto the people peace; Likewife the little hills the fame fhall do by right'outnets.

4 The people's poor ones he shall judge, the needies children fave:
And those shall he in pieces break, who them oppressed have.

They shall thee fear, while sun and moon do lust through area all do last, through ages all.

6 Like rain on mown grass he shall drop, or show'rs on earth that fall.

7 The just shall flourish in his days,

and prosper in his reign:
He shall, while doth the moon endure, abundant peace maintain.

8 His large and great dominion shall from sea to sea extend:

It from the river shall reach forth unto earth's utneost end.

9 They in the wilderness that dwell bow down before him must: And they that are his enemies fhall lick the very dust.

To The kings of Tarthish, and the isses, to him shall presents bring,

And was him shall offer sift.

And unto him shall offer gifts, Sheba's and Seba's king.

11 Yea, all the mighty kings on earth, before him down shall fall: And all the nations of the world do service to him shall.

PSALM LXXIII.

12 For he the needy shall preserve, when he to him doth call:
The poor also, and him that hath no help of man at ail.

13 The poor man and the indigent in mercy he shall spare;
He shall preserve alive the souls of those that needy are.

14 Both from deceit and violence their foul he shall fet free; And in his fight right precious and dear their blood shall be.

15 Yea, he shall live, and giv'n to him shall be of Sheba's gold; For him still shall they pray, and he shall daily be extoll'd.

on tops of mountains high,
With proprous fruit shall shake like trees on Lebanon that be.

The city shall be flourishing, her citizens abound

In number shall, like to the grafs that grows upon the ground.

17 His name for ever fhall endure, last like the sun it shall: Men shall be blest in him, and blest all nations shall slim call.

18 Now bleffed be the Lord our God, the God of Ifrael, For he alone doth wondrous works, in glory that excel.

79 And bleffed be his glorious name to all eternity;

The whole earth let his glory fill:
Amen, fo let it be.

PSALM LXXIII.

YEt God is good to Israel, to each pure-hearted one.

2 But as for me, my steps near slipt, my feet were almost gone.

3 For I envious was, and grudg'd the foolish folk to see, When I perceiv'd the wicked fort enjoy prosperity.

For fill their strength continueth firm, their death of bands is free.

5 They are not toil'd as other men, nor plagu'd as others be.

Therefore their pride, like to a chain, then compaffeth about;

And, as a garment, violence doth cover them throughout.

7 Their eyes stand out with fat, they have more than their hearts could wish.

8 They are corrupt, their talk of wrong both lewd and lofty is.
9 They let their mouth against the heav'ns in their blasphemous talk;

And their reproaching tongue throughout the earth at large doth walk,

10 His people oftentimes for this look back, and turn about;
Sith waters of fo full a cup to these are powed out.

II And thus they fay. How can it be that God there things doth know?

Or, can there in the Higheft be knowledge of things below?

12 Behold, these are the wicked ones, yet prosper at their will In worldly things, they do increase in wealth and riches still.

13 I, verily, have done in vain my heart to purify; To no effect in innocence washed my hands have I.

14 For daily, and all day throughout, great plagues I suffer'd have; Yea, ev'ry morning I of new did chastisement receive.

15 If in this manner foolifhly to fpeak I would intend, Thy childrens generation, behold, I should offend.

16 When I this thought to know, it was too hard a thing for me:

17 Till to God's fanctuary I went, then I their end did fee.

18 Affuredly thou did'ft them fet a flipp'ry place upon; Them fuddenly thou cattedft down into destruction.

19 How, in a moment, fuddenly to ruin brought are they! With fearful terrors utterly

With fearful terrors utterly they are confunded away.

20 Ev'n like unto a dream, when one from fleeping doth arife;

So thou, O Lord, when thou awak'st, their image shalt despite.

21 Thus grieved was my heart in me, and me my reins opprest.

22 So rude was I, and ignorant, and in thy fight a beaft.

23 Nevertheless, continually,
O Lord, I am with thee:
Thou dost me hold by my right hand,
and still upholdest me.

24 Thou, with thy counsel, while I live, wilt me conduct and guide;
And to thy glory afterward receive me to abide.

25 Whom have I in the heavens high, but thee, O Lord, alone?
And in the earth, whom I defire besides thee, there is none.

26 My flesh and heart doth faint and fail, but God doth fail me never: For of my heart God is the strength, and portion for ever.

27 For

PSALMS LXXIV, LXXV.

- 27 For lo, they that are far from thee, for ever perifh shall:
 Them that a who ing from thee go thou hast destroyed all.
- 28 But furely it is good for me, that I draw near to God: In God I truft, that all thy works I may declare abroad,

PSALM LXXIV.

God, why hast thou cast us off?

Against thy pasture-sheep why doth thine anger smoke so tore?

2 O call to thy rememberance thy congregation,

Which thou half purchased of old, still think the same upon.

The rod of thine inheriance, which thou redeemed haft, This Sion hill, wherein thou hadft thy dwelling in times paft.

To these long desolations thy feet lift, do not tarry: For all the ills thy foes have done within thy fanctuary.

4 Amidst thy congregations thine enemies do roar: Their ensigns they set up, for signs of triumph, thee before.

5 A man was famous, and was had in estimation,

According as he lifted up his ax thick trees up m.

6 But all at once, with axes now and hammers they go to;
And down the carved work thereof they break and quite ut do.

7 They fired have thy sanctuary, and have defir'd the same, By casting down unto the ground the place where dwelt thy name.

8 Thus faid they in their hearts, Let us destroy them out of hand:

They burnt up all the fynagogues of God within the land.

of Our figns we do not now behold; there is not us among thus in reproach exclaim?

And fluil the adverfary thus always blafphene thy name?

It The hand, even the right hand of might, why doft thou thus draw back?

O from the botom pluck it out, for our deliv'rance f ke.

72 For certainly God is my King, ev'n from the times of old, Working in midft of all the earth falvation manifold. 13 The fea, by thy great pow'r to part, afunder thou didlt make:

And thou the dragons heads, O Lord, within the waters brake.

14 The leviathan's heads thou brak'st in pieces, and didft give Him to be meat unto the folk in wilderness that live.

15 Thou clav'st the fountain and the flood, which did with streams abound: Thou dry'dst the mighty waters up unto the very ground.

16 Thine only is the day. O Lord, thine also is the night: And thou alone prepared haft the fun and shining light.

17 By thee the borders of the earth were fettled every where:
The fummer and the winter both by thee created were.

18 That th' enemy reproached hath, O keep it in record; And that the foolish people have blasphem'd thy name, O Lord, 19 Unto the multitude do not thy turtle's foul deliver: The congregation of thy poor do not forget for ever.

20 Unto thy cov'nant have respect; for earth's dark places be Full of the habitations of horrid cruelty.

21 O let not those that be oppress, return again with shame:

Let those that poor and needy are give praise unto thy name.

22 Do thou, O God, arife and plead the cause that is thine own: Rea ember how thou art reproach'd still by the foolish one.

23 Do not forget the voice of those that are thine enemies:
Of those the tumult ever grows that do against thee rife.

PSALM LXXV.

To thee, O God, do we give thanks, we do give thanks to thee:

Because thy wondrous works declare thy great name near to be.

2 I purpose, when I shall receive the congregation,

That I shall judgment uprightly render to ev'ry one.

3 Diffolved is the land, with all that in the fame do dwell; But I the pillars thereof do bear up and flablish well.

4 I to the feolish people said
Do not deal foolishly:
And unto those that wicked are,
Lift not your horn on high.

PSALMS LXXVI, LXXVII.

& Lift not your horn on high, nor speak with stubborn neck. But know, That not from eaft, nor well, nor fouth, promotion doth flow. 7 But God is judge: he puts down one, and fets another up.

3 For in the hand of God most high of red wine is a cup:

'Tis full of mixture, he pours forth, and makes the wicked all Wring out the bitter dregs thereof; yea, and they drink them shall.

9 But I for ever will declare, I Jacob's God will praise.

10 All horns of lewd men I'll cut off; but just mens horns will raise.

PSALM LXXVI.

I N Judah's land God is well known, his name's in Ifra'l great :

2 In Salem is his tabernacle, in Sion is his feat.

3 There arrows of the bow he brake, the shield, the sword, the war.

4 More glorious thou than hills of prey, more excellent art far.

5 These that were stout of heart are spoll'd, they flept their fleep outright : And none of those their hands did find, that were the men of might. 6 When thy rebuke, O Jacob's God, had forth against then past,

Their horses and their chariots both were in a dead fleep caft.

7 Thou. Lord, ev'n thou at he that should be fear'd, and who is he

That may fland up before thy fight, if once thou angry be? 8 From heav'n thou judgment caus'd be 9 When God to judgment role, to lave all meek on earth that were.

10 Surely the very wrath of man unto thy praise redounds: Thou to the remnant of his wrath wilt fet reftraining bounds.

II Vow to the Lord your God, and pay; all ye that near him be,

Bring gifts and prefents unto him; for to be fear'd is he.

12 By him the sp'rits shall be cut off of those that princes are: Unto the kings that are on earth he fearful dotn appear.

PSALM LXXVII.

Thto the Lord I with my voice, I unto God did cry, Ev'n with my voice, and unto me his ear he did apply. 2 I in my trouble fought the Lord, my fore by night did run, And ceased not : my grieved foul did confolation thun.

3 I to remembrance God did call, yet trouble did remain: And overwheln.'d my spirit was, whilst I did fore co. plain.

4 Mine eyes, cebarr'd from rest and sleep, thou makett ftill to wake: My trouble is to great, that I unable am to freak.

5 The days of old to mind I call'd, and oft did think upon The times and ages that are past full many years agon ..

6 By night my fong I call to mind, and commune with my heart, My ip'rit dia carefully enquire how I might cale my Imart. 7 For ever will the Lord cast off, and gracious be no more 8 For ever is his mercy gone?

fails his word everniore? 9 Is't true, that to be gracious the Lord forgotten hath? And that his tender mercies he hath that up in his wrath?

to Then did I say, That surely this is mine infirmity;

I'll mind the years of the right hand of him that is most High.

11 Yea, I remember will the works performed by the Lord: The wonders done of old by thee I furely will record.

12 I also will of all thy works my meditation make,

And of thy doings to discourse great pleasure I will take.

13 O Go , thy way most holy is, within the fanctuary: And what God is to great in pow'r, as is our God most high?

14 Thou art the God that wonders doft by thy right hand most strong; Thy mighty pow'r thou hast declar'd the nations among.

15 To thine own people with thine arm thou didft redemption bring To Jacob's fons, and to the tribes of Joseph that do spring.

16 The waters. Lord, perceived thee, the waters raw thee well : And they for fear afide did flee: the dep is on trembling fell.

17 The clouds in water forth were pour'd, found loudly did the fky:

And fwiftly through the world acroad thine arrows herce did fly.

13 Thy thunder's voice alongst the heav'n a mighty noise did make By lightnings lightned was the world, the earth tremble did and thake.

- to Thy way is in the fea, and in the waters great thy path; Yet are thy footsteps hid, O Lord, none knowledge thereof hath.
- 20 Thy people thou didft fafely lead like to a flock of fheep,

 By Mofes' hand and 'aron's thou didft them conduct and keep.

PSALM LXXVIII. Triend, my people, to my law, thereto give thou an ear: The words that from my mouth process

The words that from my mouth proceed attentively do hear.

2 My mouth shall speak a parable, and fayings dark of old:

3 The fame which we have heard and known and us our fathers told.

4 We also will them not conceal from their posterity:

Them to the generation to come declare will we:

The praises of the Lord our God, and his almighty strength.

The wondrous works that he hath declared the strength of the strength.

The wondrous works that he hath done, we will shew forth at length.

5 His tellimony and his law in Ifra'l he did place, And charg'd our fathers it to show to their fucceeding race.

6 That fo the race which was to come might well them learn and know;

And fons unborn, who should arise.

And fons unborn, who should arise, might to their fons them show.

7 That they might fet their hope in God, and fuffer not to fall

His mighty works out of their mind, but keep his precepts all.

3 And might not, like their fathers, be a stiff rebellious race;

A race not right in heart: with God whose spirit not stedfast was.

9 The fons of Ephra'm, who nor bows, nor other arms did lack, When as the day of battle was, they faintly turned back.

They brake God's cov'nant, and refus'd in his commands to go.

His works and wonders they forgot, which he to them did show.

12 Things marvellous he brought to pass, their fathers them beheld.
Within the land of Egypt done, yea, evin in Zoan's field.

13 By him divided was the fea, he caused them through to pass; And made the waters to to stand, as like an heap it was.

14 With cloud by day, with light of fire all night he did them guide.

15 In defert rocks he clave, and drink as from great depths supply'd. 16 He from the rock brought streams, like made waters to run down. (flood 17 Yet finning more, in defert they provok'd the highest One.

18 For in their heart they tempted God, and speaking with mistrust, They greedily did meat require to fatisfy their luft.

19 Against the Lord himself they spake, and, murauring, said thus,

A table in the witderness can God prepare for us?

20 Behold, he finote the rock, and thence came streams and waters great;
But can he give his people bread?
and fend them flesh to eat?

21 The Lord did hear, and waxed wroth fo kindled was a flame 'Gainst Jacob, and 'gainst Israel up indignation came.

22 For they believ'd not God, nor trust in his falvation had:

23 Though clouds above he did command, and heav'n's doors open made;

24 And manna rain'd on them, and gave them corn of heav'n to eat,

25 Man angels food did eat, to them he to the full fent meat.

26 And in the heaven he did caufe an eaflern wind to blow; And by his power he let out the fouthern wind to go.

27 Then flesh as thick as dust he made to rain down them among; And feather'd fowls, like as the sand which ly'th the shore along.

48 At his command amidft their camp thefe thow'rs of flesh down fell, All round about the tabernacles,

All round about the tabernacles, and tents where they did dwell. 29 So did they eat abundantly, and had of meat their fill,

For he did give to them what was their own defire and will.

30 They from their luft had not effrang'd their heart and their defire;
But while the meat was in their mouths which they did so require, 31 God's wrath upon them came, and slew the fattest of them all: So that the choice of Israel o'erthrown by death did fall.

32 Yet, notwithstanding of all this, they finned still the more; And though he had great wonders wrought, believ'd him not therefore.

33 Wherefore their days in vanity he did confinme and wafte;
And by his wrath their wretched years away in trouble paft.

34 But

PSALM LXXVIII.

4 But when he flew them, then they did to feek him flew defire: Yea, they return'd, and after God right early did enquire.

35 And that the Lord had been their rock they did remember then:

Ev'n that the high almighty God had their Redeemer been.

36 Yet with their mouth they flatter'd him, and fpake but feignedly;
And they unto the God of truth with their falle tongues did lie.

For though their words were good, their with him was not fincere: (heart

Unstedfast and perfidious they in his cov'nant were.

38 But full of pity, he forgave their fin, them did not flay:

Nor ftirr'd up all his wrath, but oft his anger turn'd away.

39 For that they were but fading fielh to mind he did recal,

A wind that passeth soon away, and not returns at all.

40 How often did they him provoke within the wilderness?

And in the defert did him grieve with their rebellioufness?

41 Yea, furning back, they tempted God, and limits fet upon and limits fet upon Him, who in midit of Isra'l is the only holy One.

12 They did not call to mind his pow'r, nor yet the day when he Deliver'd them out of the hand of their fierce enemy.

43 Nor how great figns in Egypt land he openly had wrought, What miracles in Zoan's field his hand to pass had brought.

44 How lakes and rivers ev'ry where he turned into blood; So that no man nor beaft could drink of thanding lake or flood.

45 He brought among them fwarms of flies, which did them fore annoy;
And divers kinds of filthy frogs he fent them to destroy.

46 He to the caterpillar gave the fruits of all their foil; Their labours he deliver'd up unto the locusts spoil.

47 Their vines with hail, their fycomores he with the frost did blast.

48 Their beafts to hail he gave, their flocks hot thunder-bolts did wafte.

49 Fierce burning wrath he on them cast, and indignation strong, And troubles fore, by fending forth ill angels them among. 50 He to his wrath made way, their foul, from death he did not fave;
But over to the peltilence
the lives of them he gave.

51 In Egypt land the first-born all he imote down ev'ry where;
Amongst the tents of Ham, ev'n these chief of their strength that were.

52 But his own people like to sheep thence to go forth he made; And he amidst the wilderness them, as a slock, did lead.

53 And he them fafely on did lead, fo that they did not foar: Whereas their en'mies by the fea quite overwhelmed were.

the Lord his people led,

Ev'n to the mount, which his right hand for them had purchased.

by his almighty hand,
Before their face he did expel out of their native land, Which for inheritance to them
by line he did divide,
And made the tribes of Ifrael within their tents abide.

56 Yet God most high they did provoke, and tempted ever still; And to observe his testimonies did not incline their will.

57 But like their fathers turned back, and dealt unfaithfully:

Afide they turned, like a bow that shoots deceitfully.

58 For they to anger did provoke him with their places high; And with their graven images mov'd him to jealousy.

59 When God heard this, he waxed wroth, and much loath'd Ifra'l then:

60 So Shiloh's tent he left, the tent which he had plac'd with men:

61 And he his strength delivered into captivity,

He left his glory in the hand of his proud enemy.

62 His people also he gave o'er unto the fword's fierce rage:
So fore his wrath inflamed was

So fore his wrath inflamed was against his heritage.

63 The fire consum'd their choice young men: their maids no marriage had.

64 And when their priests fell by the fword, their wives no mourning made. 65 But then the Lord arose, as one that doth from fleep awake;

And like a giant that, by wine refresh'd, a shout doth make.

66 Upon

66 Upon his en mier hinder parts he made his stroke to fall; And so upon them he did put a thame perpetual.

61 Moreover, he the tabernacle of Joseph did refuse: The mighty tribe of Ephra m he would in no wife choofe.

63 But he did choose Jehudah's tribe to be the rest above; And of mount Sion he made choice, which he to much did love.

69 And he his fanctuary built liks to a palace high, Like to the earth which he did found to perpetuity.

70 Of David, that his servant was, he also choice did make, And even from the folds of flieep was pleafed him to take:

71 From waiting on the ews with young, he brought him forth to feed Ifra'l his inheritance, his people, Jacob's feed.

72 So after the integrity he of his heart them fed; And by the good skill of his hands them wifely governed.

PSALM LXXIX.

God, the Heathen enter'd have thine heritage; by them Defiled is thy house: on heaps they laid Jerufalem.

2 The bodies of thy fervants they have cast forth to be meat To rav'nous fowls, thy dear faints flesh they gave to beafts to eat.

3 Their blood about Jerufalem like water they have shed: And there was none to bury them when they were flain and dead.

4 Unto our neighbours a reproach most bate become are we: A fcorn and laughing-flock to them that round about us be.

5 How long, Lord, shall thine anger last? will thou ttill keep the tame? And thall thy fervent jestenty burn like unto a flame?

6 On heathen pour thy fucy forth, that have hee never known, And on those Lingdoms which thy name have never call'd upon.

7 For these are they who Jacob have devoured cruelly : And they his habitation have caused waste to lv.

8 Against us mind not former fins : thy tender mercies illow,

Let them prevent us speedily, for we're brought very low, 9 For thy Name's glory, help us, Lord, who hall our faviour been : Deliver us; for thy name's fake, O purge away our fin.

10 Why fay the heathen? Where's their God? let him to them be krown; When those, who flied thy fervants blood are in our fight o'erthrown.

11 O let the pris'ners fighs ascend before thy fight on high; Preserve those in thy mighty pow'r that are defign'd to die. 12 And to our neighbours bosom cause it fev'n-fold rend'red be,

Even the reproach wherewith they have, O Lord, reproached thee.

13 So we thy folk, and pasture sheep, thall give thee thanks always: And unto generations all we will shew forth thy praise.

PSALM LXXX.

HEar, Ifra'i's thepherd, like a flock thou that dost Joseph guide. Shine forth, O thou that dol't between the cherubims abide.

2 In Ephraim's and Benjamin's, and in Manasseh's fight, O come, for our falvation ftir up thy strength and might.

3 Turn us again, O Lord our God, and upon us vouchfafe

To make thy countenance to fline, and fo we shall be safe.

4 O Lord of hofts, Ahnighty God, how long shall kindled be Thy wrath against the prayer made by thine own folk to thee?

5 Thou tears of forrow giv'ff to them, in Read of bread, to eat; Yea, tears in stead of drink thou giv'st to them in measure great.

6 Thou makest us a strife unto . our neighbours round about:

Our enemies among themselves at us do laugh and flout.

7 Turn us again, O God of hofts, and upon us vouchfafe To make thy countenance to illine, and fo we shall be safe. 8 A vine from Egypt brought thou hall, by thine outstretched hand: And thou the heathen out didft cast, to plant it in their land.

o Before it thou a room didft make, where it might grow and Itand; Thou causedit it deep root to take, and it did fill the land. 10 The mountains vail'd were with its flade as with a covering; Like goodly cedars were the boughs which out from it did spring.

11 Upon

PSALMS LXXXI, LXXXII, LXXXIII.

Upon the one hand, to the fea her boughs the did out-lend; On th' other fide, unto the flood her branches did extend.

Why haft toou then thus broken down and ta'en her hedge away?

So that all pailengers do pluck. and make of her a prey.

The boar, who from the forest comes, doth waste it at his pleasure; The wild beaft of the field also devours it out of measure.

O God of holls, we thee befeech, return now unto thine:

Look do en from heav'n in love, behold, and vitit this thy vine:

This vineyard which thine own right hand hath planted us among; And that same branch, which for thyself thou halt made to be strong, Burnt up it is with flaming fire, it also is cut down: They utterly are perished when as the face doth frown. 7 O let thy hand be still upon the man of thy right hand,

The fon of man, whom for thyfelf thou madest strong to stand. 8 So henceforth we will not go back;

nor turn from thee at all: O do thou quicken us, and we upon thy name will call.

9 Turn us again, Lord God of holls, and upon us vouchfafe

To make thy countenance to thine, and to we shall be fafe.

PSALM LXXXI.

Sing loud to God, our strength; with joy to Jacob's God do sing. to Jacob's God do fing. 2 Take up a pfalm, the pleafant harp, timbrel and plalt'ry bring.

3 Blow trumpets at new-moon, what day our feast appointed is:

4 For charge to Ifra'l, and a law of Jacob's God was this.

5 To Joseph this a testimony he made, when Egypt land He travell'd through, where speech I heard I did not understand.

6 His shoulder I from burdens took, his hands from pots did free. 7 Thou didst in trouble on me call, and I deliver'd thee:

In fecret place of thundering I did thee answer make; And at the streams of Meribah of thee a proof did take.

8 O thou my people, give an ear, I'll tellify to thee: To thee, O Isra'l, if thou wilt but hearken unto me.

9 In midst of thee there shall not be any strange god at all; Nor unto any god unknown thou bowing down shalt fall.

10 I am the Lord thy God, which did from Egypt land thee guide; I'll fill thy mouth abundantly, do thou it open wide.

11 But yet my people to my voice would not attentive be; And ev'n my chosen Israel he would have none of me.

12 So to the lust of their own hearts I them delivered:

And then in counsels of their own they vainly wandered.

13 O that my people had me heard Ifra'i my ways had chofe!

14 I had their en'mies fcon fubdu'd, my hand turn'd on their foes.

15 The haters of the Lord to him fubmission should have feign'd. But as for them, their time thould have for evermore remain'd

16 He should have also fed them with the finest of the wheat:

Of honey from the rock, thy fill I should have made thee cat.

PSALM LXXXII.

N gods affembly God doth stand; he judgeth gods among.

2 How long, accepting persons vile, will ve give judgment wrong?

3 Defend the poor and fatherleis, to poor opprest do right.

4 The poor and needy ones let free. rid them from ill mens might.

5 They know not, nor will understand, in darkness they walk on: All the foun lations of the earth out of their course are gone. 6 I faid that you are gods, and are fons of the Highest all:

7 But ye shall die like men, and as one of the princes fall.

8 O Ged, do thou raise up thyself, the earth to judgment call: For thou, as thine inheritance, shalt take the nations all.

PSALM LXXXIII.

TKEep not, O God, we thee intreat,
O keep not filence now:
Do thou not hold thy peace, O God, and still no more be thou.

2 For lo, thine enemies a noite tumult'oufly have made; And they that haters are of thee have lifted up the head.

3 Against thy chosen people they do crastv counsel take; And they against thy hidden ones do confultations make.

4 Come,

PSALMS LXXXIV, LXXXV, LXXXVI.

4 Come, let us cut them off, faid they, from being a nation.
That of the name of Ifra'l may no more be mention.

5 For with joint heart they plot, in league against thee they combine.

6 The tents of Edom, Ishma'lites, Moab's and Hagar's line. 7 Gebal, and Amnon, Amalek, 7 Gebal, and Am ion, Amalek, Philistines, those of Tyre.

8 And Assur join'd with them, to help Lot's children they conspire.

9 Do to them as to Midian, Jabin at Kifon strand:

ro And Sis'ra, which at Endor fell, as dung to fat the land.

11 Like Oreb, and like Zeeb make their noble men to fall:

Like Zeba, and Zalmunna like, make thou their princes all:

12 Who faid, For our possession, let us God's houses take.

13 My God them like a wheel, as chaff before the wind them make.

14 As fire confumes the wood, as flame doth mountains fet on fire;

15 Chafe and affright them with the storm and tempest of thine ire.

16 Their faces fill with shame, O Lord, that they may seek thy name.

17 Let them confounded be, and vex'd, and perish in their shame:

18 That men may know, that thou to whom alone doth appertain

The name JEHOVAH, dost most high o'er all the earth remain.

PSALM LXXXIV.

HOw lovely is thy dwelling-place, O Lord of hofts, to me! The tabernacles of thy grace, how pleafant, Lord, they be! a My thirfly foul longs veh'mently; yea, faints thy courts to fee:

My very heart and flesh cry out,

O living God, for thee.

3 Behold, the sparrow findeth out an house wherein to rest;

The fwallow alto for herself hath purchased a nest,

Ev'n thine own altars, where she fafe her young ones forth may bring,

O thou almighty, Lord of hosts, who art my God and King.

4 Blest are they in the house that dwell, they ever give thee praise.

5 Bleft is the man whose strength thou art, in whose heart are thy ways.

6 Who passing thorough Baca's vale, therein do dig up wells:

Also the rain that falleth down the pools with water fills.

7 So hey from strength unweary'd go still forward unto strength, Until in Zion they appear before the Lord at length.

8 Lord God of hofts, my prayer hear,
O Jacob's God, give ear.

9 See God, our shield, look on the face of thine anointed dear.

10 For in thy courts one day excels a thousand; rather in My God's house will I keep a door, than dwell in tents of fin.

fr For God the Lord's a fun and fhield: he'll grace and glory give;

And will with-hold no good from them that uprightly do live.

12 O thou that art the Lord of hofts, that man is truly bleft,

Who by affured confidence on thee alone doth rest.

PSALM LXXXV.

Lord, thou hast been favourable to thy beloved land:

Jacob's captivity thou hast recall'd with mighty hand.

2 Thou pardoned thy people hast all their iniquities,

Thou all their trespasses and fins hast cover'd from thine eyes.

3 Thou took'ft off all thine ire, and turn'dft from thy wrath's furiousness.

4 Turn us, God of our health, and cause thy wrath 'gainst us to cease.

5 Shall thy difpleafure thus endure against us without end?
Wilt thou to generations all thine anger forth extend?

6 That in thee may thy people joy, wilt thou not us revive?

7 Shew us thy mercy, Lord, to us do thy falvation give.

8 I'll hear what God the Lord will fpeak, to his folk he'll fpeak peace,

And to his faints, but let them not return to foolishness.

To them that fear him furely near is his falvation;
That glory in our land may have her habitation.

10 Truth met with mercy, right'ousness and peace kis'd mutually:

11 Truth springs from earth, and right oulness looks down from heaven high.

12 Yea, what is good the Lord shall give; our land shall yield increase.

13 Justice, to set us in his steps, shall go before his face.

PSALM LXXXVI.

Lord, do thou bow down thine ear, and hear me graciously;
Because I forc afflicted am,
and am in poverty.

2 Becaule

PSALMS LXXXVII, LXXXVIII.

Because I'm holy, let my soul by thee preserved be:
O thou my God, thy servant save that puts his trutt in thee.

3 Sith unto thee I daily cry, be merciful to me.

4 Rejoice thy f-rvant's foul; for, Lord, I lift my foul to thee.

5 For thou art gracious. O Lord, and ready to forgive; And rich in mercy, all that call upon thee to relieve.

6 Hear, Lord, my pray'r; unto the voice of my request attend.

7 In troublous times I'll call on thee, for thou wilt answer fend.

8 Lord, there is none among the gods that may with thee compare; And like the works, which thou haft done, not any work is there.

9 All nations whom thou mad'st shall come, and worship rev'rently Before thy face; and they, O Lord, thy name shall glorify.

O Because thou art exceeding great, and works by thee are done, Which are to be admir'd; and thou art God thyfelf alone.

It Teach me thy way, and in thy truth, O Lord, then walk will I; Unite my heart, that I thy name may fear continually.

2 O Lord, my God, with all my heart to thee I will give praise; And I the glory will ascribe unto thy name always.

3 Because thy mercy toward me in greatness doth excel; And thou deliver'd haft my foul out from the lowest hell.

4 O God, the proud against me rise; and vi'lent men have mer, That for my foul have fought; and thee before them have not fet.

5 But thou art full of pity, Lord, a God most gracious, Long-suffering, and in thy truth and mercy plenteous. 6 O turn to me thy countenance, and mercy on me have:

Thy fervant strengthen, and the fon of thine own hand-maid fave.

7 Shew me a fign for good, that they which do me have may fee, And be affum'd, because thou, Lord, didft help and comfort me.

4 Rahab and Babel, I to those that know me, will record:

Behold ev'n Tyrus, and with it the land of Palestine,

.And likewise E hiopia; this man was born therein. 5 And it of Zion shall be said,

This man and that man there Was born; and he that is most High himself shall stablish her.

6 When God the people writes, he'll count that this man forn was there.

7 There be that fing, and play; and all my well-fprings in thee are.

PSALM LXXXVIII.

ord God, my Saviour, day and night before thee cry'd have I,

2 Before thee let my prayer come;

give ear unto my cry.
3 For troubles great do fill my foul: my life draws nigh the grave.

4 I'm counted with those that go down to pit, and no strength have.

5 Ev'n free among the dead, like them that flain in grave do ly:
Cut off from thy hand, whom no more thou halt in memory. 6 Thou hast me laid in lowest pit, in deeps and darkfome caves. 7 Thy wrath lies hard on me, thou haft me prest with all thy waves.

8 Thou hast put far from me my friends, thou mad'st them to abhor me;

And I am to thut up, that I find no evalion for me. 9 By reason of affliction mine eye mourns dolefully: To thee, Lord, do I call, and stretch my hands continually.

10 Wilt thou shew wonders to the dead? shall they rife, and thee blefs?

II Shall in the grave thy love be told? in death thy faithfulnets?

12 Shall thy great wonders in the dark, or shall thy right'ousness

Be known to any in the land of deep forgetfulness?

13 But, Lord, to thee I cry'd, my pray'r at morn prevent shall thee.

14 Why, Lord, dost thou cast off my foul?

and hid'ft thy face from me?

15 Distrest am I, and from my youth I ready am to die;

Thy terrors I have born, and am distracted fearfully.

16 The dreadful fierceness of thy wrath quite over me doth go:

Thy terrors great have cut me off, they did pursue me fo.

- 1) For round about me ev'ry day like water they did roll: And, gathering together, they have compassed my foul.
- 13 My friends thou hast put far from me, and him that did me love; And those that mine acquaintance were to darkness didst remove.

PSALM LXXXIX. Od's mercies I will ever fing, and with my mouth I shall Thy faithfulness make to be known to g nerations ali.

2 For mercy shall be built, faid I, for ever to endure:

The faithfulnel, ev'n in the heav'ns, thou wilt establish fure.

3 I with my chosen one have made a cov'nant graciously: And to my fervant whom I lov'd, to David sworn have I:

4 That I thy feed effablish shall for ever to remain; And will to generations all thy throne build and maintain.

5 The praises of the wonders, Lord, the heavens shall express; And in the congregation of faints thy faithfulness, 6 For who in heaven with the Lord may once himfelf compare? Who is like God among the lons of those that mighty are?

7 Great fear in meeting of the faints is due unto the Lord; And he of all about him should with revirence be ador'd.

8 O thou that art the Lord of hofts, what lord in mightinef

Is like to thee? who compast round art with the faithfulness.

9 Ev'n in the rag ng of the fa thou over it dost reign; And when the waves thereof do fwell, thou stillest them again.

10 Rahab in pieces thou didft break, like one that flaughter'd is: And with thy mighty arm thou haft dispers'd thine enemies.

11 The heav'ns are thine, thou for thine own the earth doft also take:

The world, and fulnets of the fame, thy pow'r did found and make.

12 The north and fouth from thee alone their first beginning had: Both Tabor mount and Hermon hill thall in thy name be glad.

13 Thou haft an arm that's full of pow'r, thy hand is great in might: And thy right hand exceedingly exalted is in height.

14 Justice and judgment of thy throne are made the dwelling-place: Mercy, accompany'd with truth, shall go before thy face.

15 O greatly blest the people are. the joyful found that know; In brightness of thy face, O Lord, they ever on shall go

16 They in thy name thall all the day rejoice exceedingly: And in thy right'outness shall they exalted be on high.

17 Because the glory of their strength doth only stand in thee: And in thy favour thall our hom and pow'r exalted be. 18 For God is our defence, and he to us doth fafety bring:

The holy One of Ifiael is our almighty King.

19 In vision to thy holy One thou faidst, I help upon A strong one laid; out of the solk
I rail'd a chosen one:

20 Ev'n David, I have found him out a fervant unto me; And with my holy oil my king anointed him to be.

21 With whom my hand shall stablish'd be: mine arm shall make him strong.

22 On him the foe shall not exact, nor fon of mischief wrong.

23 I will beat down before his face all his malicious foes: I will them greatly plague, who do with hatred him oppose.

24 My mercy, and my faithfulness, with him yet still shall be: And in my name his horn and pow'r men shall exalted see.

25 His hand and pow'r shall reach afar, I'll fet it in the fea: And his right hand established shall in the rivers be.

26 Thou art my Father, he shall cry, thou art my God alone; And he shall lav, Thou art the rock of my falvation. 27 I'll make him my first born, more high than kings of any land. 28 My love I'll ever keep for him, my coc'nant fait shall stand.

20 His feed I by my pow'r will make for ever to endure: And, as the days of heav'n, his throne thall ftable be and fure. 30 But if his children shall forfake my laws and go aftray,

And in my judgments shall not walk, but wander from my way:

31 If they my laws break, and do not keep my commandements:

32 I'll visit then their taults with rods, their fins wit i chastisements. 33 Yet I'll not take my love from him, nor falle my promite make. 34 My cov'nant Pil not break, nor change what with my mouth I fpake.

55 Once by my holine's I fware, to David I'll not lie.

36 His feed and throne shall as the fin before me last for av.

37 It. like the moon, shall ever be establish'd steefastly;

And like to it at which in the heav'n doth witness faithfully.

38 But thou, displeased, hast cast off, thou didst abhor and lo the; With him that thene anointed is, thou hast been very wroth.

39 Thou hast thy servant's covenant made void, and quite cast by; Thou hast profan'd his crown, while it cast on the ground doth ly.

Thou all his hedges hall broke down, his strong holds down hast torn. It He to all passers by a spoil, to neighbours is a fcorn.

12 Thou haft fet up his foes right hand, mad'it all his en'mies glad :

3 Turn'd his fword's edge, and him to fland in battle hast not made.

4 His glory thou hast made to cease, his throne to ground down cast; 5 Short'ned his days of youth and him with shame thou cover'd hast. 6 How long, Lord, wilt thou hide thyfelf for ever in thine ire?

And shall thine indignation burn like unto a fire?

7 Remember, Lord, how fhort a time I shall on earth remain:

O wherefore is it to, that thou haft made all men in vain? 8 What man is he that liveth here, and death fhall never fee?

Or from the power of the grave what man his foul finall free?

9 Thy former loving kindnesses, O Lord, where be they now? These which in truth and faithfulness to David sworn hast thou. Mind. Lord, thy fervant's fad reproach: how I in bolom bear

The fcornings of the people all who strong and mighty are.

Wherewith thy raging enemies reproach'd, O Lord, think on. Wherewith they have reproach'd the sleps of thine anointed One.

52 All bleffing to the Lord our God. let be atcribed then: For evermore to let it be. Amen, yea, and amen.

PSALM XC.

Ord, thou hast been our dwelling-place in generations all.

2 Before thou ever hadit brought forth the mountains great or finall: Ere ever thou hadit form'd the earth, and all the worls abroad, Ev'n thou from eve lafting art to everlafting God.

3 Thou doft unto destruction man that is mortal turn: And unto them thou fay'll, Again, ve fons of men, return.

4 Because a thousand years appear no more before thy fight, Than yest-rday, when it is past, or than a watch by night.

5 As with an overflowing flood thou carry'ft them away: They like a fleep are, like the grais that grows at morn are they.

6 At morn it flourishes and grows, cut down at ev'n doth fade.

7 For by thine anger we're confunid, thy wrath makes us afraid.

8 Our fins thou and iniquities doft in thy prefence place, And fett'it our fecret faults before the brighmess of thy face.

9 For in thine anger all our days do pass on to an end; And, as a tale that hath been told, to we our years do tpend.

10 Threescore and ten years do sum up our days and years, we fee: Or if, by reason of more strength, in some fourscore they be: Yet doth the tirength of fuch old men but grief and labour prove; For it is foon cut off, and we fly hence, and foon remove.

II Who knows the power of thy wra'h? according to thy fear, 12 So is thy wrath; Lord, teach thou us our end in mind to bear: And fo to count our days, that we our hearts may still apply To learn thy wildom and thy truth, that we may live thereby,

13 Turn yet again to us, O Lord, how long thus shall it be? Let it repent thee now, for those that fervants are to thee.

14 O with thy tender mercies, Lord, us early fatisfy;

So we rejoice thall all our days, and still be glad in thee.

15 According

PSALMS XCI, XCII.

15 According as the days have been, wherein we grief have had, And years wherein we ill have feen, fo do thou make us glad.

16 O let thy work and pow'r appear thy fervants face before;

And fhew unto their children dear thy glory evermore.

17 And let the beauty of the Lord our God be us upon; Our handy-works establish thou, establish them each one.

PSALM XCI.

HE that doth in the secret place of the most High reside, Under the shade of him that is th' Almighty, shall abide.

2 I of the Lord my God will fay, He is my refuge still, He is my fortress, and my God, and in him trust I will.

3 Affuredly he shall thee save, and give deliverance From subtil fowler's snare, and from the noisome pessilence.

4 His feathers shall thee hide; thy trust under his wings shall be: His faithfulness shall be a shield and buckler unto thee.

5 Thou shalt not need to be afraid for terrors of the night, Nor for the arrow that doth fly by day, while it is light:

6 Nor for the peffilence, that walks in darkness fecretly, Nor for destruction, that doth waste at noon-day openly.

7 A thousand at thy side shall fall, on thy right hand shall ly Ten thousand dead, yet unto thee it shall not once come nigh.

8 Only thou with thine eyes thalt look, and a beholder be:

And thou therein the just reward of wicked men shalt see.

Because the Lord, who constantly my refuge is alone,
 Ev'n the most High, is made by thee thy habitation.

10 No plague shall near thy dwelling come,

no ill shall thee befal:

For thee to keep in all thy ways his angels charge he shall.

12 They in their hands shall bear thee up, still waiting thee upon;
Lest thou at any time thould'st dash thy foot against a stone.

13 Upon the adder thou shalt tread, and on the lion strong:
Thy set on dragons trample shall, and on the lions young.

14 Because on me he set his love,
I'll save and set him free:
Because my great name he hath known,
I will him set on high.

15 He'll call on me, I'll answer him,
I will be with him still,
In trouble to deliver him, and honour him I will.

16 With length of days unto his mind,
 I will him fatisfy;
 I also my falvation
 will cause his eyes to see.

PSALM XCII.

TO render thanks unto the Lord it is a comely thing, And to thy name, O thou most High, due praise aloud to sing.

2 Thy loving kindness to shew forth, when shines the morning light; And to declare thy faithfulness with pleafure ev'ry night.

3 On a ten-stringed instrument, upon the psaltery;

And on the harp with folemn found, and grave fweet melody.

4 For thou, Lord, by thy mighty wor hast made my heart right glad:
And I will triumph in the works, which by thine hands were made.

5 How great, Lord, are thy works! each of thine a deep it is. [thought

6 A brutish man it knoweth not; fools understand not this.

7 When those that lewd and wicked are spring quickly up like grass, And workers of iniquity do flourish all apace;

It is that they for ever may destroyed be and slain:

8 But thou, O Lord, art the most High, for ever to remain.

9 For lo, thine enemies, O Lord, thine en'miss perith fhall: The workers of iniquity fhall be difperfed all.

of th' unicorn, exalt

My horn on high: thou with fresh oil anoint me also shalt.

Mine eyes thall also my defire fee on mine enemies:

Mine ear shall of the wicked hear, that do against me rife.

12 But like the palm-tree flourishing fhall be the right ous one:
He shall like to the cedar grow

He shall like to the cedar grow that is in Lebanon.

13 Those that within the house of God are planted by his grace; They shall grow up, and flourish all in our God's holy place.

14 And

PSALMS XCIII, XCIV, XCV.

14 And in old age, when others fade, they fruit still forth shall bring: They shall be fat, and full of fap, and ay be flourishing.

15 To shew that upright is the Lord, he is a rock to me: And he from all unright'oufness is altogether free.

PSALM XCIII.

'He Lord doth reign, and cloth'd is he with majesty most bright; His works do shew him cloth'd to be, and girt about with might. The world is also stablished, that it cannot depart.

2 Thy throne is fix'd of old, and thou from everlasting art.

3 The floods, O Lord, have lifted up, they lifted up their voice; The floods have lifted up their waves, and made a mighty noise.

4 But yet the Lord, that is on high, is more of might by far,
Than noise of many waters is, or great fea-billows are:

5 Thy testimonies ev'ry one in faithfulness excel; And holiness for ever, Lord. thine house becometh well.

PSALM XCIV.

Lord God, unto whom alone all vengeance doth belong, O mighty God, who vengeance own'st, thine forth, avenging wrong.

2 Lift up thyfelf, thou of the earth the fov'reign Judge that art, And unto those that are so proud a due reward impart.

3 How long, O mighty God, shall they who lewd and wicked be, How long shall they who wicked are thus triumph haughtily

4 How long shall things most hard by them be uttered and told; And all that work iniquity to boast themselves be bold?

Thy folk they break in pieces, Lord, thine heritage oppress.

6 The widow they, and stranger slay, and kill the fatherless.

7 Yet say they, God it shall not see, nor God of Jacob know. 8 Ye brutish people understand; fools, when wife will ye grow?

9 The Lord did plant the ear of man, and hear then shall not he? He only form'd the eve, and then shall he not clearly see?

He that the nations doth correct, shall he not chastise you?

He knowledge unto man doth teach, and shall himself not know?

11 Man's thoughts to be but variity, the Lord doth well difceen.

12 Bleft is the man thou chaft'nest, Lord, and mak'st the law to learn.

13 That thou may'ft give him rest from days of fad advertity, Until the pit be digg'd for those that work iniquity.

14 For fure the Lord will not cast off those that his people be, Neither his own inheritance quit and forfake will he.

15 But judgment unto right'oufnels shall yet return again; And all shall follow after it, that are right-hearted men.

16 Who will rife up for me, against those that do wickedly Who will stand up for me, 'gainst thole that work iniquity?

17 Unless the Lord had been my help, when I was fore opprest, Almost my soul had in the house of filence been at reft.

18 When I had uttered this word; (my foot doth flip away,) Thy mercy held me up, O Lord; thy goodness did me stay.

19 Amidit the multitude of thoughts; which in my heart do fight My foul, left it be overcharg'd, thy comforts do delight.

20 Shall of iniquity the throne have fellowship with thee, Which mischief, cunningly contrive, doth by a law decree?

21 Against the right'ous souls they join, they guiltless blood condemn 22 But of my refuge God's the rock, and my defence from them.

23 On then their own iniquity the Lord shall bring and lay, And cut them off in their own fin; our Lord God shall them flay.

PSALM XCV.

Come, let us fing to the Lord, come. let us ev'ry one A joyful noise make to the Rock of our falvation.

2 Let us before his presence come, with praise and thankful voice: Let us fing pfalms to him with grace; and make a joyful noife.

3 For God a great God, and great King above all gods he is.

4 Depths of the earth are in his hand, the strength of hills is his.

5 To him the spacious sea belongs, for he the same did make:

The dry land also from his hands its form at first did take:

PSALMS XCVI, XCVII, XCVIII.

6 O come, and let us worship him, let us bow down withal, And on our knees before the Lord our maker let us fall.

7 For he's our God, the people we of his own pasture are,

And of his hand the sheep; to-day if ye his voice will hear.

8 Then, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation,

As in the defert, on the day of the tentation.

9 When me your fathers tempt'd and prov'd, and did my working see: 10 Ev'n for the space of forty years this race hath grieved me:

I faid, This people errs in heart,

my ways they do not know:
IT To whom I fware in wrath, that to my rest they should not go.

PSALM XCVI.

Sing a new fong to the Lord, fing all the earth to God,

2 To God fing, blefs his name, shew still his faving health abroad.

3 Among the heathen nations his glory do declare; And unto all the people show his works that wondrous are.

4 For great's the Lord, and greatly he is to be magnify'd:

Yea, worthy to be fear'd is he above all gods beside.

5 For all the gods are idols dumb which blinded nations fear; But our God is the Lord, by whom the heav'ns created were.

6 Great honour is before his face, and majesty divine: Strength is within his holy place, and there doth beauty thine, 7 Do you afcribe unto the Lord, of people ev'ry tribe, Glory do ye unto the Lord, and mighty pow'r ascribe.

8 Give ye the glory to the Lord that to his name is due:
Come ye into his courts, and bring an offering with you.

9 In beauty of his holiness
O do the Lord adore:

Likewise let all the earth throughout tremble his face before.

the world shall stedfastly

Be fix'd from moving, he shall judge the people right'ously:

11 Let heav'ns be glad before the Lord and let the earth rejoice: Let feas, and all that is therein, cry out, and make a noife. 12 Let fields rejoice, and ev'ry thing that fpringeth of the earth: Then woods, and ev'ry tree fhall fing with gladness and with mirth

13 Before the Lord; because he comes, to judge the earth comes he: He'll judge the world with right'ouinels the people faithfully.

PSALM XCVII.

T GOd reigneth: let the earth be glad, and iffes rejoice each one. 2 Dark clouds him compass; and in right with judgment dwells his throne.

3 Fire goes before him, and his foes, it burns up round about.

4 His lightnings lighten did the world, earth faw, and shook throughout.

5 Hills, at the presence of the Lord, like wax, did melt away:

Ev'n at the presence of the Lord of all the earth, I say.

6 The heav'ns declare his right'oulness all men his glory fee.

7 All who ferve graven images, confounded let them be.

Who do of idols boast themselves, let shame upon them fall:

Ye that are called gods, see that

Ye that are called gods, fee that ye do him worship all.

8 Zion did hear, and joyful was, glad Judah's daughters were. They much rejoic'd, O Lord, because thy judgments did appear.

9 For thou, O Lord, art high above all things on earth that are: Above all other gods thou art exalted very far.

no Hate ill, all ye that love the Lord:
his faints fouls keepeth he,

And from the hands of wicked men he fets them fafe and free.

fown is a joyful light,

And gladness fown is for all those that are in heart upright.

2 Ye right'ous, in the Lord rejoice, express your thankfulness, When ye into your memory do call his holiness.

PSALM XCVIII.

T O Sing a new fong to the Lord, for wonders he hath done? His right hand, and his holy arm, him victory hath won.

2 The Lord God his falvation hath caufed to be known: His justice in the heathen's fight he openly hath shown.

3 He mindful of his grace and truth to Ifra'l's house hath been: And the salvation of our God all ends of th' earth have seen.

PSALMS XCIX, C, CI, CII.

4 Let all the earth unto the Lord fend forth a joyful noife: Lift up your voice aloud to him, fing praises, and rejoice.

5 With harp, with harp, and voice of pfalms unto JEHOVAH fing.

6 With trumpets, cornets, gladly found before the Lord the King.

7 Let leas, and all their fulnels roar, the world, and dwellers there.

8 Let floods clap hands, and let the hills together joy declare

9 Before the Lord; because he comes, to judge the earth comes he: He'll judge the world with right'oufness, his folk with equity.

PSALM XCIX.

"H' eternal Lord doth reign as King, let all the people quake: He fits between the cherubims, let.th' earth be mov'd and fhake. 2 The Lord in Zion great, and high above all people is.

3 Thy great and dreadful Name (for it is holy) let them bless.

4 The king's strength also judgment loves : thou settlest equity. Just judgment thou dost execute in Jacob right'oufly. 5 The Lord our God exalt on high, and rev'rently do ye Before his footstool worship him:

the holy One is he. 6 Moses and Aaron 'mongst his priests, Samuel with them that call Upon his name: these call'd on God, and he them answer'd all. 7 Within the pillar of the cloud he unto them did speak: The tellimonies he them taught, and laws they did not break.

8 Thou answer'dit them, O Lord our God, thou wast a God that gave Pardon to them, though on their deeds thou wouldest vengeance have.

o Do ye exalt the Lord our God, and at his holy hill

Do ye him worthip: for the Lord our God is holy still,

PSALM C.

All people that on earth do dwell, Sing to the Lord with cheerful voice. 2 Him ferve with mirth, his praise forth tell, Come ye before him and rejoice.

3 Know, that the Lord is God indeed, Without our aid he did us make; We are his flock, he doth us feed, And for his sheep he doth us take.

4 O enter then his gates with praise, Approach with joy his courts unto: Praise, laud, and bless his name always, For it is feemly so to do.

5 For why? the Lord our God is good, His mercy is for ever fure: His truth at all times firmly flood, Aiki ihali from age to age endure.

Another of the same.

All ye lands, unto the Lord make ye a joyful noife.

2 Serve God with gladness, him before come with a finging voice.

3 Know ye the Lord, that he is God, not we but he us made; We are his people, and the sheep within his pasture fed.

4 Enter his gates and courts with praise, to thank him go ye thither: To him express your thankfulness, and bless his name together. 5 Because the Lord our God is good;

his mercy faileth never; And to all generations his truth endureth ever.

PSALM CI.

I T Mercy will and judgment fing, Lord, I will fing to thee.

2 With wisdom, in a perfect way, shall my behaviour be.

O when in kindness unto me, wilt thou be pleas'd to come? I with a perfect heart will walk within my house at home.

3 I will endure no wicked thing before mine eyes to be: I hate their work that turn afide, it shall not cleave to me. 4 A stubborn and a froward heart depart quite from me shall: A person giv'n to wickedness I will not know at all.

5 I'll cut him off that flandereth his neighbour privily:

The haughty heart I will not bear, nor him that looketh high.

6 Upon the faithful of the land mine eyes shall be, that they May dwell with me: he shall me ferve that walks in perfect way.

7 Who of deceit a worker is, in my house shall not dwell: And in my presence sliall he not remain, that lies doth tell. 8 Yea, all the wicked of the land early destroy will I: All from God's city to cut off that work iniquity.

PSALM CII.

Lord, unto my pray'r give ear, my cry let come to thee; 2 And in the day of my diffress, hide not thy face from me.

D 2

Give ear to me: what time I call, to answer me make haste.

3 For as an hearth my bones are burnt, my days like smoke do waste.

4 My heart within me smitten is, and it is withered Like very grais: fo that I do forget to eat my bread.

5 By realon of my groaning voice, my bones cleave to my fkin.

6 Like pelican in wildernefs forfaken I have been :

I like an owl in defert am, that nightly there doth moan.

7 I watch, and like a sparrow am on the house-top alone.

8 My bitter en'mies all the day reproaches cast on me:

And being mad at me, with rage against me fworn they be.

For why, I ashes eaten have, like bread in forrows deep: My drink I also mingled have with tears that I did weep.

10 Thy wrath and indignation did cause this grief and pain: For thou hast lift me up on high, and cast me down again.

It My days are like unto a shade, which doth declining pals: And I am dry'd and withered, ev'n like unto the grass.

12 But thou, Lord, everlasting art, and thy remembrance shall Continually endure, and be to generations all.

13 Thou shalt arise, and mercy have upon thy Zion vet: The time to favour her is come, the time that thou hast set.

14 For in her rubbish and her stones thy fervants pleasure take, Yea, they the very dust thereof do favour for her fake.

15 So shall the heathen people fear the Lord's most holy name: And all the kings on earth shall dread thy glory, and thy fame.

16 When Zion by the mighty Lord built up again shail be In glory then and majesty, to men appear shall he.

17 The prayer of the destitute he furely will regard, Their prayer will he not despile, by him it shall be heard.

18 For generations ye' to come this shall be on record: So shall the people, that shall be created, praise the Lord.

19 He from his fanctuary's height hath downward cast his eye: And from his glorious throne in heav'n the Lord the earth did spy:

20 That of the mournful prisoner the groanings he might hear, To fet them free, that unto death by men appointed are:

21 That they in Zion may declare the Lord's most holy name, And publish in Jerusalem the praises of the same.

22 When as the people gather shall in troops with one accord, When kingdom: shall affembled be to serve the Highest Lord.

23 My wonted strength and force he hath abated in the way, And he my days hath shortened:

Thus therefore did I fay, My God, in mid-time of my days, take thou me not away; From age to age eternally thy years endure and stay.

25 The firm foundation of the earth of old time thou hast laid: The heavens also are the work which thine own hands have made.

26 Thou shalt for evermore endure, but they shall perish all: Yea, ev'ry one of them wax old, like to a garment, fhall:

Thou as a vesture shalt them change, and they shall changed be.

27 But thou the same art, and thy years are to eternity.

28 The children of thy fervants shall continually endure,

And in thy fight, O Lord, their feed shall be establish'd fure

Another of the same.

Ord, hear my pray'r, and let my cry
Have speedy access unto thee

2 In day of my calamity O hide not thou thy face from me: Hear when I call to thee, that day An answer speedily return.

3 My days like fmoke confume away, And, as an hearth, my bones do burn.

4 My heart is wounded very fore, And withered, like grafs, doth fade: I am forgetful grown therefore To take and eat my daily bread.

5 By reason of my smart within, And voice of my most grievous groans, My flesh consumed is, my skin, All parch'd, doth cleave unto my bones.

6 The pelican of wilderness, The owl in defert I do match:

7 And sparrow-like, companionless, Upon the house's-top, I watch.

- 8 I all day long am made a forn, Reproach'd by my malicious foes: The mad-men are against me sworn, The men against me that arose.
- 9 For I have ashes eaten up
 To me as if they had been bread;
 And with my drink I in my cup
 Of bitter tears a mixture made.
- 10 Because thy wrath was not appeas'd, And dreadful indignation: Therefore it was that thou me rais'd, And thou again didst cast me down.
- II My days are like a shade alway, Which doth declining swiftly pass: And I am withered away Much like unto the fading grass,
- Much like unto the fading grafs, 12 But thou, O Lord, shalt still endure, From change and all mutation free, And, to all generations, sure Shall thy remembrance ever be.
- Thou shalt arise, and mercy yet
 Thou to mount Zion shalt extend:
 Her time for favour which was set,
 Behold, is now come to an end.

14 Thy faints take pleasure in her stones, Her very dust to them is dear.

- 15 All heathen lands, and kingly thrones On earth, thy glorious name shall fear.
- When Zion he builds and repairs.

 He shall regard and lend his ear

Unto the needy's humble pray'rs:
Th' afflicted's pray'r he will not fcorn.
18 All times this shall be on record,

- All times this shall be on record,
 And generations yet unborn
 Shall praise and magnify the Lord.
- 19 He from his holy place look'd down, The earth he view'd from heav'n on high: 28 To hear the pris'ners mourning groan,
- And free them that are doom'd to die;
- 21 That Zion, and Jerus'lem too, His name and praise may well record:
- 22 When people, and the kingdoms do Assemble all to praise the Lord.
- 23 My strength he weak'ned in the way, My days of life he shortened.
- 24 My God, O take me not away
 In mid-time of my days I faid:
 Thy years throughout all ages laft.
- 25 Of old thou haft eftablished
 The earth's foundation firm and fast:
 Thy mighty hands the heav'ns have made.
- 26 They perish shall, as garments do. But thou shalt evermore endure: As vestures thou shalt change them so; And they shall all be changed sure.
- 27 But fro n all changes thou art free; Thy endless years do last for ay.
- 28 Thy fervants, and their feed who be, Establish'd shall before thee stay.

PSALM CIII.

Thou my foul, bless God the Lord, and all that in me is
Be stirred up, his holy name to magnify and bless.

2 Blefs, Oney foul, the Lord thy God, and not forgetful be
Of all his gracious benefits

Of all his gracious benefits he hath bestow'd on thee.

3 All thine iniquities who doth most graciously forgive: Who thy diteases all and pains doth heal, and thee relieve.

4 Who doth redeem thy life, that thou to death may'ft not go down:

Who thee with loving kindness doth and tender mercies crown.

5 Who with abundance of good things doth fatisfy thy mouth:
So that, ev'n as the eagle's age, renewed is thy youth.

6 God right'ous judgment executes for all oppressed ones.

7 His ways to Moses, he his acts made known to Isra'i's fons.

8 The Lord our God is merciful, and he is gracious,

Long-fuffering, and flow to wrath, in mercy plenteous.

9 He will not chide continually, nor keep his anger still.

10 With us he dealt not as we finn'd, nor did requite our ill.

to For as the heaven in its height the earth furmounteth far; So great to those that do him fear his tender mercies are.

12 As far as east is distant from the west, so far hath he From us removed, in his love, all our iniquity.

13 Such pity as a father hath unto his children dear; Like pity thews the Lord to fuch as worthip him in fear.

14 For he remembers we are dust, and he our frame well knows.

15 Frail man, his days are like the grass, as flow'r in field he grows:

16 For over it the wind doth pass, and it away is gone, And of the place, where once it was,

it shall no more be known.

17 But unto them that do him fear
God's mercy never ends;

And to their childrens children still his right'ousness extends.

18 To fuch as keep his covenant, and mindful are alway

Of his most just commandements, that they may them obey.

3 19 The

- 19 The Lord prepared hath his throne in heavens firm to stand: And ev'ry thing that being hath his kingdom doth command.
- 20 O ye his angels, that excel in strength, bless ye the Lord, Ye who obey what he commands, and hearken to his word, 21 O bless and magnify the Lord, ye glorious hofts of his, Ye ministers that do fulfil whate'er his pleasure is.

22 O bless the Lord, all ye his works, wherewith the world is ftor'd In his dominions every where: my foul, bless thou the Lord.

PSALM CIV.

B Less God, my soul: O Lord, my God, thou art exceeding great, With honour and with majesty thou clothed art in state. 2 With light as with a robe, thyself thou coverest about;

And, like unto a curtain, thou the heavens stretchest out.

3 Who of his chambers doth the beams within the waters lay, Who doth the clouds his chariot make, on wings of wind make way.

4 Who flaming fire his ministers; his angels sp'rits doth make.

5 Who earth's foundations did lay, that it should never shake.

& Thou didft it cover with the deep, as with a garment spread: The waters stood above the hills, when thou the word but faid.

7 But, at the voice of thy rebuke, they fled, and would not flay They at thy thunders dreadful voice, did haste them fast away.

8 They by the mountains do ascend, and by the valley-ground Descend, unto that very place which thou for them didft found.

Thou haft a bound unto them fet, that they may not pass over, That they do not return again the face of earth to cover.

to He to the vallies fends the springs, which run among the hills:

TI They to all beafts of field give drink, wild atles drink their fills.

12 By them the fowls of heav'n shall have their habitation:

Which do among the branches fing with delectation.

13 He from his chambers watereth the hills, when they are dry'd: With fruit and increase of thy works the earth is fatisfy'd.

14 For cattle he makes grafs to grow, he makes the herb to fpring For th' use of man, that food to him he from the earth may bring:

15 And wine, that to the heart of man doth cheerfulness impart,

Oil that his face makes thine, and bread that strengtheneth his heart.

16 The trees of God are full of fap the cedars that do stand In Lebanon, which planted were by his almighty hand.

17 Birds of the air, upon their boughs, do choose their nests to make: As for the stork, the fir-tree she doth for her dwelling take.

18 The lofty mountains for wild goats a place of refuge be:

The conies also to the rocks do for their fafety fiee.

19 He fets the moon in heav'n, thereby the seasons to discern: From him the fun his certain time of going down doth learn. 20 Thou darkness mak'tt, 'tis night, then beafts of forests creep abroad. 21 The lions young roar for their prey, and feel: their meat from God.

22 The fun doth rife, and home they flock, down in their dens they lie.

23 Man goes to work, his labour he doth to the evining ply.

, earth's of thy riches full.

24 How manifold, Lord, are thy works! in wisdom wonderful Thou ev'ry one of them hast made;

25 So is this great and spacious sea, wherein things creeping are, Which numbred cannot be; and beafts both great and finall are there.

26 There thips go, there thou mak'ft to play that leviathan great.

27 These all wait on thee, that thou may'it in due time give them meat.

28 That which thou givest unto them, they gather for their food; Thine hand thou open'ft lib'rally, they filled are with good.

29 Thou hid'st thy face, they troubled are, their breath thou tak'ft away:

Then do they die, and to their dust return again do they.

30 Thy quick'ning sp'rit thou sendest forth, then they created be: And then the earth's decayed face renewed is by thee. 31 The glory of the mighty Lord continue shall for ever;

The Lord JEHOVAH shall rejoice in all his works together.

34 Earth

PSALM CV.

32 Earth, as affrighted, trembleth all if he on it but look: And if the mountains he but touch, they prefently do smoke. 33 I will fing to the Lord most high, fo long as I shall live; And, while I being have, I shall to my God prailes give.

34 Of him my meditation shall fweet thoughts to me afford; And as for me, I will rejoice in God my only Lord.

35 From earth let sinners be consum'd, let ill men no more be: O thou my foul, bless thou the Lord.

Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM CV.

G Ive thanks to God, call on his name, 2 Sing ye to him, fing pfalms, proclaim his wondrous works each one.

3 See that ye in his holy name to glory do accord: And let the heart of ev'ry one rejoice that feeks the Lord.

4 The Lord almighty, and his strength, with stedfast heart feek ye; His bleffed and his gracious face feek ye continually.

5 Think on the works that he hath done, which admiration breed; His wonders, and the judgments all which from his mouth proceed.

6 O ye that are of Abr'ham's race, his fervant well approv'n: And ye that Jacob's children are, whom he choos'd for his own.

7 Because he, and he only, is the mighty Lord our God; And his most right ous judgments are in all the earth abroad.

8 His cov'nant he rememb'red hath, that it may ever stand: To thousand generations the word he did command.

9 Which covenant he firmly made with faithful Abraham, And unto Isaac, by his oath, he did renew the fame:

10 And unto Jacob, for a law, he made it firm and fure, A covenant to Ifrael, which ever should endure. 11 He said, I'll give Canaan's land for heritage to you: 12 While they were strangers there, and few, in number very few.

13 While yet they went from land to land without a fure abode;

And while, through fundry kingdoms, they did wander far abroad.

14 Yet notwithstanding suffer'd he no man to do them wrong; Yea, for their fakes, he did reprove kings, who were great and strong.

15 Thus did he fay, Touch ye not those that mine anointed be, Nor do the prophets any harm, that do pertain to me. 16 He call'd for famine on the land, he brake the staff of bread; 17 But yet he fent a man before by whom they should be fed:

Ev'n Joseph, whom unnat'rally fell for a flave did they;

18 Whose feet with fetters they did hurt, and he in irons lay;

19 Until the time that his word came to give him liberty: The word and purpole of the Lord did him in prison try:

20 Then fent the king, and did command that he enlarg'd should be: He that the people's ruler was did fend to fet him free. 21 A lord, to rule his family, he rais'd him, as most fit: To him, of all that he posses'd, he did the charge commit.

22 That he might at his pleasure bind the princes of the land; And he might teach his fenators wisdom to understand.

23 The people then of Israel down into Egypt came: And Jacob also sojourned within the land of Ham.

24 And he did greatly by his pow'r increase his people there; And stronger than their enemies they by his bleffing were.

25 Their heart he turned to envy his folk malicioufly,

With those that his own servants were to deal in subtilty.

26 His fervant Moses he did send, Aaron his chosen one.

27 By these his signs and wonders great in Ham's land were made known.

28 Darkness he sent, and made it dark; his word they did obey.

29 He turn'd their waters into blood, and he their fifh did flay.

30 The land in plenty brought forth frogs in chambers of their kings.

31 His word all forts of flies and lice in all their borders brings.

32 He hail for rain, and flaming fire into their land he fent:

33 And he their vines and fig-trees smote, trees of their coasts he rent.

34 He fpake, and caterpillars came, to uffs did much abound;

35 Which in their land all herbs confum'd, and all fruits of their ground.

36 He finote all first-born in their land, chief of their strength each one.

37 With sold and filver brought them forth, weak in their tribes were none.

38 Egypt was glad when forth they went, their fear on them did light.

39 He spread a cloud for covering, Fbread and fire to thene by night.

40 They and, and he brought quails: with of heav'n he filled them.

41 He open'd rocks, floods gush'd, and ran in deserts like a stream.

42 For on his holy promife he, and fervant Abr'ham, thought.

43 With joy his people, his elect with gladness forth he brought.

44 And unto them the pleafant lands he of the heathen gave: That of the peop e's labour they inheritance might have.

45 That they his statutes might observe according to his word: And that they might his laws obey, Give praise unto the Lord.

PSALM CVI.

Ive praise and thanks unto the Lord, for bountiful is he, His tender mercy doth endure unto eternity.

2 God's mighty works who can express? or thew forth all his praise?

3 Bleffed are they that judgment keep and justly do always.

4 Remember me, Lord, with that love, which thou to thine dost bear; With the falvation, O my God, to visit me draw near:

5 That I thy chosen's good may fee, and in their joy rejoice: And may with thine inheritance triumph with cheerful voice.

6 We with our fathers finned have, and of iniquity

Too long we have the workers been, we have done wickedly.

7 The wonders great, which thou, O Lord, didft work in Eavpt land, Our fathers, though they faw, yet them they did not understand;

And they thy mercies multitude kept not in memory: But at the fea, ev'n the Red fea, provok'd him grievously. 8 Nevertheless, he saved them, e: 'n for his own name's fake :

That to be wight to be well known his mighty power make.

9 When he the Red fea did rebuke, then dried up it was:

Through depths, as through the wilderness, he fafely made them pafs.

10 From hands of those that hated them he did his people fave:

And from the en'my's cruel hand to them redemption gave.

11 The waters overwhelm'd their foes, not one was left alive.

12 Then they believ'd his word, and praise to him in fongs did give.

13 But foon did they his mighty works forget unthankfully,

And on his counsel and his will did not wait patiently:

14 But much did lust in wilderness, and God in defert tempt.

15 He gave them what they fought, but to their foul he leanness sent.

16 And against Moses, in the camp, their envy did appear; At Aaron they, the faint of God, envious also were.

17 Therefore the earth did open wide, and Dathan did devour, And all Abiram's company did cover in that hour. 18 Likewise among their company a fire was kindled then; And fo the hot confuming flame burnt up these wicked men.

19 Upon the hill of Horeb they an idol-calf did frame; A molten image they did make, and worthipped the fame. 20 And thus their glory, and their God, most vainly changed they

Into the likeness of an ox that eateth grass or hay.

21 They did forget the mighty God, that had their Saviour been, By whom such great things brought to pass they had in Egypt feen. 22 In Ham's land he did wondrous works, things terrible did he.

When he his mighty hand and arm stretch'd out at the Red sea.

23 Then faid he, He would them destroy, had not, his wrath to stay, His chosen Moses stood in breach, that them he should not slay. 24 Yea, they defpis'd the pleasant land, believed not his word:

25 But in their tents they murmured, not heark'ning to the Lord.

26 Therefore in defert them to flay he lifted up his hand:

27 'Mong nations to o'erthrow their feed, and featter in each land.

28 They

PSALM CVII.

- 28 They unto Baal-peor did themselves associate; The facrifices of the dead they did profanely eat.
- 29 Thus, by their lewd inventions, they did provoke his ire: And then upon them fuddenly the plague brake in as fire. 30 Then Phineas rofe, and justice did, and so the plague did cease.

31 That to all ages counted was to him for right'oufness.

32 And at the waters, where they strove, they did him angry make, In fuch fort, that it fared ill with Moses for their sake: 33 Because they there his spirit meek provoked bitterly, So that he utter'd with his lips words unadvifedly.

34 Nor, as the Lord commanded them, did they the nations flay:

35 But with the heathen mingled were, and learn'd of them their wav.

36 And they their idols ferv'd, which did a fnare unto them turn.

37 Their fons and daughters they to de'ils, in facrifice did burn.

38 In their own childrens guiltless blood their hands they did imbrue, Whom to Canaan's idols they for facrifices flew:

So was the land defil'd with blood. They stain'd with their own way. And with their own inventions a whoring they did stray.

40 Against his people kindled was the wrath of God therefore, Infomuch that he did his own inheritance abhor.

41 He gave them to the heathens hand; their foes did them command.

42 Their en'mies them oppress'd, they were made subject to their hand.

43 He many times deliver'd them, but with their counsel so They him provok'd, that for their fin they were brought very low.

44 Yet their affliction he beheld, when he did hear their cry:

45 And he for them his covenant did call to memory,

After his mercies multitude, He did repent: and made Them to be pitied of all those who did them captive lead.

47 O Lord our God, us fave, and gather the heathen from among,

That we thy holy name may praise in a triumphant fong.

48 Blest be JEHOVAH, Isra'l's God, to all eternity: Let all the people fay, Amen.

Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM CVII.

PRaise God, for he is good: for still his mercies lasting be.

2 Let God's redeem'd fay fo, whom he from th' en'mies hand did free:

3 And gather'd them out of the lands, from north, fouth, east, and west.

4 They stray'd in defert's pathless way, no city found to rest.

5 For thirst and hunger in them faints

Their toul. When straits them press, They cry unto the Lord, and he them frees from their dittrets.

7 Them also in a way to walk that right is he did guide, That they might to a city go, wherein they might abide.

8 O that men to the Lord would give praise, for his goodness then, And for his works of wonder done unto the fons of men! 9 For he the foul that longing is doth fully fatisfy,

With goodness he the hungry foul doth fill abundantly.

10 Such as shut up in darkness deep, and in death's shade abide, Whom strongly hath affliction bound, and irons fast have ty'd. 11 (Because against the words of God they wrought rebelliously, And they the counsel did contenu of him that is most High.)

12 Their heart he did bring down with grief, they fell, no help could have.

13 In trouble then they cry'd to God, he them from straits did save.

14 He out of darkness did them bring, and from death's Ihade them take: These bands wherewith they had been afunder quite he brake. Thound

15 O that men to the Lord would give praife, for his goodness then, And for his works of wonder done unto the fons of men! 16 Because the mighty gates of brass in pieces he did tear,

By him in funder also cut the bars of iron were.

17 Fools for their fin, and their offence. do fore affliction bear, 18 All kind of meat their foul abhors, they to death's gates draw near.

19 In grief they cry to God, he faves them from their miseries.

20 He fends his word, them heals, and them from their destructions frees.

21 O that

PSALMS CVIII, CIX.

21 O that men to the Lord would give praife, for his goodness then, And for his works of wonder done unto the fons of men!

22 And let them facrifice to him off rings of thankfulnets; And let them shew abroad his works in fongs of joyfulness.

23 Who go to fea in ships, and in great waters trading be,

24 Within the deep, these men God's works and his great wonders see.

25 For he commands, and forth in haste, the stormy tempest flies,

Which makes the fea with rolling waves aloft to fwell and rife.

26 They mount to heav'n, then to the depths they do go down again.

Their foul doth faint, and melt away with trouble and with pain.

They reel and stagger like one drunk, at their wits end they be, 28 Then they to God in trouble cry, 28 Then they to God in trouble cry, who them from straits doth free.

29 The florm is chang'd into a calm, at his command and will, So that the waves, which rag'd before,

So that the waves, which rag'd before, now quiet are and still.

30 Then are they glad, because at rest and quiet now they be;

So to the haven he them brings, which they defir'd to fee.

37 O that men to the Lord would give praise, for his goodness then, And for his works of wonder done unto the sons of men!

32 Among the people gathered let them exalt his name;

Among affembled elders spread his most renowned fame.

33 He to dry land turns water-springs, and floods to wilderness:

34 For fins of those that dwell therein, fat land to barrenness.

35 The burnt and parched wilderness to water-pools he brings,

The ground that was dry'd up before

The ground, that was dry'd up before, he turns to water-springs.

36 And there, for dwelling, he a place doth to the hungry give, That they a city may prepare commodioufly to live.

37 There fow they fields, and vineyards plant, to vield fruits of increase.

38 His bleffing makes them multiply, lets not their beafts decrease.

39 Again they are diminished, and very low brought down, Through forrow and affliction, and great oppression. 40 He upon princes pours contempt, and caufeth them to firay, And wander in a wilderness, wherein there is no way.

41 Yet fetteth he the poor on high from all his miferies, And he, much like unto a flock, doth make him families.

42 They that are right'ous shall rejoice,

PSALM CVIII.

MY heart is fixt, Lord, I will fing, and with my glory praise.

2 Awake up, pfaltery and harp, myfelf I'll early raife.

3 I'll praise thee 'mong the people, Lord, 'mong nations sing will I:

4 For above heav'n thy mercy's great, thy truth doth reach the sky.

5 Be thou above the heavens, Lord, exalted gloriously:

Thy glory all the earth above be lifted up on high.

6 That those who thy beloved are delivered may be:

O do thou fave with thy right hand and answer give to me.

7 God in his holine's hath faid, Herein I will take pleafure, Shechem I will divide, and forth will Succoth's valley meafure.

8 Gilead I claim as mine by right, Manasseh mine shall be.

Ephra'm is of my head the strength, Judah gives laws for me.

9 Moab is my washing-pot, my shoe I'll over Edom throw,

Over the land of Palestine

I will in triumph go.

O who is he will bring me to 10 O who is he will bring me to the city fortify'd!

O who is he that to the land of Edom will me guide!

this thing wilt thou not do?

And wilt not thou, ev'n thou, O God,

forth with our armies go?

12 Do thou from trouble give us help, for helpless is man's aid.

Through God we shall do valiantly, our foes he shall down tread.

PSALM CIX.

Thou the God of all my praise, do thou not hold thy peace:

2 For mouths of wicked men to speak against me do not cease.

The mouths of vile deceitful men against me open'd be; And with a falle and lying tongue they have accused me.

3 They did befet me round about with words of hateful spite: And though to them no cause I gave, against me they did fight

4 They for my love became my foes, but I me let to pray.

5 Evil for good, hatred for love, to me they did repay.

6 Set thou the wicked over him, and upon his right hand Give thou his greatest enemy, ev'n Satan, leave to stand.

7 And when by thee he shall be judg'd let him condemned be; And let his pray'r be turn'd to fin, when he shall call on thee.

8 Few be his days, and in his room his charge another take. 9 His children let be fatherlefs, his wife a widow make. 10 His children let be vagabonds, and beg continually;

And, from their places defolate, feek bread for their fupply.

11 Let covetous extortioners catch all he hath away: Of all for which he labour'd hath let strangers make a prev.

12 Let there be none to pity him, let there be none at all That on his children fatherless will let his mercy fall.

13 Let his posterity from earth cut off for ever be, And in the following age their name be blotted out by thee.

14 Let God his fathers wickedness still to remembrance call: And never let his mother's fin be blotted out at all.

15 But let them all before the Lord appear continually, That he may wholly from the earth cut off their memory. 16 Because he mercy minded not, but persecuted still

The poor and needy, that he might the broken-hearted kill.

17 As he in curfing pleafure took, so let it to him fall; As he delighted not to blefs, to bles him not at all. 18 As curfing he like clothes put on, into his bowels fo,

Like water, and into his bones, like oil, down let it go.

19 Like to the garment let it be which doth himself array, And for a girdle, wherewith he is girt about alway.

20 From God let this be their reward, that en'mies are to me,

And their reward, that foeak against my foul maliciously.

21 But do thou, for thine own name's fake, O God the Lord, for me: Sith good and sweet thy mercy is, from trouble set me free. 22 For I am poor and indigent, afflicted fore am I,

My heart within me also is wounded exceedingly.

23 I pass like a declining shade, am like the locust tost.

24 My knees through fasting weak'ned are. my flesh hath fatness lott.

25 I also am a vile reproach unto then made to be: And they that did upon me look did shake their heads at me. 26 O do thou help and fuccour me, who art my God and Lord:

And, for thy tender mercies fake, fafety to me afford. 27 That thereby they may know, that this is thy almighty hand; And that thou, Lord, hast done the same,

they may well understand.

28 Although they curfe with spite, yet, Lord, bless thou with loving voice: Let them asham'd be when they rile; thy fervant let rejoice. 29 Let thou mine adversaries all with thame be clothed over,

And let their own confusion them, as a mantle, cover.

30 But as for me, I with my mouth will greatly praise the Lord; And I among the multitude his praises will record. 31 For he shall stand at his right hand who is in poverty,

To fave him from all those that would condemn his foul to die.

PSALM CX.

THE LORD did fay unto my Lord, Sit thou at my right hand, Until I make thy foes a thool whereon thy feet may stand.

2 The Lord shall out of Zion send the rod of thy great power; In midst of all thine enemies be thou the governor.

3 A willing people in thy day of pow'r shall come to thee. In holy beauties, from morn's womb: thy youth like dew shall be.

His work most hopourable is.

3 His work most honourable is, most glorious and pure, And his untainted right'ousness for ever doth endure.

4 His works most wonderful he hath made to be thought upon: The Lord is gracious, and he is

The Lord is gracious, and he is full of compation.

5 He giveth meat unto all those that truly do him fear; And evermore his covenant he in his mind will bear.

6 He did the power of his works unto his people show, When he the heathen's heritage upon them did bestow.

7 His handy-works are truth and right; all his commands are fure:

8 And, done in truth and uprightness, they evermore endure.

9 He fent redemption to his folk, his covenant for ay He did command: holy his name

To ages all; with honour shall his horn be raised high.

The wicked shall it see, and fret, his teeth gnash, melt away: What wicked men do most desire shall utterly decay.

PSALM CXIII.

PRaise God: ye fervants of the Lord, O praise, the Lord's name praise.

Yea, bleffed be the name of God from tois time forth always.From rifing fun, to where it fets,

God's name is to be prais'd.

4 Above all nations God is high,

'bove heav'n's his glory rais'd.

5 Unto the Lord, our God, that dwells on high, who can compare?

6 Himself that humbleth things to see in heav'n and earth that are.

7 He from the dust doth raise the poor, that very low doth ly;

And from the dung-hill lifts the man oppres'd with poverty.

8 That he may highly him advance, and with the princes fer:
With those that of his people are the chief, ev'n princes great.

2 O wherefore should the heathen fay, Where is their God now gone?

3 But our God in the heavens is, what pleas'd him he hath done.

4 Their idols filver are and gold, work of mens hands they be.

5 Mouths have they, but they do not speak; and eyes, but do not fee:

6 Ears have they, but they do not hear; noses, but savour not:

7 Hands, feet, but handle not, nor walk; nor speak they through their throat.

8 Like them their makers are, and all on them their trust that build.

9 O Isra'l trust thou in the Lord, he is their help and shield.

10 O Aaron's house trust in the Lord, their help and shield is he.

II Ye that fear God trust in the Lord, their help and shield he'll be.

12 The Lord of us hath mindful been, and he will blefs us still, He will the house of Isra'l bless, bless Aaron's house he will. 13 Both small and great, that fear the Lord, he will them surely bless. 14 The Lord will you, you and your seed, 15 O bleffed are ye of the Lord, who made the earth and heav'n.

16 The heav'n, ev'n heav'ns are God's, but he earth to mens fons hath giv'n.

17 The dead, nor who to filence go, God's praise do not record. 18 But hanceforth we for ever will bless God. Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM CXVI.

I Love the Lord, because my voice and prayers he did hear.

2 I, while I live, will call on him, who bow'd to me his ear.

3 Of death the cords and forrows did about me compais round, The pains of hell took hold on me, I grief and trouble found.

4 Upon the name of God, the Lord, then did I call, and fay, Deliver thou my foul, O Lord, I do thee humbly pray.
5 God merciful and right ous is, yea, gracious is our Lord.

6 God faves the meek: I was brought low, he did me help afford.

7 O thou my foul, do thou return unto thy quiet rest; For largely, lo, the Lord to thee his bounty hath exprest. 8 For my distressed soul from death deliver'd was by thee:

Thou didst my mourning eyes from tears, my feet from falling free.

9 I in the land of those that live will walk the Lord before.

10 I did believe, therefore I spake: I was afflicted forc.

It I faid, when I was in my hafte, that all men liars be.

12 What shall I render to the Lord, for all his gifts to me?

13 I'll of falvation take the cup, on God's name will I call.

14 I'll pay my vows now to the Lord, before his people all.

15 Dear in God's fight is his faints death.

Thy fervant, Lord, am I. Thy servant sure, thine hand-maid's fon: my bands thou didst unty.

17 Thank-off'rings I to thee will give, and on God's name will call.

18 I'll pay my vows now to the Lord, before his people all;

19 Within the courts of God's own house, within the midst of thee,

O city of Jerusalem. Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM CXVII.

Give ye praise unto the Lord, all nations that be:

Likewise, ye people all, accord his name to magnify.

2 For great to us-ward ever are his loving kindnesses: His truth endures for evermore, the Lord, O do ve bleis.

PSALM CXVIII.

Praise the Lord, for he is good:

2 Let those of Irrael now say, His mercy faileth never.

3 Now let the house of Aaron say, His mercy lasteth ever.

4 Let those that fear the Lord now say;
His mercy faileth never.

5 I in diffress call'd on the Lord: the Lord did answer me, He in a large place did me set, from trouble made me free.

6 The mighty Lord is on my fide,

I will not be afraid:
For any thing that man can do
I shall not be difinay'd.

7 The Lord doth take my part with them that help to fuccour me;
Therefore on those that do me hate

I my defire fhall fee.

& Better it is to trust in God, than trust in man's defence;

9 Better to trust in God, than make princes our confidence.

The nations, joining all in one, did compass me about:

But in the Lord's most holy name
I shall them all root out.

They compass'd me about, I say, they compass'd me about:But in the Lord's most holy nameI shall them all root out.

Like bees they compass'd me about:
like unto thorns that flame
They quenched are: for them shall I destroy in God's own name.

13 Thou fore hast thrust, that I might fail, but my Lord helped me.

14 God my falvation is become, my strength and fong is he.

15 In dwellings of the righteous is heard the melody

Of joy and health; the Lord's right hand doth ever valiantly.

76 The right hand of the mighty Lord exalted is on high:

The right hand of the mighty Lord doth ever valiantly.

17 I shall not die, but live, and shall the works of God discover.

18 The Lord hath me chastised fore, but not to death giv'n over.

19 O fet ye open unto me the gates of right'ousness: Then will I enter into them, and I the Lord will bless.

20 This is the gate of God, by it the just shall enter in.

21 Thee will I praise, for thou me heard'st and hast my safety been.

22 That stone is made head corner-stone; which builders did despise:

23 This is the doing of the Lord, and wondrous in our eyes.

24 This is the day God made, in it we'll joy triumphantly.

25 Save now, I pray thee, Lord, I pray, fend now prosperity.

26 Bleffed is he, in God's great name that cometh us to fave;
We, from the house which to the Lord pertains, you bleffed have.

27 God is the Lord, who unto us hath made light to arite:
Bind ye unto the altar's horns with cords the facrifice.

28 Thou art my God, I'll thee exalt,; my God, I will thee praise.

129 Thy statutes, Lord, are wonderful, my foul them keeps with care.

130 The entrance of thy words gives light, makes wife who simple are.

131 My mouth I have wide opened, and panted earnestly, While after thy commandements I long'd exceedingly.

132 Look on me, Lord, and merciful do thou unto me prove, As thou art wont to do to those thy name who truly love, 133 O let my footsteps in thy word aright still order'd be; Let no iniquity obtain dominion over me, 134 From man's oppression save thou me, fo keep thy laws I will.

135 Thy face make on thy servant shine; teach me the flatutes still.

136 Rivers of waters from mine eyes did run down, when I faw How wicked men run on in fin, and do not keep thy law.

The 18th Part. TSADDI.

137 O Lord, thou art most righteous, thy judgments are upright.

138 Thy testimonies thou command'st most faithful are and right.

139 My zeal hath ev'n confumed me, because mine enemies Thy holy words forgotten have, and do thy laws despite.

140 Thy word's most pure, therefore on it thy fervant's love is fet.

141 Small, and despis'd I am, yet I thy precepts not forget.

142 Thy right oulness is right oulness, which ever doth endure: Thy holy law, Lord, also is the very truth most pure.

143 Trouble and anguish have me found, and taken hold on me; Yet in my trouble my delight thy just com an liments be.

144 Eternal right'outnets is in thy testimonies all:

Lord, to me understanding give, and ever live I shall.

The 19th Part. KOPH.

145 With my whole heart I cry'd, Lord hear; I will thy word obey.

146 I cry'd to thee, fave me, and I will keep thy laws alway.

147 I of the morning did prevent. the dawning, and did try For all mine expectation did on thy word rely.

The 17th Part. 148 Mine eyes did timeously prevent the watches of the night,

That in thy word, with careful mind; then meditate I might.

149 After thy loving kindness hear my voice that calls on thee: According to thy judgment, Lord, revive and quicken me.

150 Who follow mischief they draw nigh; they from thy laws are far.

151 But thou art near, Lord; most firm truth, all thy commandments are.

152 As for thy testimonies all of old this have I try'd,

That thou hast furely founded them for ever to abide.

RESH.

The 20th Part.

153 Confider mine affliction, in safety do me set: Deliver me, O Lord, for I thy law do not forget.

154 After thy word revive thou me, fave me and plead my caule.

155 Salvation is from suners far, for they feek not thy laws.

156 O Lord, both great and manifold thy tender mercies be:

According to the judgments just revive and quicken me.

157 My perfecutors many are, and foes that do combine: Yet from thy testimonies pure my heart doth not decline.

158 I saw transpressors, and was griev'd: for they keep not thy word.

159 See how I love thy law! as thou art kind, me quicken, Lord,

160 From the beginning all thy word hath been most true and sure; Thy right'ous judgments ev'ry one for evermore endure.

The 21st Part SCHIN.

161 Princes have persecuted me, although no cause they saw: But still of thy wost holy word my heart doth fland in awe.

162 I at the word rejoice, as one of spoil that finds great store, 163 The law I love, but lying all I hate and do abhor.

164 Sev'n times a day it is my care to give due praise to thee:

Because of all the judgments, Lord, which right'ous ever be.

165 Great peace have they who love thy law offence they shall have none.

166 I hop'd for thy falvation, Lord, and thy commands have done.

167 My foul thy testimonies pure observed carefully: On them my heart is fet, and them I love exceedingly.

The 22d Part.

169 O let my earnest pray'r and cry come near before thee, Lord; Give understanding unto me, according to thy word.

170 Let my request before thee come:

after thy word me free.

171 My lips shall utter praise, when thou hast taught thy laws to me.

172 My tongue of thy most blessed word shall speak, and it confess: Because all thy commandements are perfect right'oulnels.

173 Let thy strong hand make help to me: thy precepts are my choice.

174 I long'd for thy falvation, Lord, and in thy law rejoice.

175 O let my foul live, and it shall give praises unto thee:

And let thy judgments gracious be helpful unto me.

176 I like a lost sheep went astray, thy fervant feek, and find: For thy commands I suffer'd not to flip out of my mind.

PSALM CXX.

I TN my distress to God I cry'd, and he gave ear to me.

3 Jerus'lem as a city is compactly built together:

4 Unto that place the tribes go up, the tribes of God go thither.

To Ifra'l's testimony, there: to God's name thanks to pay.

5 For thrones of judgment, ev'n the thrones, of David's house there stay.

6 Pray that Jerufalem may have peace and felicity:

Let them that love thee, and thy peace, have still prosperity.

7 Therefore I wish that peace may still within thy walls remain, And ever may thy palaces prosperity retain.

8 Now, for my friends, and brethrens fakes, Peace be in thee, I'll fay, 9 And for the house of God our Lord, I'll feek thy good alway.

PSALM CXXIII.

Thou that dwellest in the heav'ns, I lift mine eyes to thee.

2 Behold, as servant's eyes do look their master's hand to see,

As hand-maid's eyes her mistress hand, fo do our eyes attend

Upon the Lord our God, until to us he mercy fend.

3 O Lord, be gracious to us, unto us gracious be: Because replenish'd with contempt exceedingly are we.

4 Our foul is fill'd with fcorn of thofe that at their ease abide,

And with the infolent contempt of those that swell in pride.

PSALM CXXIV.

IAd not the Lord been on our side. may Ifrael now fay:

2 Had not the Lord been on our side, when men rofe us to flay:

3 They had us fwallow'd quick, when as their wrath 'gainst us did flame :

4 Waters had cover'd us, our foul had funk beneath the stream.

5 Then had the waters, swelling high over our foul made way.

4 My heart incline thou not unto the ills I should abhor,

To practife wicked works with men that work iniquity:

And with their delicates my tafte let me not fatisfy.

5 Let him that right'ous is me smite, it shall a kindness be:

Let him reprove, I shall it count a precious oil to me:

Such finiting thall not break my head; for yet the time shall tall,

When I in their caiamides te God pray for them thall, 6 When as their judges down shall be in stony places cult:

Then thall they hear my words, for they shall sweet be to their taile.

7 About the grave's devouring mouth our bones are featter'd rou d, As wood, which men do cut and cleave lies scatter'd on the ground.

8 But unto thee, O God the Lord, mine eyes uplifted be; My foul do not leave destitute, my trust is set on thee.

9 Lord, keep me fafely from the mare which they for me prepare.

And from the fubtil grins of them that wicked workers are.

10 Let workers of iniquity into their own nets fall, Whilst I do by this e help escape the danger of them all.

PSALM CXLII.

I With my voice cry'd to the Lord, with it made my request:

2 Pour'd out to him my plaint, to him my trouble I exprest.

3 When in me was o'enwhelm'd my sp'rit, then well thou knew'it my way: Where I did walk, a fnare for me they privily did lay.

4 I look'd on my right hand, and view'd, but none to know me were: All refuge failed me, no man did for my toul take care.

5 I cry'd to thee, I faid. Thou art my refure, Lord, clone, And in the land of those that live thou art my portion.

6 Because I am brought very low, attend unto my cry;

Me from my perfecutors fave, who firenger are than I.

7 From priton bring my foul, that I thy name may glorify: The just thall compais me, when thou with me deal'st bounteously.

PSALM CXLIII.

Ord, hear my pray'r, attend my fuits:
and in thy faithfulnets Give thou an answer unto me, and in thy right outliers.

2 Thy fervant also bring thou not in judgment to be try'd: Because no living man can be in thy fight justify'd.

3 For th' en'my hath purlu'd my foul, my life to ground down tread : In darkners i e hath made me dwell, as who have lon; been dead. 4 My tp'rit is therefore overwhelm'd in me perplexedly;

Within me is my very heart aniazed wondroud, .

PSALM CXLIV.

5 I call to mind the days of old, to meditate I we

On all thy works: upon the deeds

I of thy hands do mufe.

6 My hands to thee I stretch: my foul thirsts as by land for thee.

7 Haste, Lord, to hear, my spirit fails: hide not thy face from me.

Lest like to them I do become, that go down to the dust.

S At morn let me toy kindness hear, for in thee do I trust:

Teach we the way that I should walk,
I lift my foul to thee.

9 Lord, free me from my foes, I flee to thee to cover me.

20 Because thou art my God, to do thy will do me instruct: Thy Sp'rit is good, me to the land of uprightness conduct.

re Revive and qui ken me, O Lord, ev': for thine own name's fake; And to thou, for tny right'oufnels, my foul from trouble take.

12 And of the mercy flay my foes; let all destroyed be That do afflict my foul, for I a fervan am to thee.

· Another of the same.

- H, hear my pray'r, Lord,
 And unto my defire
 To bow thine ear accord,
 I humbly thee require:
 And in thy faithfulnefs
 Unto me anfwer make,
 And in thy right'ouinefs
 Upon me pity take.
- 2 In judgment enter not
 With me thy fervant poor;
 For why, this well I wot,
 No finner can endure
 The fight of thee, O God,
 If thou his deeds shalt try,
 He dare make none abode
 Himself to justify.
- 3 Behold, the cruel foe
 Me perfecutes with spite,
 My foul to overthrow:
 Yea, he my life down quite Unto the ground hath smote,
 And made me dwell full low
 In darkness, as forgot,
 Or men dead long ago.
- 4 Therefore, my fp'rit much vex'd O'erwhelm'd is me within:
 My heart right fore perplex'd And defolate hath been.

5 Yet I do call to mind
What ancient days record,
Thy works of ev'ry kind
I think upon, O Lord.

- 6 Lo, I do ftretch my hands
 To thee my help alone,
 For thou well understands
 All my complaint and moan:
 My thirsting soul desires,
 And longeth after thee,
 As thirsty ground requires
 With rain refresh'd to be.
- 7 Lord, let my pray'r prevail,
 To answer it make speed,
 For lo, my sp'rit doth fail:
 Hide not thy face in need:
 Lest I be like to those,
 That do in darkness fit,
 Or him that downward goes
 Into the dreadful pit.
- 8 Because I trust in thee,
 O Lord, cause one to hear
 Thy loving kindness free,
 When morning doth appear:
 Cause me to know the way
 Wherein my path should be,
 For why, my foul on high
 I do I ft up to thee.

From my fierce enemy
In fafety do me guide,
Because I flee to thee,
Lord, that thou may'st me hide.

To My God alone art thou, Teach me thy right outners: Thy fprit's good, lead me to The land of uprightners.

II O Lord, for thy name's fake, Be pleas'd to quicken me: And for thy truth forth take My foul from mifery.

12 And of the grace deftroy
My foes, and put to thame
All who my foul annoy;
For I thy fervant am.

PSALM CXLIV.

Bleffed ever be the Lord, who is my firength and might, Who doth instruct my hands to war, my fingers teach to fight.

2 My g odness, fortress, my high tow'r, deliverer, and shield,

In whom I trust: who under me my people makes to yield.

3 Lord, what is man, that thou of him dost so much knowledge take?

Or son of man, that thou of him so great account dost make?

4 Man is like vanity: his days as fladows pas away.

5 Lord, bow thy heav'ns, come down, touch the hills, and fmoke shall they.

6 Cast forth thy lightning, scatter them: thine arrows shoot, them rout.

7 Thine hand fend from above, me fave, from great depths draw me out:

And

Tthou

PSALM CXLV.

And from the hand of children strange: Whose mouth speaks vanity:

And their right hand is a right hand, that works deceitfully.

A new fong I to thee will fing, Lord, on a pfaltery, I on a ten-string'd instrument will praises sing to thee.

o Ev'n he it is, that unto kings falvation doth send:

Who his own fervant David doth from hurtful fword defend.

I O free me from strange childrens hand, whose mouth speaks vanity;

And their right hand a right hand is, that works deceitfully.

2 That as the plants our fons may be in youth grown up that are; Our daughters like to corner-stones, carv'd like a palace fair.

3 That to afford all kind of store, our garners may be fill'd;

That our sheep thousands, in our streets ten thousands they may yield.

14 That strong our oxen be for work, that no in-breaking be, Nor going out, and that our streets may from complaints be free.

5 Those people blessed are, who be in such a case as this: Yea, bleffed all those people are, whose God JEHOVAH is.

PSALM CXLV.

I I'll thee extol, my God, O king,
I'll blefs they name always.
Thee will I blefs, each day, and will thy name for ever praise. 3 Great is the Lord, much to be prais'd, his greatness search exceeds. 4 Race unto race shall praise thy works, and shew thy mighty deeds.

5 I of thy glorious majefly the honour will record, I'll speak of all thy mighty works, which wondrous are, O Lord.

6 Men of thine acts the might shall show, thine acts that dreadful are: And I, thy glory to advance, thy greatness will declare.

7 The mem'ry of thy goodness great they largely shall express, With fongs of praise they shall extol thy perfect right oufnefs.

8 The Lord is very gracious, in him compassions flow, In mercy he is very great, and is to anger flow.

9 The Lord JEHOVAH unto all his/goodness doth declare: And over all his other works his tender mercies are.

10 Thee all thy works shall praise, O Lord, and thee thy faints shall blefs.
It They shall thy kingdom's glory show, thy pow'r by speech express.

12 To make the fons of men to know his acts done mightily, And of his kingdom th' excellent and glorious majesty.

13 Thy kingdom shall for ever stand, thy reign through ages all.

14 God raifeth all that are bow'd down, upholdeth all that fall.

15 The eyes of all things wait on thee, the giver of all good, And thou in time convenient bestows on them their food.

16 Thine hand thou open'st lib'raily, and of thy bourty gives Enough to fatisfy the need of ev'ry thing that lives.

17 The Lord is just in all his ways, holy in his works all.

18 God's near to all that call on him, in truth that on him call.

19 He will accomplish the defire of those that do him fear; He also will deliver them, and he their cry will hear.

20 The Lord preserves all who him love, that nought can them annoy: But he all those that wicked are will utterly destroy.

21 My mouth the praises of the Lord to publish cease shall never: Let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and for ever.

Another of the same.

Lord, thou art my God and King, Thee will I magnify and praise, I will thee bless, and gladly sing Unto thy holy name always.

2 Each day I rife I will thee blefs,

And praise thy name time without end.

3 Much to be prais'd, and great God is, His greatness none can comprehend.

4 Race shall thy works praise unto race, The mighty acts show, done by thee.

5 I will speak of the glorious grace, And honour of thy majesty;
The wondrous works I will record.

6 By men the might shall be extoll'd Of all thy dreadful acts, O Lord: And I thy greatness will unfold.

7 They utter shall abundantly The mem'ry of thy goodness great, And shall sing praises chearfully, Whilst they thy right'ousness relate.

8 The Lord our God is gracious, Compassionate is he also, In mercy he is plenteous, But unto wrath and anger flow.

PSALMS CXLVI, CXLVII.

o Good unto all men is the Lord:
O'er all his works his mercy is.

10 Thy wo as praise to thee afford. Thy laints, O Lord, thy name shall bless.

It The glory of the kingdom thow Shart ev, and of the power tell.

- 12 That to meas one his deeds may know, His kingdom's glace that doth excel.
- 13 Thy kingdom bath none end at all, It dots brough ages all remain.

14 The Lord woh lacih all that fad, The call down rai eth up again.

- 15 The eyes of all things, Lord, attend, And on thee wait that here do live:
 And this in 'eafon due doft fend Sufficient food them to relieve.
- 16 Yea, thou thine hand dost open wide, And every thing dost fatisfy That lives, and doth on earth abide, Of thy great liberality.

17 The Lord is just in his ways all, And hely in his works each one.

- 18 He's near to all that on him call, Who call in truth on him alone.
- 19 God will the just desire felfil Of each as do nim fear and dread: Their cry regard, and hear he will, And fave them in the time of need.

20 The Lord preferves all, more and lefs, That bear to him a loving heart: But workers all of wickednefs Deftroy will he, and clean fubvert.

21 Therefore my mouth and lips I'll frame
To speak the praises of the Lord:
To magnify his holy Name
For ever let all flash accord.

PSALM CXLVI.

PRaife God. The Lord praise, O my foul.
2 Pil praise God while I live:

While I have being, to my God in fones I'll praites give.

3 Trest not in princes, nor man's fon in whom there is no stay:

4 He breath departs, to's earth he turns; that day his thoughts decay.

5 O happy is that man, and bleft, whom Jacob's Gold doth ad.
Whose hope upon the Lord doch rest, and on his God is shaid:

6 Who made the carch, and heavens high, who made the fwelling deep.
And all that is widdle the fune:

who truth doth ever keep:

7 Who right to is judgment executes
 I've the copyrith that be.
 Who to the hungry giveth food:
 God to the primary free.

2 The Lord doth live the blind their fight; the bowed down duth raise;
The Lord doch deart to earl those and will in aprize by.

9 The stranger's shield, the widow's stay, the orphan's help is he:

But yet by him the wicked's way furn'd upfide down shall be.

The Lord shall reign for evermore, thy God. O Zion, he Reigns to all generations. Praise to the Lord give ye.

PSALM CXLVII.

PRaise ye the Lord: for it is good praise to our God to sing;
For it is pleasant, and to praise it is a comely thing.

it is a comely thing.

2 God do h build up Jeru'alem:
and he it is alone
That he it is alone

That the dispers'd of Israel doth gather into one.

3 Those that are broken in their hearts and grieved in their minds. He healesh, and their painful wounds he tenderly up-binds.

A He counts the number of the stars: he names them ev'ry one.

5 Great is our Lord, and of great pow'r: his wildom fearch can none.

6 The Lord lifts up the meek: and casts the wicked to the ground.

7 Sing to the Lord, and give him thanks:

on harp his praifes found.

8 Who covereth the heav'n with clouds, who for the earth below

Prepareth rain, who maketh grafs upon the mountains grow.

9 He gives the beast his food, he feeds the ravens young that cry.

nor in man's legs doth ly.

the Lord doth pleasure take, In these that to his mercy do by hope themselves betake.

12 The Lord praise, O Jerusalem: Zion, thy God confess.

13 For thy gates bars he maketh ftrong: thy fons in thee doth blefs.

14 He in thy borders maketh peace: with fine wheat filleth thee.

15 He fends forth his command on earth, his word runs fpeedily.

16 Hoar frost, like ashes, scatt'reth he; like wool he snow doth give:

17 Like morfels casteth forth his ice:

who in its cold can live?

18 He tendeth forth his mighty word, and melteth them again:

His winds he in kes to blow, and then the waters flow amain.

The doctrine of his holy word to Jacob he doth show; His fiatutes and his judgments he gives I had to know.

PSALMS CXLVIII, CXLIX.

To any nation never he fuch favour did afford; For they his judgments have not known. O do ye praise the Lord.

PSALM CXLVIII.

PRaise God. From heavens, praise the in heights praise to him be. 2 All ye his angels, praise ye him, his holts all, praise him ye.

3 O praise ye him, both sun and moon, praise him all stars of light. [flo 4 Ye heav'ns of heav'ns him praise, and above the heaven's height.

5 Let all the creatures praise the name of our almighty Lord: For he commanded, and they were created by his word.

6 He also, for all times to come, hath them establish'd sure:

He hath appoint d them a law, which ever shall endure.

7 Praise ye JEHOVAH from the earth, dragons, and ev'ry deep:

8 Fire, hail, fnow, vapour, fformy wind, his word that fully keep.

9 All hills and mountains, fruitful trees, and all ve cedars high.

10 Beafts, and all cattle, creeping things, and all ye birds that fly.

II Kings of the earth, all nations, princes. ea th's judges all:

12 Both young men. yea, and maidens too, old men, and children small.

13 Let them God's name praise: for his name alone is excellent: His glory reacheth far above the earth and firmament.

14 His people's horn, the praise of all his faints exalteth he; Ev'n Isra'l's seed, a people near to him. The Lord praise ye.

Another of the same.

THe Lord of heav'n confess, On high his glory raife.

2 Him let ail angels blefs. Him all his armies praise.

Him glorify Sun, moon, and stars: Ye higher spheres, And cloudy iky.

5 From God your beings are. Him therefore famous make; You all created were, When he the word but spake,

And from that place, Where fix'd you be, By his decree, You cannot pals.

7 Praise Go I from earth below,

Ye dragons, and ye deeps: 8 Fire, hail, clouds, wind, and fnow, Whom in command he keeps.

Praise ye his name, Hills great and imall, Trees low and tall: Beasts wild and tame.

All things that creep or fly.

11 Ye kings, ye vulgar throng, All princes mean or high.

12 Both men and virgins young, Ev'n young and old

Exalt his name; For much his fame Should be extoli'd.

O let God's name be prais'd Above both earth and sky: 14 For he his faints hath rais'd,

And set their horn on high; Ev'n those that be Of Ifra'l's race Near to his grace. The Lord praise ye.

PSALM CXLIX.

PRaife ye the Lord: unto him fing I a new fong, and his praise In the affembly of his faints in sweet psalms do ye raise.

2 Let Isra'l in his maker joy, and to him praises fing: Let all that Zion's children are be joyful in their King.

3 O let them unto his great name give praises in the dance; Let them with timbrel and with harp in fongs his praise advance.

4 For God doth pleasure take in those that his own people be: And he with his talvation the meek will beautify. 5 And in his glory excellent let all his faints rejoice: Let them to him upon their beds aloud lift up their voice.

6 Let in their mouth aloft be rais'd the high praise of the Lord, And let them have, in their right hand, a sharp two edged sword:

7 To execute the vengeance due upon the heathen all. And make deferved punishment upon the people fail. 8 And ev'n with chains, as pris'ners, bind their kings that them command, Yea, and with iron fetters flrong, the nobles of their land.

9 On them the judgment to perform found writin in as wo d: This bon ur is to al his faints. O do ye praise the Lore.

PSALM CL.

P S A L M CL.

PRaife ye the Lord. God's praife within his fanctuary raife:

And to him in the firmament of his pow'r give ye praife.

2 Because of all his mighty acts.
with praife him magnify:

O praife him as he doth excel in glorious majesty.

3 Praise him with trumpet's found; I with pfaltery advance;

4 With timbrel, harp, string'd instruments, and organs in the dance.

5 Praise him on cymbals loud, him praise on cymbals sounding high.

6 Let each thing breathing praise the Lord. Praise to the Lord give ye.
